These Baths stand on what was formerly part of the grounds of the celebrated Northumberland House. They occupied nearly three years in building, and involved an expenditure of £30,000. They comprise a large suite of Bath Rooms, having a floor space of about twelve thousand feet, with a smaller suite in a separate but adjacent building for the exclusive use of Ladies; the Cooling Rooms, which are fitted in a most luxurious manner, are surmounted by a lofty dome specially designed to permit free circulation of air, and to ensure perfect ventilation; while the heating and ventilation of the hot chambers have been brought to a state of perfection by a system first introduced by the Proprietors of these Baths, and the whole of the decorations of both Hot and Cooling Rooms have been designed by the most eminent authorities.

P R E F A C E.

Since the last Edition of the Foreign Office List :—

Earl Curzon of Kedleston has been appointed Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in succession to Mr. Balfour, who has become Lord President of the Council. Sir Hamar Greenwood, Bart., M.P., has been appointed additional Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs in succession to Sir Arthur Steel Maitland, resigned.

The Foreign Office and Diplomatic Service have been completely re-organised, the two Services being amalgamated as far as possible. The various appointments, promotions and transfers consequent upon this change are too numerous to be mentioned in detail. Full particulars will, however, be found in the body of the work.

The Chief Clerk's Department of the Foreign Office has been re-organised, the grade known as the "Intermediate" Class of Clerkships having been introduced in that Section. The existing members of the staff below the rank of Assistant and Chief Accountant have been promoted to appointments under the new grade.

Mr. Stephen Gaselee, C.B.E., has been appointed Librarian and Keeper of the Papers at the Foreign Office.

The Missions to Belgium and Brazil have been raised from the grade of Legations to that of Embassies. Sir Francis Villiers, the former Minister at Brussels, has been promoted to be Ambassador, and Sir Ralph Paget has been appointed in the same capacity at Rio de Janeiro.

The Commercial Diplomatic Service has been considerably extended, a new scheme of organisation having come into force as from January 1. A complete statement of the appointments in this Branch of the Service will be found on pages 227 and 228.

CONSULAR SERVICE.—The administrative control of the Consular Service has been transferred to the Department of Overseas Trade. The Service has been completely re-organised, but the various appointments and promotions are too numerous to admit of mention being made here. Particulars of the changes have been inserted in the various Sections of the work in so far as this was possible at the time of going to press.

Mr. Godfrey Hertslet has resumed charge at Trieste as H.M. Consul-General, and Mr. Harry L. Sherwood, H.M. Consul at Portland (Oregon), has been appointed Inspector-General of Consulates in addition to Mr. C. B. C. Clipperton, C.M.G., who already holds that post.

THE OBITUARY includes the following names :—Lord Bertie, formerly Ambassador at Paris ; Sir Richard Crawford, formerly Commercial Commissioner to the Embassy at Washington ; Major J. N. Barnardiston, Military Attaché at Lisbon ; Sir Augustus Oakes, formerly Librarian at the Foreign Office ; Mr. William A. Cockerell, formerly Senior Clerk in the Foreign Office ; Sir Percy Sanderson, formerly Consul-General at New York ; Sir Robert Syngé, Deputy Marshal of the Ceremonies ; Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry Trotter, formerly Consul-General at Galatz ; and Mr. E. C. Bleck, Consul-General at Genoa.

THE RATIFICATION OF THE PEACE TREATY.—The formal conclusion of hostilities has rendered possible renewal of diplomatic relations with Germany, and Lord Kilmarnock has been appointed Chargé d'Affaires at Berlin. Several Commercial Commissioners had already been appointed in the ex-enemy countries, and these appointments will be converted into Commercial Counsellors or Secretaries as the case may be without delay. Steps have also been taken for the re-appointment of Consular Officers in these countries.

PREFACE.

Great efforts have been made to bring the records of the special war appointments, in the body of the book, up to date, but it is feared that in some cases these are still incomplete. Further information in this connection would be readily welcomed by the Editors.

The suspension, owing to the war, of the usual literary examination for appointments in the Foreign Office and in the Diplomatic Service still continues. The special regulations governing these appointments are given on page 128.

The Editors would be glad if those who are willing that particulars of their Public School and University Education should be recorded in the "Statement of Services" would forward the necessary information to enable this to be done.

Further information received after January 1, up to date of going to press, will be found on page xxxi.

In view of the difficulty of getting information respecting many whose names remain in the Statement of Services as having served under the Foreign Office, but whose connection with the office (in many cases only temporary) has ceased, a list is published each year of those whose names will be removed from subsequent editions should no information be forthcoming during the current year to warrant their retention in the Foreign Office List. The list will be found at page xxxii.

All communications for the Editors should be addressed to them, c/o the Chief Clerk's Department, Foreign Office.

The unavoidable delay in the issue of this Edition is much regretted.

THE EDITORS.

ORDER IN COUNCIL REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN—JANUARY 10, 1910.

WHEREAS by several Orders in Council dated * * * * * provision has been made for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments and the conditions of service therein.

And whereas it is expedient that so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force should be consolidated, with certain amendments, into one Order in Council,

1. Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that, as from the date of this Order, so much of the aforesaid Orders as is now in force shall be repealed, and that the provisions following shall have effect in substitution for them:—

Provided that such repeal or substitution shall not affect the validity of anything done under or by virtue of such Orders or any of them.

Provided also that nothing in this Order shall affect any right, privilege, or exemption enjoyed by any person in His Majesty's Civil Establishments under Regulations in force at the date of the passing of this Order.

PART I.

Civil Service Commissioners.

2. Such persons as His Majesty in Council shall have approved shall be His Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners (hereinafter called the Commissioners) for testing the qualifications of the persons proposed to be appointed to any situation or employment in His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for testing, in conformity with regulations to be from time to time issued by the Army Council, the literary qualifications of candidates for admission by means of competitive examinations to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst, and to the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of His Majesty; and shall have power, subject to the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (hereinafter called the Treasury), to appoint from time to time such assistant examiners and others as may be required to assist them in the performance of the duties herein assigned to them.

Provided that any Commissioner appointed for the purposes aforesaid may, subject to the approval of the Treasury previously obtained, by writing under his hand, authorize the Secretary for the time being to the Civil Service Commission to act as Commissioner at any time during the absence of any of the Commissioners, or during any vacancy among the Commissioners, or for such period during such absence or vacancy as may be fixed by such authorization.

The Secretary, when acting in pursuance of such authorization, shall have all powers, duties, and authorities assigned by this or any future Order in Council to the Commissioners for the time being appointed for the purposes aforesaid.

Certificates of Qualification.

*3. Subject to the provisions of Clause 7 of this Order and to the exceptions specified in the Schedule marked B, appended hereto, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the said Commissioners; and no person (save as excepted in the said Schedule B) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a Certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them—

- 1st, that he is within the limits of age prescribed for the situation or employment to which he desires to be admitted;
- *2nd, that he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties;
- 3rd, that his character is such as to qualify him for such situation or employment; and
- 4th, that he possesses the requisite knowledge and ability to enter on the discharge of his duties.

Rules to be settled by Commissioners and Heads of Departments.

4. The rules applicable to each Establishment (hereinafter called Department) under each of the above heads shall be settled, subject to the approval of the Treasury, by the Commissioners and the Head of the Department.

Competitive Examinations.

†5. Save as hereinafter is excepted, all appointments which it may be necessary to make to any of the situations in the Departments included in Schedule A appended hereto, or any other situations included or to be included in that Schedule, shall be made by means of competitive examinations, according to regulations framed or to be from time to time framed by the Commissioners, and approved by the Treasury, open to all persons (of the requisite age, health, character, and other qualifications prescribed in the said regulations) who may be desirous of attending the same, subject to the payment of such fees as may be prescribed under this Order, or may have already been prescribed under the Orders of 4th June, 1870, and of 22nd March, 1879, now repealed. Such examinations shall be held at such periods, and for such situations or groups of situations, as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, shall have from time to time determined, and shall have reference, as the Commissioners, after consultation with the Head of the Department concerned and with the approval of the Treasury, may deem expedient, either to the vacancies existing at the time of the examination, or to the number of vacancies which may be estimated as likely to occur within any period not exceeding six months after the commencement of the examination, or to such vacancies occurring within any period not exceeding six months from the date of the announcement of the result of the examination as the Head of the Department may desire to have so filled.

* See Amendments in Orders in Council of March 22 and October 23, 1918, pages 89-91.

Probation.

*6. After the candidate has passed his examination and his certificate of qualification has been issued by the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation of one year or such extended period not exceeding two years in all as may be prescribed by the Head of his Department. During this time his conduct and capacity shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Head of his Department, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless and until his probation shall have furnished to the Head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness.

Special Qualifications. Certificates may be granted without examination.

7. In case the Head of a Department to which a situation belongs and the Treasury shall consider that the qualifications in respect of knowledge and ability deemed requisite for such situation are wholly or in part professional, or otherwise peculiar, and not ordinarily to be acquired in the Civil Service, and the Head of the Department shall propose to appoint thereto a person who has acquired such qualifications in other pursuits, or in case the Head of the Department and the Treasury shall consider that it would be for the public interest that the prescribed examination and the rules in regard to age should be wholly or partially dispensed with, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with such examination, wholly or partially, and with such rules in regard to age, and may grant their certificate of qualification upon evidence satisfactory to them that the said person is fully qualified in respect of age, health, character, and knowledge and ability.

Salary and Increments of Persons Employed before Obtaining Certificate.

8. When a person has been selected for appointment to an office in any Department, and the state of business in that Department makes it necessary that he should enter upon his duties before the issue in his favour of a certificate by the Commissioners, the Treasury may, if they think proper, direct that his salary shall be payable from the date on which he commences the discharge of his duties, provided that they are satisfied that the delay in the issue of the certificate is owing wholly to causes beyond his control. If such person is on a scale of salary, the first incremental period of such scale shall be reckoned from the date on which his salary became payable, provided that a certificate shall in the meanwhile have been issued by the Commissioners.

Examination Fees.

9. Fees shall be paid of such amount, in such manner, and at such times, by persons attending examinations held by the Commissioners, or certificated by them under Clause 7 of this Order, as they, with the approval of the Treasury, have prescribed, or shall from time to time prescribe, by notice published by them in the "London Gazette."

The Commissioners may, with the like approval, exempt from the payment of fees such classes of persons as they may think fit to exempt. Every such exemption shall be published in the "London Gazette."

The Commissioners, with the like approval, may, by notice in the "London Gazette," cancel any preceding notice therein, or any part thereof, and may by such or by any further notice vary the amount of the fees to be paid by persons attending examinations held by them, or the manner, or the time, of paying such fees, or the classes of persons required to pay them, or exempted from paying them.

Appointments to be Gazetted.

10. All appointments and promotions with respect to which certificates have been issued by the Commissioners and all assignments and transfers of Second Division Clerks shall be published by the Commissioners in the "London Gazette."

Situations Excepted from Operation of this Part.

11. The situations included in the Schedule marked B, hereto appended, shall be wholly excepted from the operation of this Part of this Order.

Provided that the Head of any Department, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time, by notice in the "London Gazette," add situations to either of the said Schedules, marked A and B respectively, or withdraw situations therefrom.

PART II.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL PERMANENT OFFICERS IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL ESTABLISHMENTS.

Treasury may Inquire into Pay and Numbers of Departments.

12. It shall be competent for the Treasury to direct, should they see cause, that inquiry be made at intervals of not less than five years into the pay and numbers of officers employed by any Department of State.

Attendance Book.

13. Attendance Books shall be kept in every Department for the purpose of recording the times of arrival and departure of persons employed therein.

Seven Hours' Daily Attendance. Alternate Saturday Half-holiday.

14. Officers are required to attend not less than seven hours a day, but they shall be allowed a half-holiday on alternate Saturdays, provided that the Head of their Department is satisfied that the progress of public business will not be prejudiced thereby.

Compulsory Retirement.

15. It shall be competent for the Head of any Department to call upon any officer of such Department to retire at any time after reaching the age of sixty on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Retirement shall be compulsory for every officer on attaining sixty-five years of age. But in special cases the Treasury may, at the instance of the Head of a Department, extend an officer's employment for a further period, not exceeding five years, on being satisfied that such officer's retirement at sixty-five would be detrimental to the interests of the Public Service.

Candidates for Seats in House of Commons to Resign Office.

16. Any officer seeking a seat in the House of Commons shall resign his office so soon as he issues his address to the electors, or in any other manner publicly announces himself as a candidate.

Management of Societies, Companies, &c.

17. No officer shall be allowed to accept any part in the management of any society, or any trading, commercial, industrial, or financial firm or company which would require the attendance of such officer at any time between the hours of 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Increments Not Allowed Without Certificates of Approved Service.

18. An annual increment of salary shall not be allowed to any officer at the date at which it would in ordinary course become due without a certificate from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such person as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that the service of such officer during the year preceeding the date of such certificate has been approved.

Provided that, if, at the date when the increment would in ordinary course become due, the certificate cannot be given, the Head of the Department may specify a period from the expiration of which, if the officer's service in the meanwhile has been approved, the increment may be allowed, and may from time to time extend the period so fixed. If the officer's service after the grant of the deferred increment shall continue satisfactory, the Head of the Department may, if and when he thinks fit, increase the salary to an amount not exceeding that at which it would have stood if no increment had been withheld or deferred. Every such increase shall be reported to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

Sick Leave.

19. Sick leave may be granted to any officer by the Head of his Department, subject to the following conditions, viz. :—

- (1.) After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be furnished stating the cause of such absence.
- (2.) If the number of days during which any officer is absent in any year without such medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days of absence in excess of seven shall be deducted from the amount of ordinary annual holidays which may be allowed under this Order.
- (3.) Continuous sick leave on full pay shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may at his discretion grant further leave on half-pay for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick leave, no officer shall receive any salary, except with the consent of the Treasury, who may, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary to an officer during any further period of sick leave at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick leave, the officer would have been qualified.
- (4.) When the sick leave granted to any officer shall have amounted in the aggregate to twelve months during any period of four years or less, and it is desired to grant to him any further sick leave during such period, the case shall be reported to the Treasury, who shall decide what payment (if any) shall be made to him in respect of salary during such further sick leave.

PART III.

RULES APPLICABLE TO PERMANENT OFFICERS IN HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE DRAWING SALARIES OR PLACED ON SCALES OF SALARY IN EXCESS OF THOSE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.

Promotion.

20. Promotion of officers to whom Part III of this Order applies from one class to another shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions :—

- (1.) That there is a vacancy in the higher class which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Treasury, it is competent for the Head of the Department to fill;
- (2.) That the work of the Department requires such vacancy to be filled;
- (3.) That the officer proposed for promotion has been reported by the Head of his Department or Branch as fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

Annual Holidays.

21. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to officers to whom Part III of this Order applies shall not exceed thirty-six week-days during each of their first ten years of service and forty-eight week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays: Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing officers who, under the regulations in force before the 15th day of August, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

PART IV.

CHAPTER I.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE SECOND DIVISION OF HIS MAJESTY'S CIVIL SERVICE.

Constitution.

22. The Second Division of the Civil Service, as hitherto constituted, shall continue and shall consist of Clerks engaged to serve in any Department of the Civil Service to which they may from time to time be appointed or transferred.

23. No Department of the Civil Service shall be permanently increased or regulated afresh without provision being made that such of its duties as are of a suitable character shall be performed by Clerks of the Second Division or other officers of a rank below that Division.

24. No vacancies shall be filled nor any new appointments made in any Department, except by appointing Clerks of the Second Division, or other officers of a rank below that Division, until the Treasury have been satisfied that the number of officers serving in such Department with salaries higher than those of the Second Division will not be excessive.

CHAPTER II.

RULES APPLICABLE ONLY TO CLERKS OF THE SECOND DIVISION WHO HAVE NOT BEEN PLACED ON THE SCALE OF SALARY PRESCRIBED BY CLAUSE 28 OF THIS ORDER.

Salaries.

25. The salaries of Clerks of the Second Division to whom this Chapter applies shall commence at 70*l.* per annum, and shall rise by annual increments, as follows, viz. :—

- From 70*l.* to 100*l.*, by annual increments of 5*l.*
- From 100*l.* to 190*l.*, by annual increments of 7*l.* 10*s.*

The Higher Grade of the Second Division, with salaries commencing at 250*l.* per annum, and rising by annual increments of 10*l.* to 350*l.*, shall continue only for Clerks to whom this Chapter applies.

26. When the salary of any Clerk to whom this Chapter applies reaches 100*l.*, a special report, to be officially recorded in writing on his competence, character, and diligence shall be required from the Head of the room and from the Head of the Branch in which the Clerk is serving or has served; and until this report is received and countersigned by the Head of the Department as satisfactory the Clerk shall not receive any further advance in salary.

When the salary of any Clerk to whom this Chapter applies reaches 190*l.*, he shall not receive any further increment unless he obtains a report, to be officially recorded in writing, from his immediate superiors, confirmed by the Head of the Department, that he is thoroughly competent to perform efficiently work of a superior character.

Promotion to Higher Grade.

27. Promotion to the Higher Grade, mentioned in Clause 25 of this Order, shall be made according to merit, and not according to seniority.

A promotion to the said Higher Grade shall be made whenever any Clerk who remains on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 shall reach a salary of 250*l.* if there be a Clerk qualified for and deserving of such promotion; but the Head of a Department may at any time recommend, and the Treasury may sanction, as a very exceptional case, the promotion to the Higher Grade of a specially meritorious Clerk remaining on the scale of salary prescribed by Clause 25 who is in receipt of a salary less than 250*l.* When a promotion has been made to the Higher Grade of a Clerk other than the Clerk who reached the salary of 250*l.*, the latter may, nevertheless, at the discretion of the Head of his Department, receive promotion to the Higher Grade, at or after the date when the Clerk who was actually promoted would in ordinary course have reached a salary of 250*l.*

CHAPTER III.

RULES APPLICABLE TO ALL SECOND DIVISION CLERKS OTHER THAN THOSE REFERRED TO IN THE PRECEDING CHAPTER.

Salaries.

28. The scale of salary of Second Division Clerks (except as provided in Chapter II of this Part of this Order) shall commence at 70*l.* per annum, and shall rise by annual increments as follows, viz. :—

- From 70*l.* to 130*l.*, by annual increments of 7*l.* 10*s.*
- From 130*l.* to 200*l.*, by annual increments of 10*l.*

29. When the salary of any Clerk of the Second Division shall reach the sum of 130*l.* a report in writing on the competence, character, and diligence of such Clerk shall be required from the immediate superior under whom the Clerk is serving, and until this report has been countersigned as satisfactory by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, the Clerk shall not receive any further increment of salary.

30. No increment of salary beyond 200*l.* per annum, shall be allowed to a Clerk of the Second Division without a report in writing from his immediate superior, countersigned by the Head of the Department, or such officer as he may designate for the purpose, to the effect that such Clerk is competent to perform efficiently the highest duties ordinarily assigned to Clerks of the Second Division in the Department in which he is serving.

31. If on the first day of April of any year the salary of any Clerk certificated before the first day of April, 1908, but placed on the scale prescribed by Clause 28 of this Order, shall amount to a sum intermediate between 122*l.* 10*s.* and 130*l.*, the annual increment of salary accruing next thereafter shall be calculated as the sum of—

- (a) the portion of an increment at the rate of 7*l.* 10*s.* per annum proportionate to the period between such first day of April and the date next thereafter upon which (but for his having been placed on the said scale) an increment would have accrued; and

- (b) the portion of an increment at the rate of 10l. per annum proportionate to the period between the last-mentioned date and the first day of April next following.

CHAPTER IV.

RULES APPLICABLE TO THE WHOLE OF THE SECOND DIVISION.

Annual Holidays.

*32. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to Second Division Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week-days during each of their first five years of service, twenty-one week-days during each of their next ten years of service, and twenty-four week-days thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank Holidays.

Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the regulations in force before the 21st day of March, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

Special Increments.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in Clause 25 and Clause 28 of this Order, the Treasury may, upon the recommendation of the Head of a Department, advance by such amount, not exceeding four annual increments, as they may deem expedient, the salary of any Clerk who, having served for not less than six years in the Second Division, is reported to be exceptionally meritorious.

Appointment to Clerkship in same Department.

34. Any Clerk who is or who has been a Second Division Clerk may be appointed, without a further certificate of qualification, to any clerkship in the Department in which he is serving, provided that—

- (a) such clerkship is not one which is ordinarily filled by open competition under the scheme known as "Class I.," or under special regulations;
- (b) the maximum salary of such clerkship does not exceed 500l. per annum; and
- (c) such clerkship does not lead in the ordinary course of promotion to a clerkship of which the maximum salary exceeds 500l. per annum.

Minor Staff Clerkship.

35. Any Clerk of the Second Division appointed to a Minor Staff clerkship the maximum salary of which does not exceed 350l. per annum shall be, in all respects other than that of salary, subject to the regulations governing the Second Division; and if the maximum of the Minor Staff clerkship is less than 350l. may, at such time after he has attained the said maximum as the Treasury may decide, be placed upon the scale of the Second Division at the point represented by such maximum, and may proceed by the usual annual increments to a maximum of 350l. if appointed to the Minor Staff clerkship before 21st December, 1907, or of 300l. if appointed to such clerkship after that date.

Promotion to posts with salaries exceeding 500l. requires Special Certificate from Commissioners.

136. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second Division to any post carrying a maximum salary exceeding 500l. a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds 500l. a year, without a special certificate from the Commissioners, to be granted exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service, upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury; and every such promotion shall be published in the "London Gazette," with a note of such recommendation, certificate, and approval, and shall have effect from the date of such publication.

Redundant Clerks.

37. (i.) Redundant Second Division Clerks may be transferred from one Department to another without reference to their age or the amount of salary of which they are in receipt.

(ii.) Except in the case of redundancy, no Clerk of the Second Division shall be so transferred without the consent of the Commissioners.

(iii.) The consent of the Commissioners and the approval of the Treasury shall be required to the making redundant of any Second Division Clerk who has been appointed to that Division on the ground that his retention in a particular Department was necessary.

CHAPTER V.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE SECOND DIVISION AND ASSIGNMENT OF SECOND DIVISION CLERKS.

38. The Commissioners shall at fixed intervals, or whenever they may, with the approval of the Treasury, decide it to be necessary, hold competitive examinations for clerkships of the Second Division in such subjects, and under such regulations, as they, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe.

39. Lists of the successful competitors shall be made out, in the order of merit, up to the number required, if so many are found by the Commissioners to be qualified for appointment to the Second Division. In ascertaining the order of merit, such allowance may be made as the Commissioners, with the approval of the Treasury, may from time to time prescribe in respect of previous service as Registered Boy Clerk.

40. From lists made out as aforesaid, the Commissioners, on the application of Departments, may assign Clerks for permanent or temporary service. Assignment shall, as a general rule, be made by the Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list, an older list taking precedence over a more recent list. Provided that:—

- (i.) They may assign to any Department any unassigned successful competitor who has shown special qualifications in any particular subject included in the scheme of examination, if special application for a Clerk so qualified be made by that Department;

* Revoked by the Civil Service (Holidays) Order of August 18, 1919 (see page 92).

† Amended by Order in Council of April 15, 1919 (page 91).

(ii.) If a successful competitor has at the date of the commencement of the competition served as a Boy Clerk, or Assistant Clerk ("Abstractor") for not less than six full months in a Department, he may, on the application of the Head of that Department, be specially assigned thereto.

41. Under conditions to be settled by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, successful competitors will be allowed, subject to the requirements of the Public Service, to select the Departments in which they may prefer to serve; but any successful competitor refusing to serve in the Department to which he is assigned may be removed from the list.

42. On a successful competitor being assigned to a Department his name shall be removed from the list. If the assignment has been for temporary service the Clerk's name shall be restored to the list on the termination of such service, if approved; but the Commissioners may assign any Clerk, who is serving temporarily in a Department, to a permanent Clerkship therein.

43. A Second Division Clerk shall be regarded as accepted by a Department to which he has been assigned for permanent service, when he has completed twelve months' continuous service in that Department, unless the Commissioners are informed by the Head of his Department that he has not afforded satisfactory proof of his fitness in accordance with the provisions of Clause 6 of this Order.

A Second Division Clerk shall not, except for grave misconduct, be rejected on probation till he has served for at least three months in the Department to which he has been assigned.

If a Second Division Clerk is rejected on probation by the Department to which he has been assigned, the Head of the Department shall report to the Commissioners the reason for his rejection; and the Commissioners shall decide whether the rejected Clerk shall be finally discharged, or shall be re-assigned for service in another Department.

In the event of a rejected Second Division Clerk being re-assigned as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall decide whether his previous service should be reckoned, with or without conditions, towards increment of salary. If they decide that his service should not be so reckoned, the fact and the conditions, if any, shall be notified by the Commissioners to the Comptroller and Auditor-General.

PART V.

RULES APPLICABLE TO SITUATIONS OR EMPLOYMENTS BELOW THE SECOND DIVISION.

44. Below the Second Division persons may be employed for copying, routine work under direct supervision, or other work inferior to that of Clerks of the Second Division, in accordance with regulations framed from time to time by the Commissioners with the approval of the Treasury, and at rates of pay from time to time prescribed by the Treasury.

*45. An established Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Commissioners under Clause 7 of this Order. But such certificate shall only be granted exceptionally after not less than six years' established service (towards which not less than one year's and not more than two years' approved service as Registered Boy Clerk may be allowed to reckon), upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the Division at such salary as they shall think fit, not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment; and he shall be entitled to the same amount of annual holiday as if his previous established service had been in the Second Division.

46. A Clerk of the class known as "Assistant Clerks" or "Abstractors" may, with the consent of the Commissioners, be transferred from one Department to a similar situation in another, without a further certificate of qualification.

SCHEDULE A.

All situations in the undermentioned Departments, except such situations as have already been withdrawn from the Schedule A appended to the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, or have already been added to the Schedule B appended to that Order.

[Here follows List of Departments.]

SCHEDULE B.

Situations altogether excepted from the operation of Part I. of this Order:—

1. All situations to which the holder is appointed directly by the Crown.
2. All situations included in any Order or Warrant made by the Treasury under Section 4 of the Superannuation Act, 1859 (page 201).
3. All situations which are filled, in the customary course of promotion by persons previously serving in the same Department.
4. All situations which have already been added to the Schedule B attached to the Order in Council of the 4th June, 1870, and have not since been withdrawn therefrom.

* Amended by Order in Council, April 15, 1919 (page 91).

The following situations among others have been added to Schedule B :—

All situations in which it may be necessary to employ temporarily, during the continuance of the war and for such period thereafter as may be approved by the Treasury, persons who have not been certificated or registered by the Civil Service Commissioners, provided that such persons are required either to replace officers unavailable for duty owing to the war or to undertake special duties arising from the existence of the state of war, and provided in either case that Treasury approval has been obtained for such employment	Nov. 17, 1914.

* This notification applies to non-commissioned Consular Officers, not allowed to trade, who may be serving abroad without yet having passed an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to Officials serving in Consulates abroad in a subordinate capacity, provided that they were abroad at the time of their first appointment, and provided no undue delay takes place in procuring the necessary Civil Service certificates.

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF MARCH 22, 1918, AMENDING THE ORDER IN COUNCIL OF JANUARY 10, 1910, REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the 10th January, 1910, and known generally as the Civil Service (Consolidating) Order in Council, 1910, and hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order," it is provided that, with certain provisions and exceptions, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the Civil Service Commissioners; and that no person (save as excepted thereby) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a Certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them, among other things, that he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

And whereas it is expedient that the said requirement should be modified with respect to persons whose health has been impaired by reason of service in His Majesty's Forces in the present War:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall apply only to persons whose health has been impaired by reason of service in His Majesty's Forces during the present War.

2. Subject to the conditions as to age, character, and knowledge and ability, prescribed by Clause 3 of the Principal Order, being satisfied, the Civil Service Commissioners may issue certificates of qualification in favour of persons to whom this Order applies if the Commissioners are satisfied that they are at the moment fit to discharge the duties of the situation or employment which they seek or to which they are proposed for appointment, and that they are likely to render effective service for 15 years or, in the case of persons already serving in unestablished positions which lead in the normal course to establishment, for 10 years.

The certificate issued under this Clause shall be known as a "Modified (War) Certificate," but shall, subject to the provisions of this Order as to sick leave, for all purposes have the same force and effect as a certificate issued under Clause 3 of the Principal Order [page 82].

3. In the application to the case of Officers holding Modified (War) Certificates of the sick leave rules laid down in Clause 19 of the Principal Order the following modification shall be made, that for the first five years of service after the date of the certificate any civil pay allowed during sick leave in excess of 36 week days in the aggregate in any year shall be reduced to such amount as, with any pension or retired pay and allowances payable by the Ministry of Pensions in respect of the period of sick leave, will not exceed the full civil pay of the office in respect of that period.

Provided that in the case of an Officer who, if he had retired on the ground of ill-health at the commencement of the period of sick leave, would have been qualified for a pension, if the amount of the reduced civil pay during sick leave is less than the pension which, if he had so retired, would have been payable to him in respect of the period of sick leave, it may, with the consent of the Treasury, be increased to an amount not exceeding the amount of such pension.

4. Where the Civil Commissioners are unable to decide whether a person is or is not likely to render effective service for 15 or 10 years, as the case may be, they may, if they think fit, issue in such person's favour a "Special Recommendation" under which he may be employed for such period to be specified in the recommendation as the Commissioners may, subject to any regulations made by them, think fit, but the issue of such a recommendation will not entitle a person to be regarded as a "Civil Servant" within the meaning of Section 12 of the Superannuation Act, 1887 [page 206].

At the end of the period fixed by the recommendation the Commissioners will reconsider the case, and, if they are satisfied that the conditions enabling them to grant a Modified (War) Certificate are fulfilled, they shall grant such a certificate, and if not so satisfied they may either extend the period of the special recommendation or terminate it, in which case the Officer will cease to be employed in an office to which Part I. of the Principal Order applies [page 83].

In determining whether a Modified (War) Certificate can be granted in favour of an Officer in whose favour a special recommendation has been issued the periods of 15 and 10 years' effective service respectively mentioned in Clause 2 of this Order shall be reckoned as from the beginning of service under the special recommendation.

5. Clauses 2 to 4 of this Order shall not apply to persons whose health has been impaired by reason of service in His Majesty's Forces during the present War, and who, being already in possession of a Civil Service Certificate in respect of a pensionable office, are appointed to an office not in the ordinary course of promotion in the same Department. In such a case the Civil Service Commissioners may issue a certificate (which shall be required as heretofore) notwithstanding that the condition as to freedom from physical defect or disease specified in Clause 3 of the Principal Order is not satisfied, if the Officer is certified by the Head of his Department to be fit for the duties of his existing office.

Provided that, if the office to which he is to be appointed is one which appears to the Head of the Department concerned and to the Commissioners to be such as to require special physical qualifications, the Officer must satisfy the Commissioners that he possesses those qualifications.

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF OCTOBER 23, 1918, AMENDING THE ORDER IN COUNCIL OF JANUARY 10, 1910, REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 10th January, 1910, and known generally as the Civil Service (Consolidating) Order in Council, 1910, and hereinafter referred to as the "Principal Order," it is provided that, with certain provisions and exceptions, the qualifications of all such persons as may seek or be proposed for appointment to any situation or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments shall, before they are so appointed, be tested by or under the directions of the Civil Service Commissioners, and that no person (save as excepted thereby) shall be appointed to any such Establishment until a certificate of his qualification shall have been issued by the Civil Service Commissioners declaring that he has satisfied them, among other things, that he is free from any physical defect or disease which would be likely to interfere with the proper discharge of his duties:

And whereas it is expedient that the said requirement should be modified with respect to Officers, holding pensionable situations, and having been appointed with a certificate of qualification, who may be proposed for promotion or transfer to situations for which a further certificate of qualification is required:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. When an Officer holding a pensionable situation, and having been appointed with a certificate of qualification, is nominated by the Head of a Department for the issue of a further certificate of qualification in respect of his promotion in the same Department, or of his transfer to another Department, the Commissioners may grant their certificate of qualification on being satisfied that he is fully qualified in respect of age, character, knowledge, and ability, without requiring evidence that he fulfils the condition as to freedom from physical defect or disease specified in

Clause 3 of the Principal Order [page 83], provided they are satisfied that the situation to which he is promoted or transferred does not require a higher degree of physical capacity than the situation which he already holds.

(2) An Officer of any of the classes known as Women Clerks, Writing Assistants, Sorting Assistants, Short-hand-writer Typists, and Typists, appointed after examination under rules common to two or more Departments may, with the consent of the Commissioners, be transferred from one Department to a similar situation in another, without a further certificate of qualification.

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF DECEMBER 18, 1918, AMENDING THE ORDER IN COUNCIL OF JANUARY 10, 1910, REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 10th January, 1910, and known generally as the Civil Service (Consolidating) Order in Council, 1910, as amended by an Order in Council dated the 22nd March, 1918, provision has been made for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments and the conditions of service therein:

And whereas it is expedient, by reason of the general interruption of academic studies during the War, that special and temporary provision should be made for the admission of men of military age into His Majesty's Civil Service otherwise than by competitive examination:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Until such date as may be prescribed by His Majesty's Civil Service Commissioners (hereinafter called the Commissioners) with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury (hereinafter called the Treasury) by notice published by them in the "London Gazette," appointments within the scope of Clause 5 of the Principal Order may be made by selection on a competitive basis, but without competitive examination, through the agency of a Selection Board or Boards appointed by the Treasury, and according to regulations framed or to be from time to time framed by the Commissioners, and approved by the Treasury, and such appointments shall be deemed to have been made by means of competitive examinations under Clause 5 of the said Order [page 83].

2. All men who have served either in His Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces, or being unfit for general service in those Forces have been employed in one or more of His Majesty's Civil Departments during the War, and are in a position to satisfy the Commissioners and the Selection Board that they are of the requisite age, health, character, and educational and other qualifications prescribed in the regulations, shall be eligible to compete for such appointments on application in the form prescribed by the Commissioners, and on payment of such fees as they may from time to time prescribe by notice published in the "London Gazette."

3. Clause 6 of the Principal Order [page 84] shall not apply to candidates selected for appointment in the manner prescribed by this Order, but in lieu thereof the following provision shall apply:—

"After the candidate has been selected for appointment and his certificate of qualification has been issued by the Commissioners, he shall enter on a period of probation of two years or such extended period not exceeding three years in all as may be prescribed by the Head of his Department. During this time his conduct, capacity, and fitness for permanent employment in His Majesty's Civil Service shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Head of his Department, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Public Service unless and until his probation shall have furnished to the Head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness for permanent employment."

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF APRIL 15, 1919, AMENDING THE ORDER IN COUNCIL OF JANUARY 10, 1910, REGULATING THE EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONS IN THE CIVIL SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 10th January, 1910, and known generally as the Civil Service (Consolidating) Order in Council, 1910, as amended by two Orders in Council dated the 22nd March, 1918, and 18th December, 1918, provision has been made for testing according to fixed rules the qualifications of persons who may seek or be proposed for appointment, either permanently or temporarily, to situations or employment in any of His Majesty's Civil Establishments, and for regulating the conduct of His Majesty's said Civil Establishments and the conditions of service therein:

And whereas it is expedient that the promotion of suitable officers should be facilitated :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) In Clause 36 of the Consolidating Order the words "exceptionally, after not less than eight years' service" shall be deleted and the Clause shall run:—

36. A Clerk shall not be promoted from the Second Division to any post carrying a maximum salary exceeding £500 a year, or leading in the ordinary course of promotion to posts of which the maximum salary exceeds £500 a year, without a special certificate from the Commissioners, to be granted upon a special recommendation from the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury; and every such promotion shall be published in the "London Gazette," with a note of such recommendation, certificate, and approval, and shall have effect from the date of such publication.

(2) In Clause 45 of the Consolidating Order the words, "exceptionally, after not less than six years' established service (towards which not less than one year's and not more than two years' approved service as Registered Boy Clerk may be allowed to reckon)" and the words, "not being higher than that which he was receiving at the date of his said appointment" shall be deleted and the Clause shall run:—

45. An Established Civil Servant of a rank below the Second Division may be appointed to that Division on the ground of special merit with a certificate from the Commissioners under Clause 7 of this Order.

But such certificate shall only be granted upon a recommendation from the Head of the Department and with the approval of the Treasury. Whenever such an appointment is made, the Treasury may allow the person appointed to enter the scale of the Division at such salary as they shall think fit, and he shall be entitled to the same amount of annual holiday as if his previous established service had been in the Second Division.

ORDER IN COUNCIL OF AUGUST 18, 1919, AMENDING CLAUSE 32 OF THE ORDER IN COUNCIL OF JANUARY 10, 1910.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the 10th day of January, 1910, His Majesty was pleased to consolidate the Orders then in force with respect to the Civil Service:

And whereas the said Order provided, among other things, for the ordinary annual holidays of Second Division Clerks:

And whereas it is expedient for the better co-ordination of the conditions of service of the Clerks of the Civil Service that the said provisions should be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. Clause 32 of the above recited Order is hereby revoked, and the following provisions shall have effect in lieu thereof:—

32. The ordinary annual holidays allowed to

Second Division Clerks shall not exceed fourteen week days during each of their first four years of service, twenty-one week days during each of their next six years of service, and twenty-eight week days during each year of service thereafter, exclusive in all cases of Christmas Day, Good Friday, the day appointed for the official celebration of His Majesty's Birthday, and (subject to the requirements of the Public Service) Bank holidays:

Provided that nothing in this clause shall affect the rights of existing Clerks who, under the regulations in force before the 21st day of March, 1890, in the respective Departments in which they were then serving, are entitled to holidays in excess of those herein prescribed.

2. This Order may be cited as the Civil Service (Holidays) Order, 1919.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FEMALE TYPISTS EMPLOYED IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

THE following are the regulations in force respecting Female Typists in Government Departments:—

1. Appointment.

The Head of a Department, with whom the selection of candidates rests, on a vacancy occurring, submits to the Civil Service Commissioners the name or names of one or more ladies. The Civil Service Commissioners satisfy themselves as to the character and health of the candidates so selected, and examine them in the following subjects:—

1. Writing;
2. Spelling;

2. English Composition;

4. Copying Manuscript;

5. Arithmetic (first four rules, simple and compound, including English weights and measures, and reduction);

6. Typewriting;

7. Shorthand.

Examination in Shorthand may be dispensed with at the request of the nominating Department.

Limits of age, 18—30 on the day of examination.*

If more candidates than one are presented by the Department, she who passes the best examination obtains the appointment. The lady appointed receives a Civil Service certificate.

* A candidate would be admitted on the 18th but not on the 30th anniversary of her birth.

2. Marriage.

The service of a woman typist ceases as a matter of course on marriage, but it is open to the Head of the Department, with the consent of the Treasury, to grant to a typist who marries after a completed service of six years a gratuity out of the Vote for the Department, provided that her character and service are in every respect satisfactory. The regulations in the Public Service relative to the grant of gratuities on marriage are as follows:—

1. The grant of such gratuities will be limited to cases in which resignation on marriage is required by general Departmental regulations.
2. The marriage must be notified to the Head of the Department immediately on its taking place.
3. Persons retiring under such circumstances after a service of not less than six years may, at the discretion of the Head of the Department, and with the approval of the Treasury, receive a gratuity at the rate of one month's pay for each complete year of established service, but not exceeding in the whole a maximum of 12 months' pay.
4. No person who has received such a gratuity, and has subsequently become a widow, can be re-employed in an established capacity without obtaining a fresh certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners, and her previous service will not be allowed to count for pension.

3. Pension.

Women typists holding a Civil Service certificate, and serving until they are disabled by age or infirmity, earn pension like other Civil Servants.

4. Pay.

Typists: 20s. rising by annual increments of 2s. to 32s. a week.

Shorthand-writer Typists: 26s. by 2s. annually to 42s. a week.

Candidates who desire to obtain a certificate of proficiency in shorthand are examined by the Civil Service Commissioners shortly after the date of attaining the maximum of the ordinary scale (26s. a week). The number of Typists who may be graded as Shorthand-writer Typists will be limited to one-half the total number of Typists (excluding Superintendents) employed in a Department.

If the number of typists in a Department exceeds two, but does not exceed six, one of them may be appointed a Superintendent. If there are more than six typists employed in a Department, two of them may receive pay as Superintendents. Pay of Superintendents: 50s. a week, inclusive of all overtime. If more than ten typists are so employed, the Chief Superintendent will be paid a salary of 135-5-150l. per annum, inclusive of overtime.

5. Leave.

Typists and Shorthand-writer Typists may (subject to the public convenience) be allowed 18 days ordinary annual leave; Superintendents, 21 days; and Chief Superintendents, 28 days, in addition to Christmas Day, Good Friday, the King's Birthday and the Bank Holidays.

6. Sick-Leave.

Sick-leave may be granted by the Head of a Department subject to the following conditions, which are also applicable to male Clerks in the established Civil Service, viz.:—

1. After two days' continuous absence, a certificate by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall be required.
2. If the number of days during which a Woman Typist in any year is absent without medical certificate shall exceed seven in the aggregate, the number of days by which such aggregate period of absence exceeds seven shall be deducted from the amount of her ordinary annual leave (viz., 18 days).
3. Continuous sick-leave on full salary shall not be granted for any period longer than six months, but at the expiration of such six months the Head of the Department may, at his discretion, grant further leave with salary at half the ordinary rate for any period not exceeding six months. After twelve months' continuous sick-leave no salary shall be paid, except with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, who may, at their discretion, in special circumstances, allow payment of salary during any further period of sick-leave to a Woman Typist at a rate not exceeding the amount of pension (if any) for which, at the expiration of twelve months' sick-leave, she would have been qualified.
4. Cases of repeated but not continuous sick-leave amounting in the aggregate to upwards of twelve months during any period of eighteen months shall be reported to the Commissioners of the Treasury, who shall decide the payments in respect of salary to be made during such sick-leave.

7. Transfers, &c.

Women Typists belong to the Department to which they are appointed. They may, however, be transferred to other Departments at their own request or for the public convenience, if the Head of the Department to which they belong and the Treasury approve.

8. Overtime.

Typists: 1s. 4d. per hour; Shorthand-writer Typists; 1s. 5d. per hour. No typist may receive payment for more than 15 hours overtime in one month.

The foregoing regulations apply only to Women Typists on the permanent establishment of a Department. Temporary Women Typists are also occasionally employed, but such employment is only by the week.

Provision for support of churches and chapels, &c., in foreign ports and places where a chaplain is appointed and maintained by subscription; Consuls authorized to advance for such purpose a sum equal to the amount subscribed.

10. And whereas churches and chapels for the performance of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, have been erected, and proper grounds have been appropriated and set apart for the interment of the dead, in divers foreign ports and places, and Chaplains have been appointed for the performance of divine service in the said churches and chapels, and are now resident in such foreign ports and places; and it is expedient to afford encouragement for the support of the churches and chapels so erected as aforesaid, and to promote the erection of other churches and chapels in foreign ports and places to which His Majesty's subjects may resort, and wherein they may be resident in considerable numbers, for the purposes of trade or otherwise: Be it therefore enacted, That at any foreign port or place in which a Chaplain is now or shall at any future time be resident and regularly employed in the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, and maintained by any voluntary subscription or rate levied among or upon His Majesty's subjects resorting to or residing at such foreign port or place, or by any rate or duty levied under the authority of any of the Acts hereinafter repealed, it shall and may be lawful for any Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any order for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay from time to time, for and towards the maintenance and support of any such Chaplain as aforesaid, or for and towards defraying the expenses incident to the due celebration of divine service in any such churches and chapels, or for and towards the maintaining any such burial grounds as aforesaid, or for and towards the interment of any of His Majesty's subjects in any such burial grounds, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in any one year the amount of the sum or sums of money which during that year may have been raised at such port or place for the said several purposes or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul shall, once in each year, transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid, or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription or rate as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid credit for all sums of money not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by them disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

Where voluntary contributions towards erecting churches, hospitals, or providing burial grounds, in any place where Consuls are resident, such Consuls are authorized to advance a sum equal to the amount of such contributions.

11. In case any of His Majesty's subjects shall by voluntary subscriptions among themselves raise and contribute such a sum of money as shall be requisite for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any church or chapel or building, to be appropriated for the celebration of divine service according to the rites and ceremonies of the United Church of England and Ireland, or of the Church of Scotland, or for defraying one half part of the expense of erecting, purchasing, or hiring any building to be used as a hospital for the reception of His Majesty's subjects, or for defraying one half of the expense of purchasing or hiring any ground to be used as a place of interment for His Majesty's subjects, at any foreign port or place wherein any Consul-General or Consul appointed by His Majesty shall be resident, then and in any such case it shall and may be lawful for such Consul-General or Consul, in obedience to any Order to be for that purpose issued by His Majesty through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, to advance and pay, for and towards the purposes aforesaid or any of them, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole in any one year the amount of the money raised in that year by any such voluntary contribution as aforesaid; and every such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid shall in like manner once in every year transmit to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State an account, made up to the Thirty-first day of December in the year next preceding, of all the sums of money actually raised at any such port or place as aforesaid, for the several purposes aforesaid or any of them, by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid, and of all sums of money by him actually paid and expended for such purposes or any of them, in obedience to any such Orders as aforesaid, and which accounts shall by such Principal Secretary of State be transmitted to the Treasury, who shall give to such Consuls-General or Consuls credit for all sums of money, not exceeding the amount aforesaid, by him disbursed and expended in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, for the purposes before mentioned, or any of them.

His Majesty's approbation to be first obtained.

12. Provided always, That no such Order shall be issued as aforesaid through any of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State authorizing the expenditure of money for the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such new church or chapel or hospital as aforesaid, or for the purchase or hiring of any such new burial ground as aforesaid, unless and until such Consul-General or Consul shall first have transmitted to His Majesty, through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the plan of such intended church or chapel, hospital, or burial ground, with an estimate, upon the oath of some one or more competent person or persons, stating the probable expense of and incident to the erection, purchase, or hiring of any such church, chapel, hospital, or burying ground as aforesaid, and unless and until His Majesty shall have signified, through one of His said Principal Secretaries of State, his approbation of the said plan and estimate: Provided also, that no money shall actually be disbursed by any such Consul-General or Consul as aforesaid, for any of the purposes aforesaid, unless and until the money to be raised by any such voluntary subscription as aforesaid be actually paid up and invested in some public or other sufficient security, in the joint names of such Consul-General or Consuls and two Trustees appointed for that purpose by the persons subscribing the same, or unless and until two or more of such subscribers shall enter into good and sufficient security to His Majesty, by bond or otherwise, that the amount of such subscriptions shall actually be paid for the purposes aforesaid, by a certain day to be specified in every such bond or security, and which bond or security shall be preserved in the office of such Consul-General or Consul, and shall by him be cancelled and delivered back to the parties entering into the same, their heirs, executors, or administrators, when and so soon as the condition thereof shall be fully performed and satisfied.

Salaries to chaplains not to exceed the sums herein mentioned.

13. Provided also, that the whole salary of any Chaplain heretofore appointed or to be appointed to officiate in any such church or chapel in any foreign port or place in Europe shall not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Pounds by the year, or in any foreign port or place not in Europe, Eight Hundred Pounds by the year: Provided also, that all such Chaplains shall be appointed to officiate as aforesaid by His Majesty, through one of His Principal Secretaries of State, and shall hold such their Offices for and during His Majesty's pleasure, and no longer.

Meetings of subscribers to churches, chapels, &c.

14. All Consuls-General and Consuls appointed by His Majesty to reside and being resident at any foreign port or place wherein any such church or chapel or other place appropriated for the celebration of divine worship, or hospital, or any such burial ground as aforesaid, hath heretofore been or shall hereafter be erected, purchased or hired, by the aid of any voluntary subscription or rates collected by or imposed upon His Majesty's subjects, or some person or persons for that purpose duly authorized by any writing under the hand and seal of any such Consul-General or Consul, shall once at least in every year, and more frequently if occasion shall require, by public advertisements, or in such other manner as may be best adapted for insuring publicity, convene and summon a meeting of all His Majesty's subjects residing at such foreign port or place as aforesaid, to be holden at the Public Office of such Consul-General or Consul, at some time not more than Fourteen Days nor less than Seven Days next after the publication of any such summons; and it shall and may be lawful for all His Majesty's subjects residing or being at any such foreign port or place as aforesaid at the time of any such meeting, and who shall have subscribed any sum or sums of money not less than Twenty Pounds in the whole, nor less than Three Pounds by the year, for or towards the purposes before mentioned, or any of them, and have paid up the amount of such their subscriptions, to be present and vote at any such meetings; and such Consuls-General or Consuls shall preside at all such meetings; and in the event of the absence of any such Consuls-General or Consuls, the subscribers present at any such meeting shall, before proceeding to the dispatch of business, nominate one of their number to preside at such meeting; and all questions proposed by the Consul-General, Consul, or person so nominated as aforesaid, to preside in his absence, to any such meeting, shall be decided by the votes of the majority in number of the persons attending and being present thereat; and in the event of the number of such votes being equally divided, the Consul-General, Consul, or person so presiding in his absence, shall give a casting vote.

General meetings may establish rules for the management of such churches, &c., subject to the sanction of the Consul, who shall transmit the same for His Majesty's approbation.

15. It shall and may be lawful for any such general meeting as aforesaid to make and establish, and from time to time, as occasion may require, to revoke, alter, and render such general rules, orders, and regulations, as may appear to them to be necessary for the due and proper use and management of such churches, chapels, hospitals, and burial grounds as aforesaid, or for the proper control over and expenditure of the money raised by any such subscription as aforesaid, or otherwise in relation to the matters aforesaid, as may be necessary for carrying into execution the objects of this Act, so far as relates to those matters or any of them. Provided always that no such rule, order, or regulation as aforesaid shall be of any force or effect unless or until the same shall be sanctioned and approved by the Consul General or Consul for the time being appointed by His Majesty to reside and actually resident at such foreign port or place; and provided also, that the same shall by such Consul-General or Consul be transmitted by the first convenient opportunity for His Majesty's approbation; and that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order to be by him issued through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, either to confirm or disallow any such rules, orders, and regulations, either in the whole or in part, and to make such amendments and alterations in or additions to the same, or any of them, as to His Majesty shall seem meet, or to suspend for any period of time the execution thereof or any of them, or otherwise to direct or prevent the execution thereof or any of them, in such manner as to His Majesty shall seem meet; and all Orders so to be issued by His Majesty, in relation to the matters aforesaid, through one of his Principal Secretaries of State, shall be recorded in the Office of the said Consul-General or Consul at the foreign port or place to which the same may refer, and shall be of full force, effect, and authority upon and over all His Majesty's subjects there resident.

(2.) ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO THE SALARIES AND FEES OF CONSULAR OFFICERS.

54 & 55 Vict., c. 36—July 21, 1891.

Salaries of Consular Officers.

1.—(1.) There may be granted to a consular officer, out of money provided by Parliament, such remuneration and allowance for expenses as may from time to time be fixed by a Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(2.) Such remuneration and allowance shall be received by a consular officer so long only as he actually discharges the duties of his office: Provided that if a consular officer is absent from his post with the sanction of the Secretary of State, he may receive the whole or such part of the remuneration or allowance accruing during his leave of absence as the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury may by regulation direct.

Power to fix Consular Fees.

2.—(1.) It shall be lawful for Her Majesty the Queen, by Order in Council, to fix the fees to be taken in respect of any matter or thing done by a consular officer in the execution of his office, and to vary such fees by way of increase or decrease, and to abolish fees, and to create new fees.

(2.) All such fees shall be levied, accounted for, and applied, and may be remitted, in accordance with regulations issued by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Treasury.

(3.) A consular officer shall not, save as may be provided by any Order in Council under this Act, ask for or take any fee or reward for or on account of any act, thing, or service done, performed, or rendered by him in the execution of his office, and if he does, he shall without prejudice to any other liability, be liable for each offence to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, recoverable in the High Court, by information on the part of Her Majesty's Attorney-General.

(4.) Tables of the fees which may, for the time being, be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act shall be published and exhibited in a conspicuous manner for the inspection of all persons at the custom-houses of the United Kingdom; and a printed copy thereof shall be given by every chief officer of customs, at a port of the United Kingdom, gratuitously to every master of a vessel clearing out of that port who requests the same.

(5.) Every consular officer shall hang up and exhibit in a conspicuous place in his consular office a copy of the table of fees to be taken under any Order in Council issued in pursuance of this Act, and shall permit the same to be inspected by any person interested therein.

Definition of Consular Officer.

3. In this Act the expression "consular officer" includes consul-general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, pro-consul, and any person for the time being authorised to perform the duties of consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent.

Repeal of part of 6 Geo. 4. c. 87.

4. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Provided that any Order in Council issued under any enactment repealed by this Act, and in force at the commencement of this Act, shall continue in force as if it has been issued in pursuance of this Act.

Short Title.

5. This Act may be cited as the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891.

(3.) CONSULAR SERVICE ORDER IN COUNCIL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of March, 1896.

PRESENT:

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Order in Council made on the 15th August, 1890, Her Majesty was pleased to make certain regulations in order to secure greater uniformity in the rules governing officers of higher rank than the Second Division in the several Departments of the Civil Service:

And whereas it is expedient that similar Regulations, so far as circumstances admit, should be made with respect to pensionable officers in the Consular Service of Her Majesty:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. This Order shall apply to all such Consular Officers and other persons employed in or in connection with the Consular Service as are entitled to receive superannuation allowances under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892,* and any Acts amending those Acts.

2. Except in the case of officers appointed by Commission from Her Majesty, every person hereafter certificated by the Civil Service Commissioners for appointment to the Consular Service shall be subject to a strict probation for a period of two years, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subject to such tests as may be determined by the Secretary of State, and he shall not be finally appointed to the Consular Service unless his probation shall furnish to the Secretary of State satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in the Consular Service.

3. Promotion of officers in the Consular Service shall be strictly according to merit, and shall take place subject to the following conditions:—

(1.) That there is a vacancy which, under the arrangements sanctioned for the time being by the Commissioners of the Treasury, it is competent for the Secretary of State to fill up;

(2.) That the work of the Consular Service requires such vacancy to be filled up;

(3.) That the officer proposed for promotion appears to the Secretary of State to be fit to discharge the duties of the higher office.

4. Every officer hereafter appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 65 on such pension as by the length of his service he is qualified to receive.

Officers heretofore appointed to the Consular Service shall be required to retire at the age of 70.

If in any special case the Secretary of State is satisfied that the retirement of an officer would be detrimental to the interests of the public service, he may, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of the Treasury, from time to time extend that officer's employment for such period or periods, not exceeding five years, as he may determine.

Nothing in this Article shall affect any existing power of the Secretary of State to require any officer to retire from the Consular Service if he has ceased, from whatever cause, to be fully competent for the performance of his duties.

5. The Consular Service shall be governed by such instructions as may from time to time be issued by a Secretary of State, with the approval, in so far as such instructions may affect the expenditure of public funds or the receipt and application of fees, of the Commissioners of the Treasury.

6. This Order may be cited as "The Consular Service Order in Council, 1896."

(1) DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, &c., ACT, 1869. See page 198.

(2) REGULATIONS FOR THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.*

Period of Service of Attachés.†

1. The services of Attachés will reckon from the date of the certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners, and will be considered as probationary for two years from that date, during which period the Attachés must have been employed in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed in the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up the requisite period, exclusive of any leave of absence. The time, however, necessarily employed in journeys to and from their posts will be allowed to count towards the completion of the required term. If these conditions as to employment and residence have not been fulfilled at the expiration of two years from the date of the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries. Salary of £150 a-year.

2. Commissions as Third Secretaries under His Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year; provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory; and that the Ambassador or Minister under whom they have last served certifies that, as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a-year for Knowledge of Public Law.

3. Third Secretaries or Attachés who are on the point of qualifying for Commissions as Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving as Third Secretaries an additional allowance of 100*l.* a-year. Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination. [See also page 94.]

First and Second Secretaries.

4. First and Second Secretaries will together constitute an intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Counsellors. They will receive a minimum salary of 800*l.* a-year, increasing by 20*l.* a-year until it reaches a maximum of 500*l.* a-year. But Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l.* a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

All Second Secretaries, after completing seven years service in that rank, will, if recommended by the Head of their Mission, be eligible for Commissions as First Secretaries, wherever they may be employed. This promotion will give them no claim to outfit allowances, or to any special rate of remuneration, and they will continue to be responsible for all the details of the Chancery work.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

5. Any Counsellor or Secretary, or Attaché who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed, to have passed an examination and to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Arabic, Japanese, Chinese, or Amharic language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l.* a-year, over and above any other salary or allowance of which he may be in receipt.

Employment of Secretaries and Attachés.

6. Secretaries and Attachés may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them.

Counsellors in His Majesty's Diplomatic Service will be appointed to all Embassies, to the Legations at Peking, Tehran, and Darmstadt, to the Residency at Cairo, and to the Consulate-General at Budapest.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

7. Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Rules as to persons who are placed "en disponibilité."

8. Members of the Diplomatic Service may be placed en disponibilité for a period not exceeding one year on the production of a medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, or on sufficient reason being given to justify the Secretary of State in giving his sanction. This period may be extended for a further term of one year, at the expiry of which the member of the Diplomatic Service will have to return to duty, provided there is a vacancy available for the purpose. In cases of ill-health a medical certificate will be required which shall satisfy the Secretary of State that he is fit to resume his duties and without the prospect of their further interruption. Failing his ability to produce such a certificate, he will have to retire from the Service.

* For Rules and Regulations as to the Occupation and Maintenance of Embassy and Legation Houses, the Property of or leased by His Majesty's Government, see page 216.

† For Regulations for Examination of Attachés, see page 118.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

9. It is to be distinctly understood that all the Members of the Diplomatic Service are expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required, and that every Counsellor, Secretary, or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the Public Service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

May be required to carry Despatches.

10. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Counsellors, Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required, and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Travelling Expenses.

11. Counsellors, First, Second, and Third Secretaries, and Attachés will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion or other public reason, be allowed their travelling expenses in accordance with the rules and conditions laid down in the Foreign Office Circular of October 1, 1916.

Interchange of Employment between Secretaries, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

12. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the Public Service, allow Secretaries and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the Junior Class in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Secretaries or Attachés and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, according to the date of their entry into the Foreign Office or Diplomatic Service respectively, subject to the reservation, in the case of members of the Diplomatic Service exchanging into the Foreign Office, that no Secretary shall rank above a Senior Clerk or Acting Senior Clerk, and that no Secretary below the rank of First Secretary shall rank above an Assistant Clerk.

Junior Clerks who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service, or who may be temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will receive Commissions as First, Second, or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine. In the cases of temporary employment they will receive Acting Commissions.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

13. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the King to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it; and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions. Retirement at the age of 70.

14. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at Foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years. At the expiration of five years the question of an extension of the appointment for a specified term not exceeding five years, or of transfer to another Mission, or of retirement, will be considered by the Secretary of State. An appointment may be renewed more than once, if this appears to the Secretary of State to be desirable on public grounds. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

15. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires, according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for, an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half-salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. The time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Counsellor of Embassy, or the Senior Secretary of the Legation at posts where there is no Counsellor, may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be—at Embassies at the rate of 3*l.* a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 2*l.* a-day.* These allowances will likewise be paid to First Secretaries at posts where there is a Counsellor.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

16. In virtue of His Majesty's Commissions, the service of Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43,† from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted; provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Secretary.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

17. Should an Ambassador, Minister, Counsellor, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic Pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in section 11 of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.‡

Obligation of Secrecy.

18. Members of the Diplomatic Service must not, without the express permission of the Secretary of State, publish observations on, or accounts of, their experiences in the countries in which they are, or have been, officially employed, nor any information obtained by them in their official capacity. The obligation of secrecy in regard to official experiences and information continues equally after their retirement from active service, and in the event of its being disregarded the Secretary of State will consider himself justified in bringing the circumstances to the notice of Parliament when the Estimate providing for the officer's pension is before the House of Commons. The disclosure of information acquired in an official capacity, when such disclosure is contrary to the public interest, is, moreover, punishable under "The Official Secrets Act, 1911," § by fine and imprisonment.

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service.

19. All applications for leave of absence should be accompanied by an address at which letters will reach the applicant while on leave. Any change of such address during the period of leave should be notified in writing to the Under-Secretary of State. Secretaries and Attachés, if spending their leave in England, should similarly give notice of the time of their intended departure for their posts. The addresses and other records will be kept by the Registrar.

Foreign Office, August, 1915.

* At the Mission of Munich, the allowance is at the rate of 1*l.* a-day. At Addis Ababa, Bangkok, Belgrade, Berne, Bogotá, Bucharest, Caracas, Cetinje, Guatemala, Havana, La Paz, Lima, Monte Video, Panama, and Sofia the allowance is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post in all cases.

REGULATIONS FOR THE EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES BEFORE THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSIONERS FOR APPOINTMENTS IN AND UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE. (See foot-note.)

GENERAL INFORMATION RELATING TO EXAMINATIONS FOR THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR SERVICES.

Candidates desirous of competing at examinations for the Foreign Office, the Diplomatic Service, the General Consular Service, and Student Interpreter-ships in the Far East and the Levant (Ottoman Dominions, Persia, and Morocco) must be recommended by some person who is known to the Secretary of State, or on whose judgment the latter can rely.

University candidates should send in their applications through the University Appointments Committee, or the Heads of their Colleges, and those who have not received a University education may apply through the Head of the School or Institution in which they have been educated. If they have been employed in any business firm of high standing, or in any Government Office, a recommendation from such firm or office would be taken into favourable consideration. It is essential that any person recommending a candidate should himself be personally acquainted with him.

The recommendation should assume the form of a private letter to the Secretary of State containing a few personal notes on the candidate's qualifications for employment under the Foreign Office.

In the present emergency, candidates who may hereafter attend examinations for employment under the Foreign Office for which age limits are fixed will be allowed an age deduction corresponding with the length of their military service in the present war, any fraction of a year after three months to count as a full year. Candidates will be required to produce documentary proof in support of their claim to such a concession, and their claim will be referred to the War Office or the Admiralty, as the case may be, for substantiation.

No candidate will be nominated unless he be a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions, or parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case he can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State.*

Candidates, in applying to have their names noted on the Secretary of State's list, should send to the Private Secretary at the Foreign Office a statement giving their name in full, the date of their birth, the establishments at which they were educated, and their permanent address.

The names of those candidates whose recommendations are accepted by the Secretary of State are then placed on the list of candidates for nomination, but it should be remembered that the fact of a name being noted in no case implies the promise of an eventual nomination.

Before a nomination can be granted, candidates will be required to appear before a Board of Selection, which will meet at the Foreign Office at 3 p.m. on the first Tuesday in May and November for the Foreign Office and Diplomatic Services, and on the first Thursday in May and November for the Consular and Student Interpreter Services. No special summonses are issued for these Boards.†

It will be the function of this Board to recommend candidates to the Secretary of State, with whom it will rest to grant nominations.

Candidates who have failed to pass their examinations before the Civil Service Commissioners and are anxious to compete again should notify their intention in writing to the Private Secretary, who will then inform them if the Secretary of State consents to grant them a second nomination.

Candidates for the Levant Service will be permitted to present themselves before the Board of Selection any time after their seventeenth birthday, and for the Foreign Office, Diplomatic Service, Far Eastern, and General Consular Service any time after their nineteenth birthday.

Candidates for the Diplomatic Service must possess an income or allowance of not less than £400 a year.

June, 1915.

CLERKSHIPS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE, AND ATTACHÉSHIPS IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.‡

Candidates for Clerkships on the Establishment of the Foreign Office and for Attachéships in the Diplomatic Service, who have been nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, are required to attend at the combined Open Competitions for the Home Civil Service (Class I), Indian Civil Service, and Eastern Cadetships which usually begin on or about the 1st August in each year. They must have attained the age of 22 and must not have attained the age of 25 on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held. In the present emergency, candidates who may hereafter attend examinations for employment under the Foreign Office for which age limits are fixed will be allowed an age deduction corresponding with the length of their military service in the present war, any fraction of a year after three months to count as a full year. Candidates will be required to produce documentary proof in support

* The granting of a nomination after the candidate has appeared before the Board of Selection implies that the Secretary of State has seen his way to grant the special permission necessary for candidates who do not fulfil the regulations laid down as to birth.

† It will be an advantage to candidates applying for nomination to compete for Consular appointments—

1. To have been called to the Bar.

2. To have been enrolled as a Solicitor.

3. To have taken a University degree.

4. To have served three years in a commercial house.

‡ See also General Information to Candidates (on this page), and Particulars as to Conditions of Service, page 122.

Note.—Owing to the European War, the holding of competitive examinations for appointments in the Civil Service of the Crown has been suspended. The Special Regulations applicable to candidates for appointments in the Foreign Office and in the Diplomatic Service will be found on page 123.

of their claim to such a concession, and their claim will be referred to the War Office or the Admiralty, as the case may be, for substantiation. No candidate will be nominated unless he be a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions, or parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case he can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State.

From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

Consistently with the limitations specified above, Candidates are at liberty to name any of the foregoing subjects, provided that the maximum number of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 4,800. If this maximum is exceeded by a Candidate's selection, he will be required to indicate one of his subjects the marks for which should, in his case, be reduced so as to bring his maximum marks within the prescribed limit. The marks so reduced will be subject to a correspondingly reduced deduction.

Moreover, if a Candidate's handwriting is not easily legible a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.†

Candidates for the Foreign Office and the Diplomatic Service may, if they wish and are eligible in respect of age, be examined also as Candidates in the combined Open Competition under the rules for that Competition. Under these rules, which will be sent on application to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, Candidates are allowed to choose subjects up to a maximum of 6,000 marks. The same papers will be used for both examinations as a rule and so far as possible.‡

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, LONDON,

* A Syllabus, giving particulars of the Examination in certain subjects, can be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners, Burlington Gardens, W.

† It is notified for general information that the number of marks deducted for bad handwriting may be considerable.

‡ When any two or more of the following examinations are held concurrently, viz. :—

Competitive Examinations for the Civil Service of India; Eastern Cadetships; Clerkships (Class I.) in the Home Civil Service; Clerkships in the Department of the Clerk of the House of Commons; Attachships in the Diplomatic Service; Clerkships in the Foreign Office; Student Interpreterships for China, Japan, and Siam; the fee payable by Candidates attending any two or more of such examinations shall be a consolidated fee of £2.

CONSULAR APPOINTMENTS.*

The following limits of age and subjects of examination apply to persons who may be nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to compete for appointments in the Consular Service (except Student Interpretships):—

1. Candidates cannot be nominated unless they are natural-born British subjects and born within the United Kingdom, or in one of the self-governing Dominions, of parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates must be unmarried, and must not be under 22 or over 27 years of age at the date of examination. In the present emergency, candidates who may hereafter attend examination for employment under the Foreign Office for which age limits are fixed will be allowed an age deduction corresponding with the length of their military service in the present war, any fraction of a year after three months to count as a full year. Candidates will be required to produce documentary proof in support of their claim to such a concession, and their claim will be referred to the War Office or the Admiralty, as the case may be, for substantiation.

2. Subjects of Examination :	Marks.
1. English	300
2. French	300
3. Either German or Spanish	300
4. Law	200
5. Arithmetic	100
6. Commercial Geography	200
7. Political Economy	200
8. Russian	300

Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in the first seven subjects.

3. A fee of £4 will be required from every candidate attending an examination.

Examinations for these appointments do not take place at fixed intervals, but are held from time to time as Candidates are nominated to compete for vacancies.

Enquiries respecting nominations should be addressed to the Under-Secretary of State, Foreign Office, London, S.W.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
June, 1915.

Syllabus.

English Includes Essay Writing, Handwriting, Spelling, and Précis Writing.

English Composition.—Candidates will be required to write an essay or letter.

Spelling.—A spelling recognised by any standard English dictionary is accepted as correct; recognition by an American dictionary is no guarantee of acceptance.

Précis Writing.—Limits may be prescribed for the number of words that the Précis should contain. The limits will be wide, and the candidate can with sufficient accuracy estimate the number of words he has written by counting the number in ten lines and making a proportional calculation. It is also useful for the candidate to have some idea of the number of words he is accustomed to write on an unruled foolscap page. Failure to keep within the prescribed limits will entail loss of marks. This subject does not include Indexing.

English Composition, Handwriting and Spelling are taken into account in all subjects.

French, German and Spanish.—The test will include Translation (from the language), Set Composition (i.e., Translation into the language), Free Composition and Conversation. In Translation the candidate must not merely show that he understands the original passage; he must also express himself in good English. German should be written in German characters. The oral test will carry 100 marks out of 300.

Law.—The principles of British Mercantile and Commercial Law relating to (1) Shipping; (2) Negotiable Instruments, Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes; (3) Contracts for the Carriage of Goods; (4) Contracts of Marine Insurance, Bottomry, and Respondentia.

Arithmetic.—To vulgar fractions and decimals, including Imperial and Metric Weights and Measures.

A knowledge of recurring decimals is not required.

For full credit the working must be clearly arranged and immediately intelligible.

A result may be asked for to a certain approximation, or the data may themselves be only approximate. In such a case, to give the result to a greater degree of accuracy than is asked for or is justified by the data will entail loss of marks.

Political Economy.—General principles and their special application to currency, the money market, foreign exchanges, and taxation.

Russian.—The test will include translation, free composition, set composition, and conversation. In translation the candidate must not merely show that he understands the original passage; he must also express himself in good English. The oral test will carry 100 marks out of 300.

The tests in Russian will be easy, to balance the difficulty of this language.

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR THE OTTOMAN DOMINIONS, PERSIA, GREECE, AND MOROCCO.‡

The following Regulations apply to persons who may be nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to compete for Student Interpretships for the Ottoman Dominions, Persia, Greece, or Morocco:—

1. Candidates cannot be nominated unless they are natural-born British subjects and born within the United Kingdom, or in one of the self-governing Dominions, of parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates will further be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners—

(a.) That their age on the first day of the Examination is not less than 18 or more than 24. In the present emergency, candidates who may hereafter attend examinations for employment under the Foreign Office for which age limits are fixed will be allowed an age deduction corresponding with the length of their military service in the present war, any fraction of a year after three months to count as a full year. Candidates will be required to produce documentary proof in support of their claim to such a concession, and their claim will be referred to the War Office or the Admiralty, as the case may be, for substantiation.

(b.) That they are duly qualified in respect of health* and character.

(c.) That they are unmarried.

2. The examination will be in the following subjects:—

Obligatory:

1. English Composition.
2. Arithmetic.
3. French.
4. Latin.

Optional:

5. Ancient Greek.
6. Italian or Spanish.
7. German.
8. Russian.
9. Arabic.

Candidates must pass to the satisfaction of the Civil Service Commissioners in each of the four obligatory subjects. Of the optional subjects a candidate may not offer more than three. Italian and Spanish may not be offered by the same candidate.

3. A fee of £4 will be required from every candidate attending the examination.

Examinations for this situation do not take place at fixed intervals, but are held from time to time as Candidates are nominated to compete for vacancies.

Enquiries respecting nominations should be addressed to the Under Secretary of State, Foreign Office, London, S.W.

STUDENT INTERPRETERS FOR CHINA, JAPAN, AND SIAM.†

Candidates for Student Interpreterships in China, Japan and Siam, who have been nominated by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, are required to attend at the combined Open Competitions for the Home Civil Service (Class 1), Indian Civil Service, and Eastern Cadetships, which usually begin on or about the 1st August in each year. They must obtain such an aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole as may indicate, in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners, a competent amount of general proficiency.

1. Candidates cannot be nominated unless they are natural-born British subjects and born within the United Kingdom, or in one of the self-governing Dominions, or parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State. Candidates will further be required to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners:—

(a) That they have attained the age of 21 and have not attained the age of 24 on the first day of August in the year in which the examination is held, subject to an extension of five years in the case of persons who have served under the Foreign Office continuously from a time when they were under 24. In the present emergency, Candidates who may hereafter attend examinations for employment under the Foreign Office for which age limits are fixed will be allowed an age deduction corresponding with the length of their military service in the present War, any fraction of a year after three months to count as a full year. Candidates will be required to produce documentary proof in support of their claim to such a concession, and their claim will be referred to the War Office or the Admiralty, as the case may be, for substantiation.

(b) That they are unmarried.

(c) That they are duly qualified in respect of health* and character.

* Candidates must be of sound constitution, possessed of good sight, and physically qualified for service in tropical climates. They will be called upon to undergo a medical examination to test these points, which will take place after the result of the literary examination has been ascertained. Successful Candidates who have not been vaccinated within the last seven years must undergo the operation before leaving England.

† See also General information to Candidates, page 118; and Particulars as to Conditions of Service, page 123.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION, LONDON, W.

June, 1915.

APPOINTMENTS UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE. (See footnote on page 118.)

PARTICULARS AS TO CONDITIONS OF SERVICE.

Foreign Office.

Successful Candidates for Foreign Office Clerkships will enter on a period of probation not exceeding two years, after which time they will be regularly appointed to the Public Service. They will receive a salary commencing at £200 a year.

Diplomatic Service.

Successful Candidates will be required to serve as Attachés on probation and without salary for two years from the date of the Certificate granted by the Civil Service Commissioners. During this period they must have been employed in the Foreign Office, and must also have actually resided at one of His Majesty's Embassies or Missions abroad, or have been actually employed at the Foreign Office for such a time as in the aggregate will make up the requisite period, exclusive of leave of absence.

* A Syllabus giving particulars of the Examination in certain subjects can be obtained from the Civil Service Commissioners, Burlington Gardens, W.

‡ A fee of £3 will be required from every Candidate attending the Examination.

On the expiration of the probationary period Commissions as Third Secretaries will be granted to Attachés, together with a salary of £150 a year, provided that their general character and conduct during the time that they have served have been satisfactory.

Far Eastern Student Interpreters.

Successful Candidates are expected to proceed to their destination as soon after their appointment as possible. A passage to their post will be provided at the public expense, and they will receive a salary of £250 a year in China and Japan and of £200 a year in Siam, commencing ten days previous to their departure from England.

They are required to enter into a bond of £300, with sufficient surety for the repayment of £150 in the event of resignation or discharge from the Service within five years.

Levant Student Interpreters.

Successful Candidates are required to proceed, as soon as possible after their appointment, to such one of the Universities as may be selected by the Secretary of State, where a course of studies will be prescribed for them. They reside there as members of the University for not less than seven months in the year during two consecutive years, viz., two months in each of the winter terms, seven weeks in the Easter term, and five weeks during the Long Vacation. At least six weeks in each year must be spent in France, with the object of improving their knowledge of French. After one year of residence at the University, a detailed certificate of each student's progress is furnished, and any student adversely reported on may forfeit his position. At the end of two years of residence they are called on to pass an examination, success in which is requisite to qualify them for continuance in the Service. Their seniority in the Service will depend on the result of this examination.

Their studies are under the control of the "Foreign Service Students Committee," to which they should apply for information. The course will include Turkish, Persian, Arabic, French, Russian, Turkish and Persian history, and the elements of English law.

They are required to produce to the Foreign Office the certificates issued from time to time by the Head or Tutor of the College to which they are attached, stating the amount of residence and the character of their conduct. They are also required to produce certificates of regular attendance at lectures.

A salary of £200 per annum is issued to them conditionally on passing satisfactory examinations during their term of probation at the University, and a subvention is paid to the University in respect of the cost of providing instruction in Oriental languages. Each student will be called upon to pay an annual fee of £30 to the University for instruction; this amount will be deducted from the quarterly payments of his salary. These payments will cease at the expiration of two years from the date of their first residence at the University, and students will not commence to draw salary as Assistants until they have passed the requisite examination before the University authorities.

They are required, before proceeding to the University, to execute a bond, with a sufficient surety, for the payment of £500 to His Majesty's Government in the event of their leaving the Service of their own free will, or being discharged from it for misconduct or neglect of duties, within five years.

On being appointed to be Assistants they receive a salary of £300 a year, and are distributed for service in the Diplomatic Missions and Consulates. At the end of the first twelve months they are examined in the language of the country in which they have resided, i.e., Turkish, Persian, or Arabic, and in Ottoman (or Persian) law. Candidates failing to qualify in the latter must take it again at the end of the second year. Twelve months after passing that examination they are called upon to undergo a further examination in the language and recent history of the country in which the Assistants have resided.

The passing of this examination is necessary in order to qualify for promotion to the rank of Vice-Consul and any Assistant failing to qualify loses his seniority, and is required to undergo a fresh examination.

General Consular Service.

Successful Candidates will be required, as far as practicable, to work for at least three months in the Foreign Office and in the Commercial Intelligence Branch of the Board of Trade before proceeding to their post, in order that they may become acquainted with the forms of business as carried on there.

It is considered undesirable that Vice-Consuls should marry during the first three years after their entry into the Service. Should any Vice-Consul do so, he must fully understand that the fact of his having a wife could not be taken into consideration in assigning him a post.

A year after their arrival at their post Consular Officers will be required to show that they have a sufficient knowledge of the current language, as far as commerce is concerned, of the place at which they are appointed to reside, to enable them to communicate directly with the authorities and natives of the place.

The salaries of Vice-Consuls will commence at £300 a year.

All successful Candidates who may be appointed to any of the Services under the Foreign Office must distinctly understand that their retention and advancement in the Public Service will depend entirely on the ability which they may show and on their general steadiness and good conduct.

FOREIGN OFFICE,

FOREIGN OFFICE TRANSLATORS.

1. These appointments, the number of which is limited to three, are open to Clerks on the establishment of the Foreign Office, after completion of one year's service, and may be held until the rank of Assistant or Acting Assistant Clerk is attained.

2. Candidates will be required to undergo an examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, and to satisfy the Commissioners that they possess the requisite practical knowledge of the languages in which they are examined, and that they are able to translate such languages quickly and correctly into good English. In the event of two or more candidates presenting themselves for one vacancy, the candidate who obtains the largest number of marks will receive the appointment. The qualifying languages will be either Italian, or Spanish, or Russian, in addition to which candidates must pass a test examination in German. The Translators will not be required to pass examinations in Dutch, Danish, Portuguese, or Swedish, unless they wish to do so; but the Secretary of State expects that they will among them acquire sufficient proficiency in those languages to make translations from them if required.

Two of these allowances cannot be permanently held by the same Translator.

3. The Translators will be expected to prepare all translations required for the use of the Foreign Office.

In case, however, of great pressure, or of documents being received in any languages other than those mentioned above, assistance may be obtained through the Civil Service Commissioners on sanction being received from the Under-Secretary of State.

4. The Translators will rank according to their seniority in the Office.

5. It will be the duty of the Senior Translator, or in his absence of the Second Translator, to receive and distribute papers requiring translation; to superintend the work as far as may be possible; to apply to the Under-Secretary of State for assistance when needed; and to arrange questions of leave, and such matters as relate to the ordinary duties of the Translators.

6. Should a Translatorship be temporarily vacated in consequence of one of the Translators becoming an Acting Assistant Clerk, or effecting a temporary exchange into the Diplomatic Service, any Clerk who is eligible, or in case of there being no candidate among the Clerks, the member of the Diplomatic Service with whom the exchange is made, may, after examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, occupy the appointment for the period during which it is vacated, and receive the allowance attached to it.

The Secretary of State may, if he considers it desirable, appoint any Clerk who has held such an acting appointment to the next actual vacancy among the Translators, without further examination.

7. In case there should be no candidate for a vacant Translatorship, or that the candidates should fail to pass the necessary examination before the Civil Service Commissioners, one or both of the other Translators will be permitted, if duly qualified, to undertake temporarily the duties of the vacant appointment, and to receive the allowance attached to it, on the understanding that the vacancy will be filled up as soon as circumstances will permit.

Foreign Office, October 1, 1886.

ATTACHÉS AND THIRD SECRETARIES. INTERNATIONAL LAW.

(See §3 of Regulations for the Diplomatic Service, page 86.)

THIRD SECRETARIES or ATTACHÉS who are on the point of qualifying for Commissions as Third Secretaries, who desire to obtain a Certificate of having satisfactorily passed an examination in International Law will be required to show an adequate acquaintance with its nature and authority, with the sources from which it is derived, and with the subject generally.

2. In addition to a general knowledge of the ordinary rights and obligations of Sovereign States in time of peace, and of belligerents and neutrals in war, they will be expected to devote particular attention to the following subjects:—

(i.) The political constitution of the more important States in Europe and of the United States of America, so far as the constitution of each may affect its international relations.

(ii.) The nature of the subjects dealt with at the more important international conferences and congresses since 1870, and the outlines (not the details) of the general treaties resulting therefrom, e.g.:—

(a.) The Congress of Berlin 1878, and the Treaty of Berlin signed thereat on the 13th July, 1878.

(b.) The Conference of Berlin, 1885, and the General Act signed thereat on the 26th February, 1885.

(c.) The Brussels Conference, 1890, and the General Act signed thereat on the 2nd July, 1890.

(d.) The Peace Conference, 1899, and the resulting Conventions.

(e.) The Second Peace Conference, 1907, and the resulting Conventions and Declaration.

(f.) The International Naval Conference, 1908-9, and the Declaration of London, 1909.

(iii.) The general nature of the usual commercial treaties between States and the meaning and effect of "most-favoured nation" clauses.

(iv.) The general nature of arbitration treaties and the modern developments of arbitration.

(v.) The status, duties, and privileges of diplomatic representatives in the countries to which they are accredited.

(vi.) The general principles of the law of nationality.

3. The books recommended for study are:—

(a.) For the general subject: Professor Oppenheim's "International Law," 2 vols. (i.) Peace; (ii.) War (Longmans, Green, and Co.).

(b.) For the special subjects:—

(i.) Lowell's "Governments and Parties in Continental Europe," 2 vols. (Longmans, Green, and Co.); Bryce's "American Commonwealth" (Macmillan).

(ii.) The text of the treaties, as published in the "Treaty Series" or other Blue Books laid before Parliament; and the general instructions to the British Plenipotentiaries or Delegates, and their reports, where these are included in the Blue Books.

(iii.) "Handbook of Treaties relating to Commerce and Navigation," published by the Foreign Office, 1908.*

(iv.) The texts of British arbitration treaties published in the "Treaty Series" of Blue Books.

(v.) Oppenheim's "International Law," vol. I, part iii, chapter ii.

(vi.) Hall's "Foreign Powers and Jurisdiction of the British Crown" (Clarendon Press, Oxford).

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS (CHINA AND SIAM).

TRAINING AND EXAMINATION IN LAW.

1. With a view to enable Assistants in His Britannic Majesty's Consular Service for China, Corea and Siam, to study Law in this country in order—

(a.) To qualify themselves in the special branches of Law which would be useful to them in their Consular duties; and

(b.) To be ultimately called to the Bar, the following special extensions of leave have been sanctioned:—

China and Corea.

2. In the case of officers in His Majesty's Consular Service in China and Corea the usual furlough of one year after five years' service will be extended to two years in the case of any Assistant who may, on this ground, apply for such extension, provided that the Minister under whom he may have been serving shall recommend the application, and shall express his opinion that the ability, industry, and general good conduct exhibited by the officer in the past five years warrant the expectation that he will turn to good account whatever opportunities of studying Law may be afforded him.

3. Assistants to whom the Minister has recommended that extended leave shall be granted will, on their arrival in England, be reported by the Foreign Office to the Civil Service Commissioners, who will make arrangements for the examination referred to in paragraph 5 (d).

4. The grant of a second year's leave of absence will not be confirmed unless the Assistant can produce to the Secretary of State at the end of his first year:—

(a.) A certificate from the proper officer of the Inn of Court to which he belongs, that he has regularly kept his terms since his admission.

(b.) A certificate from the Council of Legal Education that he has qualified in the following branches of Law in the examinations, conducted by the Council, of Candidates for Call to the Bar:—

(i.) Roman Law.

(ii.) Constitutional Law (English and Colonial) and Legal History.

(iii.) Criminal Law and Procedure.

(iv.) Real Property and Conveyancing.

†(c.) A certificate from the Council that he has passed satisfactorily in the Term examinations conducted by the Readers or Assistant Readers in the following:—

(i.) Evidence.

(ii.) Civil Procedure.

5. At the end of his second year's leave the Assistant will be required to produce to the Secretary of State:—

(a.) A certificate from the proper officer of the Inn to which he belongs, that he has regularly kept his terms.

(b.) A certificate from the Council of Legal Education that he has qualified in the following branches of Law in the examinations, conducted by the Council, of Candidates for Call to the Bar:—

(i.) Common Law.

(ii.) Equity.

(iii.) Evidence and Civil Procedure.

†(c.) A certificate from the Council that he has passed satisfactorily in the term examinations in:—

(i.) Private International Law.

(ii.) Commercial Law, with especial reference to Mercantile Documents in daily use.

(d.) A certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners that he has passed a satisfactory examination in the following subjects:—

(i.) The Law relating to merchant shipping, contracts of affreightment, and marine insurance.

(ii.) The status of and jurisdiction over British subjects and aliens, questions of extra-territoriality as affecting marriage, succession (testamentary and intestate), contracts, torts, and criminal liability.

(iii.) Any other subject or subjects which the Civil Service Commissioners, with the approval of the Secretary of State, may from time to time prescribe.

6. The Assistants will also be required to furnish at such times and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may direct, certain Notes of Cases and Proceedings in Courts of Law, and before Police Magistrates, and may be called upon to submit themselves to rigid voce examinations touching their knowledge of the meaning and conduct of the proceedings they have reported.

Siam.

7. In the case of Assistants in His Britannic Majesty's Consular Service for Siam, who come home after three years of absence, extensions of leave will be granted at various times in order to enable them to keep the requisite number of terms, provided such extensions do not in the aggregate exceed twelve months.

The certificates mentioned in paragraph 4 will be required when the Assistant has had the opportunity of keeping six terms, and those in paragraph 5 at the expiration of the final extension.

8. Detailed information relating to the lectures, classes and examinations conducted by the Council of Legal Education may be obtained from the Clerk to the Council, 15, Old Square, Lincoln's Inn, or from the proper officers of any of the four Inns of Court.

Foreign Office, June, 1909.

GENERAL REGULATIONS respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Situations in the Civil Service, included in Schedule A of the Order in Council of 10th January, 1910.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration at any time.

1. Competitive examinations of Candidates for situations in the different public Departments will be held at such times and at such places as may be deemed expedient. Before every such examination Special Regulations will be issued, in which the particular conditions of the competition will be specified.

2. These examinations are open to all persons, being of the requisite age, health, and character, subject to such restrictions as are herein contained, and to Special Regulations affecting the particular situations. Provided that no person will be eligible during the war and until further notice who is not a natural-born British subject and the child of natural-born British subjects or of natural-born subjects or citizens of an allied country.

(i.) The following persons are ineligible, viz. :—

Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of less than five years' service.

(ii.) The following classes of persons are eligible under certain conditions only, that is to say :—

(a) Persons actually serving in the Army.

(b) Persons actually serving in the Navy.

(c) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service.

(d) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary of more than five years' service.

(e) Apprentices in His Majesty's Dockyards.

(f) Persons who have entered upon or completed a course of education or training for the occupation of teacher, on account of which grants are payable from the Exchequer.

No person actually serving in the Army will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Army Council.

No person actually serving in the Navy will be eligible unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued by or under the authority of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

Persons comprised in the classes (c), (d), (e) must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination, before the commencement of the competition.

Persons comprised in class (f) will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Board of Education in England, the Committee of Council on Education for Scotland, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

3. In reckoning age for competition, the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

(i.) Persons who have served, or are serving, in the Army or Navy may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served ;

(ii.) Persons who may be serving or who may have served in the Militia, the Imperial Yeomanry, the Honourable Artillery Company, or the Volunteers, may deduct from their actual age any time spent on actual military service, such time being reckoned by the number of days for which they received Army pay ;

(iii.) Persons who have served for two full consecutive years—

(A) In the Royal Irish Constabulary.

(B) In any Civil situation other than that of Registered Boy Clerk, to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners,

(C) As Registered Boy Clerks (if appointed on the results of the competition of September 22, 1908, or any previous competition), may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service, with the proviso that persons comprised in Classes (A), (B), (C), will not be allowed to deduct from their actual age more than the following, viz. :—

One year when competing for Junior Appointments in the Supply and Accounting Departments of the Admiralty or other situations grouped therewith under the same regulations ;

Two years when competing for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service ;

One year when competing for the situation of Assistant of Customs and Excise.

4. If at any examination two or more situations, whether in the same or in different Departments, shall be offered for competition, the successful candidates will be permitted (unless otherwise stated in Special Regulations, and subject in the case of examinations for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service to the provision contained in Chapter 5 of Part IV of the Order in Council of 10th January, 1910), to choose in their order as determined by the competitive examination among the situations offered for competition ; provided that they be duly qualified according to the special rules prescribed under Clause 4 of the Order in Council of 10th January, 1910, for the particular situations to which they may severally be assigned. A Candidate will not be eligible for assignment or appointment to the Admiralty, the War Office, or the Colonial Office, unless he is a British subject and the son of a father also a British subject except by special permission from the Head of the Department concerned, and a Candidate will not be eligible for assignment or appointment to the Foreign Office, unless he is a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within those territories, except when special permission is given to the Civil Service Commissioners by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

CLERKSHIPS IN THE SECOND DIVISION OF THE CIVIL SERVICE.

Special Regulations respecting Open Competitive Examinations for Clerkships in the Second Division of the Civil Service. (Age between 17 and 40 years complete, and between 17 and 50 in China, Japan, Siam, and Constantinople.)

* NOTE.—It is within the discretion of the Secretary of State to allow, in special circumstances, candidates under 30 and between 40 and 45 to go before the Board of Selection.

EXAMINATIONS—(SPECIAL REGULATIONS OWING TO THE WAR), &c. 128-130

HOME SERVICE MESSENGERS, OFFICE-KEEPERS, DOOR-KEEPERS, HOUSEKEEPERS, AND OTHERS ON THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE FOREIGN OFFICE; MESSENGERS AT MISSIONS ABROAD, CONSTABLES AND GAOLERS AT CONSULATES, USHERS IN JUDICIAL COURTS, OTHER SUBORDINATE SITUATIONS UNDER THE FOREIGN OFFICE.

1. Candidates must be between the ages of 20 and 40 years complete, except as regards constables and gaolers in the Far East, where the age limit is 45 for persons engaged locally. Persons who have served in the army and navy may be allowed to deduct from their actual ages any time, not exceeding five years, that they may have so served.

2. Subjects of examination:—

- (i.) Writing (including copying manuscript) and spelling.
- (ii.) Arithmetic (first four rules, money and avoirdupois weight).

3. Candidates must satisfy the Commissioners that their general health and character are good.

4. All candidates locally selected for situations as constables and gaolers in the Far East, must obtain the permission of the Consul and Minister before presenting themselves for examination. Such permission shall be given in each case only after such temporary service as would prove the candidate to be worthy of permanent retention.

Foreign Office, April 25, 1902.

FEMALE TYPISTS EMPLOYED IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE. See page 92.

Special Regulations owing to the War.

TEMPORARY RECONSTRUCTION REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITING CLERKS IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND ATTACHÉS IN THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE.

(These regulations are liable to alteration at any time after due notice.)

Age.

1. Candidates must have been born on or after the 2nd August, 1889, and have attained the age of 22 on the date fixed for the qualifying examination described below.

Nationality.

2. Candidates must be natural-born British subjects, and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within those territories, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case they can be allowed to compete by special permission of the Secretary of State.

Military Service.

3. Candidates must have served in His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces; provided that a candidate who has been found unfit on grounds of health for general service, has served for at least a year in a Government Department, has there shown himself to be up to or above the standard of ability usually obtained from competitive examinations, and is recommended by his Department, may also be considered; provided also that a candidate who has been interned in an enemy country in such manner as to preclude him from serving in His Majesty's Forces may be eligible.

Education.

4. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have received whole-time continuous and systematic education of a high type until at least the age of 18. They must also be able, by reference to places of education or otherwise, to furnish evidence satisfactory to the Commissioners of the mastery of French that is essential for this service.

Health and Character.

5. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

No candidate will be passed who cannot be sent to any climate.

The loss of a limb will not in itself be regarded as a disqualification, but the loss of sight, deafness, or a bad stammer will be so regarded.

Application.

6. Candidates must make application on the appropriate Form, which may be obtained from the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, 6, Burlington Gardens, London, W. 1.

Qualifying Examination.

7. Those candidates who on their Application Forms and the resulting inquiries are adjudged by the Civil Service Commissioners to be eligible will undergo a qualifying examination in the following subjects:—

French,
English,
General Knowledge,
Arithmetic,

and those whom the Civil Service Commissioners judge to approximate to the standard of ability usually obtained from competitive examinations for these situations will be passed.

Competitions.

8. Candidates who pass the qualifying examination and are of the requisite age, health and character, will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board. The Selection Board will hold competitions at intervals while these regulations remain in force, and on each competition they will prepare a list of the candidates suitable for appointment.

The Selection Board will take into account together with the candidate's record and his personal qualities as shown at the interview any special merit that he may have shown in any subject of the examination.

No candidate will be allowed more than one attempt at the qualifying examination during any calendar year, but a candidate who has passed the examination and, although judged suitable for appointment, has not been appointed on the results of one competition, may be considered by the Selection Board in later competitions.

Warning.

9. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through Members of Parliament, or other influential persons, will disqualify him for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in the Forces, or otherwise.

Fee.

10. Every candidate is required to pay a fee of ten shillings, payable when the Application Form is sent in.

Persons accused of having committed an offence in one part of the King's dominions are, if found in another part of His Majesty's dominions, liable, under the provisions of "The Fugitive Offenders' Act, 1881" (44 & 45 Vict., cap. 69), to be apprehended and returned to the part whence they have fled.

British subjects accused of having committed an offence within the King's dominions are, if found within a country in which His Majesty exercises extra-territorial jurisdiction, and to which "The Fugitive Offenders' Act, 1881," has been applied by Order in Council, liable, under the provisions of the same Statute, to be apprehended and returned to the place whence they have fled.

Conversely, British subjects accused of having committed an offence in a country in which the King exercises extra-territorial jurisdiction, and to which "The Fugitive Offenders' Act, 1881," has been applied by Order in Council, are, if found within another such country, or within any part of the King's dominions, liable in like manner to be apprehended and returned to the place whence they have fled.

The Extradition Acts are 33 and 34 Vict., c. 52, 9th August, 1870; 36 and 37 Vict., c. 60, 5th August, 1873; 58 and 59 Vict., c. 33, 1895; and 6 Edw. 7, c. 15, 1906.

For Orders in Council, &c., see "Hertslet's Treaties."

* The construction of this Article came under the consideration of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in the appeal case of the Attorney-General of Hong Kong v. Kwok Asing (5 Law Rep. Priv. Co., 179). Notes were exchanged with the Chinese Government in 1866 providing for the abolition of torture on the execution of Chinese criminals, in the event of their extradition.

NOTES.

1. If a Consular Officer should be named Commissioner to examine witnesses under a Commission issued by a British Court of Justice, he is allowed to act as such, charging and retaining the customary fees for so doing. A Consular Officer should, however, before undertaking the office, come to an arrangement with the parties at whose instance the Commission is being issued as to the exact scale of fees to be charged.

2. No fee is to be charged for drafting or receiving depositions, &c., taken ex officio under the Merchant Shipping Act, except in cases specially provided for.

3. In cases of attendances (Parts III. and IV.), the fee per day is to cover a period not exceeding twelve hours.

4. In cases of attendances away from the Consular Office or the Consular Officer's residence (Parts III. and IV.), if the Consular Officer finds it necessary to be accompanied by a clerk the fee will be increased by one-half, or if a clerk only is sent, half the fees are to be charged.

(GENERAL SERVICE.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold, are to be paid in coins which are a legal tender or current in the locality where payment is made, and change cannot be demanded. The fees are to be calculated at a rate of exchange which will cover the cost of their remittance, except in countries for which a special Table of the equivalents in foreign currency has been sanctioned by His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, with the concurrence of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

(JAPAN.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold, are to be paid in Japanese currency at the rate of 10 yen to the £ sterling. In Formosa they may be paid in local currency at the rate of the day.

(CHINA.)

5. The above fees, if not paid in British gold are to be paid in Mexican dollars at the rate of exchange fixed periodically by the Treasury.*

* For the period of the War, fee are collected at the rate of 10 dollars to the £ sterling.

FLAGS.

FLAGS TO BE USED BY DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

The usual size is as follows :—

For use on shore	8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet.
For use on shore when specially ordered	{ 4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet. 12 breadths, i.e., 18 feet by 9 feet.
For use on boats	{ 4 breadths, i.e., 6 feet by 3 feet. Diameter of shield, including garland, 1 foot 4 inches.
For use on board ship	{ 8 breadths, i.e., 12 feet by 6 feet. Diameter of shield, including garland, 2 feet 8 inches.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Diplomatic Servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., whether on shore or embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Union, with the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield, surrounded by a green garland.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers ashore, to distinguish their residences, is the Union, with the Tudor Crown in the centre thereof, on a white shield.

The flag to be used by His Majesty's Consular Officers, when embarked in boats or other vessels, is the Blue Ensign, with the Royal Arms in the centre of the fly thereof—that is, in the centre of that part between the Union and the end of the flag. The Consular Blue Ensign, being a personal distinguishing flag, must be flown at the bow, and not at the stern, which is the accepted position for the national colours. No further flag is necessary, but if for some special reason it is desired to fly a flag at the stern, this should be the Red Ensign.

The distinguishing Flags to be used by Diplomatic and Consular Officers when afloat were approved by Order in Council of August 7, 1869—see below.

ORDER IN COUNCIL, RESPECTING UNION JACKS AND OTHER FLAGS DISPLAYED BY BRITISH DIPLOMATIC, CONSULAR, AND OTHER AUTHORITIES. AUGUST 7, 1869.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 31st July, 1869, in the words following, viz.:—

"The Union Jack having been established by your Majesty's Regulations for the Naval Service as the distinguishing flag to be borne by the Admiral of the Fleet; and whereas great inconvenience has at times been experienced by the Union Jack having been carried in boats and other vessels by Governors of Colonies, Military Authorities, Diplomatic Officers, and Consular Agents, when embarked, we have deemed it expedient to place ourselves in communication on this subject with the Commander-in-Chief of your Majesty's Forces and the Principal Secretaries of State for Foreign Affairs, for the Colonies and for War, and with their concurrence we most humbly submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to prescribe and direct that in future the Union Jack to be displayed by the military branch of your Majesty's Service on such occasions shall bear in the centre thereof, as a distinguishing mark, the Royal initial, surrounded by a garland on a blue shield, and surmounted by the Crown; that the Union Jack to be used by your Majesty's diplomatic servants, Ministers Plenipotentiary, Chargés d'Affaires, &c., shall bear the Royal Arms in the centre thereof, on a white shield; whilst Consuls and Consular Agents, &c., shall be limited to the use of the blue ensign, with the Royal Arms in the fly thereof; we further submit that Governors of your Majesty's dominions in foreign parts, and Governors of all ranks and denominations administering the Governments of British colonies and dependencies, be authorized to fly the Union Jack, with the arms or badge of the colony emblazoned in the centre thereof.

"A drawing of the Union Jack, with the proposed distinguishing devices, is transmitted herewith for your Majesty's approval."

Her Majesty, having taken the said memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed; and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, the Right Honourable the Earl Granville, the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, and the Right Honourable Edward Cardwell, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS.

The King has commanded that the following Regulations relating to the wearing of Foreign Orders and Medals by British subjects shall be substituted for those previously in force:

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS APPLICABLE TO PERSONS IN THE SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

Orders.

1. It is the King's wish that no subject of His Majesty in the Service of the Crown shall accept and wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either:

- (a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or
- (b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

2. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the letter from The King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal Sanction.

3. Full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is contemplated in the following cases:—

For a Decoration conferred—

On an Officer in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces lent to a Foreign Government; on an Officer in His Majesty's Naval or Military Forces attached by his Government to a Foreign Navy or Army during hostilities; or on any British Official lent to a Foreign Government and not in receipt of any emoluments from British public funds during the period of such loan.

* Red Cross and kindred services will only be regarded as "valuable" for the purposes of these Regulations when they have been rendered in a war in which the Empire has itself been engaged. The Decoration for the wearing of which permission is sought, must have been conferred by the Allied State with whose armies or in whose territory the services have been rendered, and these services must have been performed under conditions necessarily entailing bodily risk or physical hardship on the performer. Permission will not be granted for the wearing of a Decoration conferred in recognition of services in the organisation or administration of societies or units engaged in Red Cross or other similar work.

4. Private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to the Head of a Foreign State, and which are therefore of a more or less complimentary character, and will, as a rule, only be given on exceptional occasions when in the public interest and for political reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of a Foreign Decoration should not be declined. Private permission will generally be given in the following cases:—

For a Decoration conferred—

- (1.) On British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when the King pays a State visit to the country to which they are accredited;

(NOTE.—A State visit is defined as one on which the King is accompanied by a Minister or High Official in attendance.)

- (2.) On Members of Deputations of British Regiments to Foreign Heads of States;

- (3.) On Members of Special Missions, when the King is represented at a Foreign Coronation, Wedding, or Funeral; or on any Diplomatic Representative when specially accredited to represent His Majesty on such occasions; and such Members of his Staff who actually attend the ceremonies in their official capacity;

- (4.) On Naval and Military Attachés only after completion of five years' service at the post to which they are appointed in that capacity;

5. Private or restricted permission will not be given to—

- (1.) British Ambassadors or Ministers abroad when leaving;
- (2.) Members of British Missions announcing the Accession of a Sovereign;
- (3.) British Officers attending Foreign Manœuvres;
- (4.) Naval Officers of British Squadrons visiting Foreign Waters.

6. The desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject in the Service of the Crown the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through his Diplomatic Representative at the Court of St. James:

7. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 2, to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette," stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

8. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of His Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British subject in the service of the Crown has received the Royal permission, full or private, to accept and wear the Decoration of a Foreign Order, he will not be allowed to accept and wear the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order without His Majesty's approval, which will only be given if the higher honour is being conferred in circumstances contemplated by these Regulations.

Medals.

10. Medals which constitute a particular class of a Foreign Order are subject in all respects to the Regulations in the same manner as higher grades of the Order, except that permission to wear will be given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant.

11. The King's unrestricted permission to accept and wear a Foreign Medal will only be given in the case of a Foreign Medal conferred by the Head or Government of a Foreign State for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land.

In the case of Medals for Red Cross services, permission will only be granted subject to the fulfilment of the conditions laid down in Rule 3 above.

12. The King's unrestricted permission to accept and wear a Foreign War Medal will only be given to (1) Officers of His Majesty's Military or Naval Forces if serving with a Foreign Army or Navy with His Majesty's licence, and (2) Military or Naval Attachés or other Officers officially attached to Foreign Armies or Navies during hostilities.

13. In exceptional cases, when for special reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of the Medal should not be declined, His Majesty will grant restricted permission. Such cases will be judged on their merits, and the circumstances in which the Medal may be worn will be specified in the Letter conveying His Majesty's permission.

14. The term "person in the Service of the Crown" includes persons in receipt of a salary or pension from Public Funds, or holding a Royal Commission in any part of His Majesty's Dominions, Protectorates, or Possessions.

15. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

Foreign Office,

March 10, 1914.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN ORDERS AND MEDALS APPLICABLE TO PERSONS NOT IN THE SERVICE OF THE CROWN.

Orders.

1. It is the King's wish that no subject of His Majesty shall wear the Insignia of any Foreign Order without having previously obtained His Majesty's permission to do so, signified either:

- (a) By Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual, or
- (b) By private permission conveyed through His Majesty's Private Secretary.

2. Permission given by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual will enable the Insignia of the Foreign Order to be worn at all times and without any restriction.

Private permission will only enable the Insignia to be worn on the occasions specified in the terms of the Letter from the King's Private Secretary conveying the Royal sanction.

3. The full and unrestricted permission by Warrant under the Royal Sign-Manual is designed to meet cases where the Decoration may be said to have been earned by some valuable service rendered to the Head of the State conferring it, or to the State itself. Application will be made to His Majesty for full permission by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs on behalf of any person who, not being at the time in the Service of the Crown, is either in the salaried employment of a Foreign State or has rendered valuable services within the period of two years immediately preceding the notification of the Decoration to His Majesty's Government as prescribed under Rule 5.

The expression "valuable services" must be construed as meaning some service rendered to a Foreign Head of State or Government specifically, and must be indisputably valuable in the strict sense of the word. Though such services need not necessarily be gratuitous, as in the case of a person actually in the employ of a Foreign Government, they must be unconnected with any transaction of a commercial or financial character brought about in the ordinary course of business. The term "valuable services" does not therefore, as a general rule, apply to services connected with the fulfilment of Government or Municipal contracts, the financing of Government or Municipal loans. It also does not include Red Cross Services, presentation of objects of value to Public Museums and Institutions, pecuniary donations or endowments, personal performances, services in connection with Exhibitions and Industrial Congresses, services in the domain of art, literature, science, education, and agriculture, services rendered by British subjects in the capacity of honorary foreign Consular Officers.

* Red Cross and kindred services will only be regarded as "valuable" for the purposes of these Regulations when they have been rendered in a war in which the Empire has itself been engaged. The Decoration for the wearing of which permission is sought must have been conferred by the Allied State with whose armies or in whose territory the services have been rendered, and these services must have been performed under conditions necessarily entailing bodily risk or physical hardship on the performer. Permission will not be granted for the wearing of a Decoration conferred in recognition of services in the organisation or administration of societies or units engaged in Red Cross or other similar work.

4. Private or restricted permission is contemplated for Decorations which have been conferred in recognition of personal attention to the Head of a Foreign State or Member of a Reigning House, and which are, therefore, of a more or less complimentary character. Private permission is as a rule only given on exceptional occasions, when in the public interest and for political reasons it is deemed expedient that the acceptance of a Foreign Decoration should not be declined.

5. Both in the case of full and in that of private permission the matter will be submitted to the King by His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

The desire of the Head of a Foreign State to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, or the fact that he has done so, must be notified to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs either through the British Diplomatic Representative accredited to the Head of the Foreign State, or through the Diplomatic Representative of the latter at the Court of St. James. His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall be under no obligation to consider claims that are not brought to his notice through one of these channels.

6. When His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the King's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained His Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour

It has been made to wear the Insignia of a Foreign Order, he shall signify the same to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause a Warrant, if it be a case for the issue of a Warrant as defined in Rule 2, to be prepared for the Royal Sign-Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the King, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the "Gazette," stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

Persons in whose favour such Warrants are issued will be required to pay to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department a stamp duty of 10s.

7. The Warrant signifying His Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms. Every such warrant as aforesaid shall contain a clause providing that His Majesty's licence and permission does not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of His Majesty's Realms.

8. When a British subject has received the Royal permission, full or private, to accept and wear the Decoration of a Foreign Order, he will not be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher class of the same Order without His Majesty's approval. His Majesty will in such cases grant permission only if the promotion in the Order is conferred for fresh services which come within these Regulations.

9. These Regulations apply only to Orders of Chivalry. Decorations conferred by Private Societies and Decorations of a purely academic nature, and all Decorations not being Orders of Chivalry, may be accepted without His Majesty's permission, but must not be worn.

Exception is made in the case of a few Foreign Orders, which, though not in strictness Orders of Chivalry, yet are of such a high distinction that, for the purpose of these Regulations, they are to be considered and treated as Orders of Chivalry.

10. Ladies are subject to the Regulations in all respects in the same manner as men.

Medals.

11. Medals which constitute a particular class of a Foreign Order are subject in all respects to the Regulations in the same manner as higher grades of the Order, except that permission to wear will be given by Letter and not by Royal Warrant.

12. Medals for saving or attempting to save life at sea or on land conferred on behalf of the Head or Government of a Foreign State may be accepted without His Majesty's special permission, and may be worn at Court.

In the case of Medals for Red Cross services, permission will only be granted subject to the fulfilment of the conditions laid down in Rule 3, paragraph 3, above.

13. Medals conferred by Private Societies or Institutions and Commemorative Medals may be accepted without permission, but none of these Medals can be worn.

14. The King's permission must be obtained for any other Medal to be worn. No permission is needed to accept a Foreign Medal if it is not intended to be worn.

15. His Majesty will not grant permission to wear any Foreign War Medal if the person on whom it is to be or has been conferred was during the war acting in contravention of the Foreign Enlistment Act.

Foreign Office,

March 10, 1914.

ACTS OF PARLIAMENT, AND ORDER IN COUNCIL, RELATING TO MARRIAGES ABROAD.

(1.)—AN ACT TO CONSOLIDATE ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE MARRIAGE OF BRITISH SUBJECTS OUTSIDE THE UNITED KINGDOM.

55 and 56 Vict., c. 23—"Foreign Marriage Act, 1892."

Validity of marriages solemnized abroad in manner provided by Act.

1. All marriages between parties of whom one at least is a British subject solemnized in the manner in this Act provided in any foreign country or place by or before a marriage officer within the meaning of this Act shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized in the United Kingdom with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Notice to marriage officer of intended marriage.

2. In every case of a marriage intended to be solemnized under this Act, one of the parties intending marriage shall sign a notice, stating the name, surname, profession, condition, and residence of each of the parties, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor, and give the notice to the marriage officer within whose district both of the parties have had their residence not less than one week then next preceding, and the notice shall state that they have so resided.

Filing in registry and posting up of notice.

3.—(1) The marriage officer shall file every such notice, and keep it with the archives of his office, and shall also, on payment of the proper fee, forthwith enter in a book of notices to be kept by him for the purpose, and post up in some conspicuous place in his office, a true copy of every such notice, and shall keep the same so posted up during fourteen consecutive days before the marriage is solemnized under the notice.

(2) The said book and copy posted up shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to the inspection of any person.

Requirement of like consent to marriage as in England, and power to forbid marriage.

4.—(1) The like consent shall be required to a marriage under this Act as is required by law to marriages solemnized in England.

(2) Every person whose consent to a marriage is so required may, at any time before the solemnization thereof under this Act, forbid it by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the intended marriage in the book of notices, and by subscribing thereto his name and residence, and the character by reason of which he is authorized to forbid the marriage; and if a marriage is so forbidden the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Caveat against marriages may be lodged with marriage officer.

5.—(1) Any person may on payment of the proper fee enter with the marriage officer a caveat, signed by him or on his behalf and stating his residence and the ground of his objection against the solemnization of the marriage of any person named therein, and thereupon the marriage of that person shall not be solemnized until either the marriage officer has examined into the matter of the caveat and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, or the caveat is withdrawn by the person entering it.

(2) In a case of doubt the marriage officer may transmit a copy of the caveat, with such statement respecting it as he thinks fit, to a Secretary of State, who shall refer the same to the Registrar-General, and the Registrar-General shall give his decision thereon in writing to the Secretary of State, who shall communicate it to the marriage officer.

(3) If the marriage officer refuses to solemnize or to allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring it to be solemnized, that person may appeal to a Secretary of State, who shall give the marriage officer his decision thereon.

(4) The marriage officer shall forthwith inform the parties of and shall conform to any decision given by the Registrar-General or Secretary of State.

When marriage not solemnized within three months a new notice required.

6. Where a marriage is not solemnized within three months next after the latest of the following dates—

(a) the date on which the notice for it has been given to and entered by the marriage officer under this Act, or

(b) if on a caveat being entered a statement has been transmitted to a Secretary of State, or if an appeal has been made to a Secretary of State, then the date of the receipt from the Secretary of State of a decision directing the marriage to be solemnized, the notice shall be void, and the intended marriage shall not be solemnized under that notice.

Oath before Marriage.

7. Before a marriage is solemnized under this Act, each of the parties intending marriage shall appear before the marriage officer, and make, and subscribe in a book kept by the officer for the purpose, an oath—

(a) that he or she believes that there is not any impediment to the marriage by reason of kindred or alliance, or otherwise; and

(b) that both of the parties have for three weeks immediately preceding had their usual residence within the district of the marriage officer; and

(c) where either of the parties, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or, as the case may be, that there is no person having authority to give such consent.

Solemnization of marriage at office in presence of marriage officer and two witnesses.

8.—(1) After the expiration of fourteen days after the notice of an intended marriage has been entered under this Act, then, if no lawful impediment to the marriage is shown to the satisfaction of the marriage officer, and the marriage has not been forbidden in manner provided by this Act, the marriage may be solemnized under this Act.

(2) Every such marriage shall be solemnized at the official house of the marriage officer, with open doors, between the hours of eight in the forenoon and three in the afternoon, in the presence of two or more witnesses, and may be solemnized by another person in the presence of the marriage officer, according to the rites of the Church of England, or such other form and ceremony as the parties thereto see fit to adopt, or may, where the parties so desire, be solemnized by the marriage officer.

(3) Where such marriage is not solemnized according to the rites of the Church of England, then in some part of the ceremony, and in the presence of the marriage officer and witnesses, each of the parties shall declare,

"I solemnly declare, that I know not of any lawful impediment why I, A. B. [or C. D.] may not be joined in matrimony to C. D. [or A. B.]."

And each of the parties shall say to the other,

"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I A. B. [or C. D.] take thee C. D. [or A. B.] to be my lawful wedded wife [or husband]."

Marriage fees to marriage officer and registration of marriages.

9.—(1) The marriage officer shall be entitled, for every marriage solemnized under this Act by him or in his presence, to have from the parties married the proper fee.

(2) He shall forthwith register in duplicate every such marriage in two marriage register books, which shall be furnished to him from time to time for that purpose by the Registrar-General (through a Secretary of State), according to the form provided by law for the registration of marriages in England, or as near to that form as the difference of the circumstances admits.

(3) The entry in each book of every such marriage shall be signed by the marriage officer, by the person solemnizing the marriage, if other than the marriage officer, by both the parties married, and by two witnesses of the marriage.

(4) All such entries shall be made in regular order from the beginning to the end of each book, and the number of the entry in each duplicate shall be the same.

(5) The marriage officer by whom or in whose presence a marriage is solemnized under this Act may ask of the parties to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching the marriage.

Annual forwarding of copies of register book to Secretary of State.

10.—(1) In January in every year every marriage officer shall make and send to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General, a copy, certified by him to be a true copy, of all the entries of marriages during the preceding year in the register book kept by him, and if there has been no such entry, a certificate of that fact; and every such copy shall be certified, and certificate given, under his hand and official seal.

(2) The marriage officer shall keep the duplicate marriage register books safely until they are filled, and then send one of them to a Secretary of State, to be transmitted by him to the Registrar-General.

Marriage officers and their districts.

11.—(1) For the purposes of this Act the following officers shall be marriage officers, that is to say;—

(a) Any officer authorized in that behalf by a Secretary of State by authority in writing under his hand (in this Act referred to as a marriage warrant); and

(b) Any officer who, under the marriage regulations hereinafter mentioned is authorized to act as marriage officer without any marriage warrant, and the district of a marriage officer shall be the area within which the duties of his office are exercisable, or any such less area as is assigned by the marriage warrant or any other warrant of a Secretary of State, or is fixed by the marriage regulations.

(2) Any marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorize to be a marriage officer—

(a) a British ambassador residing in a foreign country to the government of which he is accredited, and also an officer prescribed as any officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of such ambassador;

(b) the holder of the office of British consul in any foreign country or place specified in the warrant; and

(c) a governor, high commissioner, resident, consular or other officer, or any person appointed in pursuance of the marriage regulations to act in the place of a high commissioner or resident, and this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications to a marriage by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident, or officer so authorized by the warrant, and in such application shall not be limited to places outside Her Majesty's dominions.

(3) If a marriage warrant refers to the office without designating the name of any particular person holding the office, then, while the warrant is in force, the person for the time being holding or acting in such office shall be a marriage officer.

(4) A Secretary of State may, by warrant under his hand vary or revoke any marriage warrant previously issued under this Act.

(5) Where a marriage officer has no seal of his office, any reference in this Act to the official seal shall be construed to refer to any seal ordinarily used by him, if authenticated by his signature with his official name and description.

Marriages on board Her Majesty's ships on foreign stations.

12. A marriage under this Act may be solemnized on board one of Her Majesty's ships on a foreign station, and with respect to such marriage—

(a) subject to the marriage regulations a marriage warrant of a Secretary of State may authorize the commanding officer of the ship to be a marriage officer;

(b) the provisions of this Act shall apply with the prescribed modifications.

Avoidance of objections to marriages on account of want of formalities or authority of officer.

13.—(1) After a marriage has been solemnized under this Act it shall not be necessary, in support of the marriage, to give any proof of the residence for the time required by or in pursuance of this Act of either of the parties previous to the marriage, or of the consent of any person whose consent thereto is required by law, nor shall any evidence to prove the contrary be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

(2) Where a marriage purports to have been solemnized and registered under this Act in the official house of a British ambassador or consul, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, it shall not be necessary in support of the marriage to give any proof of the authority of the marriage officer by or before whom the marriage was solemnized and registered, nor shall any evidence to prove his want of authority, whether by reason of his not being a duly authorized marriage officer or of any prohibitions or restrictions under the marriage regulations or otherwise, be given in any legal proceeding touching the validity of the marriage.

Forfeiture of property in case of fraudulent marriage.

14. If a marriage be solemnized under this Act by means of any wilfully false notice, signed, or oath made by either party to the marriage, as to any matter for which a notice, or oath, is by this Act required, the Attorney General may sue for the forfeiture of all estate and interest in any property in England accruing to the offending party by the marriage; and the proceedings thereupon, and the consequences thereof, shall be the same as are provided by law in the like case with regard to marriages solemnized in England according to the rites of the Church of England.

Punishment of false oath or notice.

15. If a person—

- (a) knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or signs a false notice, under this Act, for the purpose of procuring a marriage, or
- (b) forbids a marriage under this Act by falsely representing himself to be a person whose consent to the marriage is required by law, knowing such representation to be false, such person shall suffer the penalties of perjury, and may be tried in any county in England and dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if the offence had been committed in that county.

Evidence.

16.—(1) Any book, notice, or document directed by this Act to be kept by the marriage officer or in the archives of his office, shall be of such a public nature as to be admissible in evidence on its mere production from the custody of the officer.

(2) A certificate of a Secretary of State as to any house, office, chapel, or other place being, or being part of, the official house of a British ambassador or consul shall be conclusive.

Application of Registration Acts to this Act.

17. All the provisions and penalties of the Marriage Registration Acts, relating to any registrar, or register of marriages or certified copies thereof, shall extend to every marriage officer, and to the registers of marriages under this Act, and to the certified copies thereof (so far as the same are applicable thereto), as if herein re-enacted and in terms made applicable to this Act, and as if every marriage officer were a registrar under the said Acts.

Registration of marriages solemnized under local law.

18.*Subject to the marriage regulations, a British consul, or person authorized to act as British Consul, on being satisfied by personal attendance that a marriage between parties, of whom one at least is a British subject, has been duly solemnized in a foreign country, in accordance with the local law of the country, and on payment of the proper fee, may register the marriage in accordance with the marriage regulations as having been so solemnized, and thereupon this Act shall apply as if the marriage had been registered in pursuance of this Act, except that nothing in this Act shall affect the validity of the marriage so solemnized.

Power to refuse solemnization of marriage where marriage inconsistent with international law.

19. A marriage officer shall not be required to solemnize a marriage, or to allow a marriage to be solemnized in his presence, if in his opinion the solemnization thereof would be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations;

Provided that any person requiring his marriage to be solemnized shall, if the officer refuses to solemnize it or allow it to be solemnized in his presence, have the right of appeal to the Secretary of State given by this Act.

Fees. 54 & 55 Vict., c. 36.

20. The proper fee under this Act shall be such fee as may for the time being be fixed under the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891;† and the fee so fixed as respects a consul shall be the fee which may be taken by any marriage officer; and the provisions relating to the levying, application, and remission of and accounting for fees under that Act shall apply to the same when taken by any marriage officer who is not a consul.

Power to make marriage regulations.

21.—(1) Her Majesty the Queen in Council may make regulations (in this Act referred to as the marriage regulations)*—

- (a) Prohibiting or restricting the exercise by marriage officers of their powers under this Act in cases where the exercise of those powers appears to Her Majesty to be inconsistent with international law or the comity of nations, or in places where sufficient facilities appear to Her Majesty to exist without the exercise of those powers, for the solemnization of marriages to which a British subject is a party; and
- (b) Determining what offices, chapels, or other places are, for the purposes of marriages under this Act,

* See Order in Council of November 22, 1913, page 157.

† See Tables of Fees, page 132.

to be deemed to be part of the official house or the office of a marriage officer; and

- (c) Modifying in special cases or classes of cases the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, so far as such modification appears to Her Majesty to be consistent with the observance of due precautions against clandestine marriages; and
- (d) Prescribing the forms to be used under this Act and
- (e) Adapting this Act to marriages on board one of Her Majesty's ships; and to marriages by or before a governor, high commissioner, resident or other officer, and authorizing the appointment of a person to act under this Act in the place of a high commissioner or resident; and
- (f) Determining who is to be the marriage officer for the purpose of a marriage in the official house of a British ambassador, or on board one of Her Majesty's ships, whether such officer is described in the regulations or named in pursuance thereof, and authorizing such officer to act without any marriage warrant; and
- (g) Determining the conditions under which and the mode in which marriages solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country may be registered under this Act; and
- (h) Making such provisions as seem necessary or proper for carrying into effect this Act or any marriage regulations; and
- (i) Varying or revoking any marriage regulations previously made.

(2) All regulations purporting to be made in pursuance of this section may be made either generally or with reference to any particular case or class of cases, and shall be published under the authority of Her Majesty's Stationery Office, and laid before both Houses of Parliament, and deemed to be within the powers of this Act, and shall while in force have effect as if enacted by this Act.

(3) Any marriage regulations which dispense for any reason, whether residence out of the district or otherwise, with the requirements of this Act as to residence and notice, may require as a condition or consequence of the dispensation, the production of such notice, certificate, or document, and the taking of such oath, and may authorize the publication or grant of such notice, certificate, or document, and the charge of such fees as may be prescribed by the regulations; and the provisions of this Act, including those enacting punishments with reference to any false notice or oath, shall apply as if the said notice, certificate, or document were a notice, and such oath were an oath, within the meaning of those provisions.

Validity of marriages solemnized within British lines.

22. It is hereby declared that all marriages solemnized within the British lines by any chaplain or officer or other person officiating under the orders of the commanding officer of a British army serving abroad, shall be as valid in law as if the same had been solemnized within the United Kingdom, with a due observance of all forms required by law.

Saving.

23. Nothing in this Act shall confirm or impair or in anywise affect the validity in law of any marriage solemnized beyond the seas, otherwise than as herein provided, and this Act shall not extend to the marriage of any of the Royal family.

Definitions.

24. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—The expression "Registrar General" means the Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England.

The expression "Attorney General" means Her Majesty's Attorney General, or if there is no such Attorney General, or the Attorney General is unable or incompetent to act, Her Majesty's Solicitor General, for England:

The expression "the Marriage Registration Acts" means the Act of the session of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter eighty-six, intitled "An Act for registering "births, deaths, and marriages in England" and the enactments amending the same:

The expression "official house of a marriage officer" means, subject to the provisions of any marriage regulations, the office at which the business of such officer is transacted, and the official house of residence of such officer, and, in the case of any officer, who is an officer for solemnizing marriages in the official house of an ambassador, means the official house of the ambassador:

The expression "consul" means a consul-general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, or consular agent:

The expression "ambassador" includes a minister and a chargé d'affaires:

Commencement of Act.

25. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January next after the passing thereof.

Repeal and savings.

26.—(1) The Acts specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that Schedule mentioned.

Provided that—

- (a) any Order in Council in force under any Act so repealed shall continue in force as if made in pursuance of this Act; and
- (b) any proceedings taken with reference to a marriage, any register book kept, and any warrant issued in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed, shall have effect as if taken, kept, and issued in pursuance of this Act; and
- (c) The fees which can be taken in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be taken in like manner as if fixed in pursuance of the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891, and may be altered accordingly; and
- (d) The forms prescribed by or in pursuance of the Acts hereby repealed may continue to be used as if prescribed by an Order in Council under this Act.

(2) Every marriage in fact solemnized and registered by or before a British Consul or other marriage officer in intended pursuance of any Act hereby repealed shall, notwithstanding such repeal or any defect in the authority of the consul or the solemnization of the marriage elsewhere than at the consulate, be as valid as if the said Act had not been repealed, and the marriage had been solemnized at the consulate by or before a duly authorized consul;

Provided that this enactment shall not render valid any marriage declared invalid before the passing of this Act by any competent court, or render valid any marriage either of the parties to which has, before the passing of this Act, lawfully intermarried with any other person.

(2.)—AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW WITH RESPECT TO MARRIAGES BETWEEN BRITISH SUBJECTS AND FOREIGNERS.

6 Edw. 7, c. 40, "Marriage with Foreigners Act, 1906."

Marriages of British subjects with foreigners abroad.

1.—(1) Any British subject who desires to be married in a foreign country to a foreigner according to the law of that country may, if it is desired for the purpose of complying with the requirement of the law of that country to obtain the certificate hereinafter mentioned, give notice of the marriage, if resident in the United Kingdom, to the registrar, and if resident abroad, to the marriage officer, and apply to the registrar or officer for a certificate that after proper notices have been given no legal impediment to the marriage has been shown to the registrar or officer to exist, and the registrar or officer shall after the conditions set out in the Schedule to this Act have been complied with, give the certificate applied for unless the certificate is forbidden or a caveat is in operation as provided in that Schedule, or some legal impediment to the marriage is shown to the registrar or officer to exist.

If a person—

- (a) knowingly and wilfully makes a false oath or signs a false notice of marriage for the purpose of a certificate under this section; or

- (b) forbids the granting of a certificate under this section by falsely representing himself to be a person who is authorized to forbid the certificate, knowing that representation to be false, that person shall be guilty of perjury, and if the offence is committed abroad, may be tried in any county or place in the United Kingdom in which the offender may be, and dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if the offence had been committed in that county or place.

(3) If any person enters a caveat on grounds which the registrar or officer or, in case of appeal, the Registrar-General declares to be frivolous, that person shall be liable to pay as a debt to the applicant for the certificate such sum as the registrar or officer or, in the case of appeal, the Registrar-General considers to be proper compensation for the damage caused to the applicant by the entering of the caveat.

(4) Such fees may be charged in respect of any notice of an intended marriage, or any application for or grant of a certificate, or the entering of a caveat under this section, as may be fixed, as respects certificates to be granted by or caveats entered with registrars, by the Registrar-General, with the consent of His Majesty in Council, and, as respects certificates to be granted by or caveats entered with a marriage officer, as may be fixed by Order under the Consular Salaries and Fees Act, 1891.*

Marriage of foreigners with British subjects in the United Kingdom.

2.—(1) Where arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of His Majesty with any foreign country for the issue by the proper officers of that country, in the case of persons subject to the marriage law of that country proposing to marry British subjects in the United Kingdom, of certificates that after proper notices have been given no impediment according to the law of that country has been shown to exist to the marriage, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, make regulations—

(a) requiring any person, subject to the marriage law of that foreign country, who is to be married to a British subject in the United Kingdom, to give notice of the fact that he is subject to the marriage law of that country to the person by or in the presence of whom the marriage is to be solemnized; and

(b) forbidding any person to whom such a notice is given to solemnize the marriage or to allow it to be solemnized until such a certificate as aforesaid is produced to him.

(2) If any person knowingly acts in contravention of, or falls to comply with, any such regulation, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be taken to relate or have any reference to any marriages between two persons professing the Jewish religion solemnized according to the usages of the Jews in the presence of the secretary of a synagogue authorized by either the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1836,† or the Marriages (Ireland) Act, 1844,‡ or by the Marriage and Registration Act, 1856§, to register such a marriage, or of a deputy appointed by such secretary by writing under his hand, and approved by the president for the time of the London committee of deputies of the British Jews by writing under his hand.

Power to make General Regulations.

3. His Majesty may by Order in Council make general regulations prescribing the forms to be used under this Act and making such other provisions as seem necessary or expedient for the purposes of this Act, and may by Order in Council revoke, alter, or add to any Order in Council made under this Act.

Interpretation.

4. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General within the meaning of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1836, and a superintendent registrar of marriages within the meaning of the Marriage Act, 1836; and

The expression "marriage officer" means a marriage officer for the time being under the Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,|| and includes any person for the time being empowered to register a marriage under section 18 of that Act.

Application to Scotland.

5. In the application of this Act to Scotland—

(1) References to the forbidding of a certificate shall not apply;

(2) A reference to a caveat shall be construed as a reference to an objection, and the provisions respecting the entry of a caveat on frivolous grounds shall not apply;

(3) The expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General of births, deaths, and marriages in Scotland, and the registrar of births, deaths, and marriages for a parish or district under the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages (Scotland) Act, 1854,¶ and the Acts amending that Act;

(4) Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 2 shall be read as if the following words were inserted after the word "solemnized," namely, "or to any registrar, law agent, or other person whom he desires to draw up any declaration of irregular marriage between him and a "British subject"; and paragraph (b) of the same subsection shall be read as if the following words were inserted after the word "solemnized," namely, "or to aid in effecting the "said irregular marriage";

(5) The duly appointed minister of a synagogue shall be substituted in subsection (3) of section 2 for the secretary of the synagogue or deputy as described in that subsection.

Application to Ireland.

6. In the application of this Act to Ireland the expressions "Registrar-General" and "registrar" mean respectively the Registrar-General and registrar within the meaning of the Marriages (Ireland) Act,

Short Title.

7. This Act may be cited as the Marriage with Foreigners Act, 1906.

SCHEDULE—PART I.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE EXCEPT IN SCOTLAND.

A.—Conditions.

1. The applicant shall sign a notice stating the name, surname, profession, condition, nationality, and residence of each of the parties to the marriage, and whether each of the parties is or is not a minor.

2. The applicant shall at the time of giving the notice make and subscribe, in a book to be kept by the registrar or officer for the purpose, an oath—

(a) that the applicant believes that there is no impediment to the marriage by reason of kindred or alliance, or otherwise; and

(b) that the applicant has for three weeks immediately preceding had his usual residence within the district of the registrar or officer;

(c) if the applicant, not being a widower or widow, is under the age of twenty-one years, that the consent of the persons whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto, or that there is no person having authority to give that consent, as the case may be.

3. The registrar or officer shall file every such notice and keep it with the archives of his office, and shall forthwith enter in a book of notices to be kept by him for the purpose, and post up in some conspicuous place in his office a copy of every such notice, and shall keep it so posted up for at least twenty-one days.

4. The book in which the notice is entered, and the copy posted up, shall be open at all reasonable times without fee to the inspection of any person.

B.—Provisions as to forbidding Certificate, and as to Caveats.

5. Any person whose consent is required by law to marriages solemnized in England may forbid the certificate by writing the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the application in the book of notices, and by subscribing thereto his name and residence and the character by reason of which he is authorized to forbid the certificate.

6. (a) Any person may enter with the registrar or officer a caveat against the granting of the certificate, signed by him or in his behalf and stating his residence and the grounds of his objection.

(b) The registrar or officer shall examine into the matter of the caveat and decide whether it ought to obstruct the giving of the certificate or not, but he may if he thinks fit refer the matter to the Registrar-General to decide. If the registrar or officer decides the question himself, and decides that the caveat ought to obstruct the granting of the certificate, the applicant for the certificate may appeal to the Registrar-General in manner provided by regulations made under this Act.

(c) The caveat shall cease to operate—

(i) if withdrawn by the persons entering it; or

(ii) if it is decided by the registrar or officer or by the Registrar-General on appeal that it ought not to obstruct the giving of the certificate.

PART II.

PROVISIONS APPLICABLE IN SCOTLAND.

A.—Conditions.

1. The applicant shall give a notice to the registrar of the parish or district in which he shall have resided for a period of not less than fifteen clear days previous to the giving thereof. Such notice shall be in the form as nearly as may be set forth in Schedule A to the Marriage Notice (Scotland) Act, 1878,* but shall state, in addition to the particulars therein set out, the nationality of the parties to the intended marriage.

2. On the receipt of a notice of an intended marriage the registrar, being satisfied that the notice is conformable to the requirements of this Act, shall forthwith enter the particulars set forth in the notice in the Marriage Notice Book kept in terms of the Marriage Notice (Scotland) Act, 1878, and shall on the same day post or put up in a conspicuous and accessible place on the door or outer wall of his office a public notice of the intended marriage, in the form as nearly as may be set forth in the Schedule B. annexed to the said last-mentioned Act, but stating, in addition to the particulars therein set out, the nationality of the parties to the intended marriage, and shall keep the same so posted or put up for seven consecutive days thereafter.

B.—Provisions as to Objections.

3. (a) Any person may enter with the registrar an objection against the granting of the certificate signed by him or on his behalf, and stating his residence and the grounds of his objection.

(b) The registrar shall refer any objection to the Registrar-General, who shall decide whether it ought to obstruct the granting of the certificate or not, and shall instruct the registrar accordingly, and the instructions so given shall be carried out by the registrar.

(c) The objection shall cease to operate—

(i) if withdrawn by the person entering it; or

(ii) if it is decided by the Registrar-General that it ought not to obstruct the granting of the certificate.

(3.)—FOREIGN MARRIAGES ORDER IN COUNCIL, 1913.

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 22nd day of November, 1913.

PRESENT:

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Foreign Marriage Act, 1892,"† His Majesty the King in Council is authorized to make regulations for the purposes therein specified.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers conferred by the said Act or otherwise enabling him in this behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1.—(1) Where a marriage according to the local law of a foreign country is valid by English law, then before the marriage is solemnized in that country under the Foreign Marriage Act the marriage officer must be satisfied either—

(a) That both the parties are British subjects; or

(b) If only one of the parties is a British subject, that the other is not a subject or citizen of the country; or

(c) If one of the parties is a British subject and the other a subject or citizen of the country, that sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage in the foreign country in accordance with the law of that country; or

(d) If the man about to be married is a British subject and the woman a subject or citizen of the country, that no objection will be taken by the authorities of the country to the solemnization of the marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act.

(2) If a marriage officer, by reason of anything in this article, refuses to solemnize or allow to be solemnized in his presence the marriage of any person requiring such marriage to be solemnized, that person shall have the same right of appeal to a Secretary of State as is given by section 5 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

2. In the case of any marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act, if it appears to the marriage officer that the woman about to be married is a British subject, and that the man is a foreigner, he must be satisfied—

- (a) That the marriage will be recognized by the law of the country to which the foreigner belongs; or
- (b) That some other marriage ceremony, in addition to that under the Foreign Marriage Act, has taken place, or is about to take place, between the parties, and that such other ceremony is recognised by the law of the country to which the foreigner belongs; or
- (c) That the leave of the Secretary of State has been obtained.

3. For the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act and these Regulations, the house in which a British Ambassador resides in the foreign country to the Government of which he is accredited, or which is occupied by him in that country for the purposes of his embassy, shall be deemed to be the official house of such Ambassador, and is in these Regulations referred to as the embassy house, and every place within the precincts or curtilage of any such house, and any church or chapel annexed to such house, or for the time being used with the consent of the Government to which the Ambassador is accredited as the chapel thereof, shall be deemed to form part of the embassy house.

For the purpose of marriages in an embassy house, the expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such part of the embassy house as the Ambassador may from time to time appoint as being sufficiently accessible to the public.

4. The person before and by whom a marriage under the Foreign Marriage Act may be solemnized and registered in an embassy house in a foreign country shall either be the Ambassador or any member of the diplomatic service not below the rank of secretary, who is attached to the embassy, and who is from time to time appointed for the purpose in writing by the Ambassador; and for the purpose of marriages solemnized in such embassy house, such Ambassador or member of the diplomatic service shall, without any marriage warrant, be a marriage officer.

5. Where a marriage can be solemnized at a British consulate in a foreign country, the leave of the Ambassador shall be obtained before the marriage is solemnized in the embassy house in that country.

6. For the purpose of marriages to be solemnized by or before a consular officer who is a marriage officer, every place within the curtilage or precincts of the house in which such officer is for the time being resident, or of the building which is for the time being used for the purpose of his office, shall be part of the official house of such marriage officer, and every place residence and notice have been complied with, or where the permission of the Secretary of State has been given, the marriage may be solemnized under the said Act in the official house of a marriage officer.

8. Where one party only has resided for a period of not less than one week within the district of the to which the public have ordinary access in such official house shall be deemed to be part of the office of such marriage officer.

7.—(1) The modifications contained in articles 8 to 17 of these Regulations of the requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice shall have effect in cases where both parties have not dwelt within the district of the marriage officer by or before whom the intended marriage is to be solemnized.

(2) Where the provisions of these Regulations as to marriage officer by or before whom the intended marriage is to be solemnized, notice shall be given by that party to such marriage officer. The notice shall state the particulars and be in the form given in Form No. 1 of the Schedule to this Order.

9. If the non-resident party has dwelt in a place in the United Kingdom, notice shall be given by that party in like manner and on payment of the like fee as if that party were about to be married in that place, and in England or Ireland shall be given to the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar, and in Scotland shall be given by proclamation of banns; and the Superintendent Registrar or Registrar shall deal with the notice and give a certificate for marriage in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district; and the Session Clerk of the parish in which the banns were proclaimed in Scotland shall, in like manner and on payment of the like fee as in the case of a marriage in his district, give a certificate of proclamation of such banns.

10. If the non-resident party has dwelt in any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the British Islands, notice shall be given by that party—

- (a) In accordance with any law of that part of His Majesty's dominions, or, in the case of India, of the Governor-General of India in Council, as the case may be, giving effect to these Regulations, or to any repealed or future Order in Council under the Foreign Marriage Act; or

- (b) In like manner as if the party were about to be married in that place; and a certificate by a marriage registrar or other like officer of the giving of such notice shall be obtained by such party, subject always to the law in force permitting of such notice being given and to the said officer being empowered to issue such certificate.

11. A law enacted by the Governor-General of India in Council or by the Parliament or Legislature of any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the British Islands other than British India shall be deemed to give effect to these Regulations or to any repealed or future Order in Council under the Foreign Marriage Act if it makes provision (in whatever terms expressed) as follows:—

- (1) That a notice of a marriage intended to be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act may be given by one of the parties intending such marriage who has had his or her usual place of abode for a period of not less than one week immediately preceding in some place in India or in such part of His Majesty's dominions (as the case may be) to such marriage registrar or other officer as may be designated by the law in this behalf;
- (2) That such notice shall be published either by proclamation of banns or in such other manner as the law may provide; and
- (3) That such marriage registrar or other officer, unless he is aware of any impediment or objection which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage, shall, on payment of such fee, if any, as the law may provide, give a certificate that the said notice has been so given and published as aforesaid.

12. If the non-resident party has dwelt in the district of a marriage officer in a foreign country, notice shall be given by that party and entered and posted up by the marriage officer in the manner and during the period provided by the Foreign Marriage Act, in like manner as if the marriage were to be solemnized by or before such marriage officer, and such marriage officer shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a certificate that the notice has been so given and posted up, and that he is unaware of any impediment which should obstruct the solemnization of the marriage.

13. If the place in a foreign country at which the non-resident party has dwelt is not within the district of a marriage officer, the notice to be given by that party may be given to any person authorized by the Secretary of State to receive such notices; and such person may receive, enter, and post up such notice and give a certificate that the notice has been so given and posted up, and that he is unaware of any impediment, as if he were a marriage officer.

14. Where neither party has resided for a period of not less than one week within the district of the marriage officer by or before whom the intended marriage is to be solemnized, and (a) the marriage cannot conveniently be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act at the place where either of the parties has had his or her usual place of abode, or (b) the permission of the Secretary of State has been obtained, notice shall be given by each of the parties in the place where he or she has had his or her usual place of abode for a period of not less than one week immediately preceding the giving of such notice in the manner provided by articles 9-13 of these Regulations, and a certificate of the giving of such notice shall be obtained, and one of the parties shall give or transmit to the marriage officer by or before whom the marriage is to be solemnized a notice stating the particulars and in the form given in Form No. 1 of the Schedule to these Regulations, and the marriage officer, if satisfied that the marriage cannot conveniently be solemnized under the Foreign Marriage Act at the place where either of the parties has had his or her usual place of abode or that the permission of the Secretary of State has been obtained, may accept the notice as if both parties had been resident within his district.

15. Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that for some good cause a party to an intended marriage has not been able to comply with the requirements of these Regulations as to notice, and is satisfied that the intended marriage is not clandestine, and that adequate notice has been given, he may give permission for the intended marriage to be solemnized.

16. In cases falling under articles 8 to 15 of these Regulations the oath, affirmation, or declaration under section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act shall, in addition to the matters specified in sub-sections (a) and (c) of that section state the place where each of the parties has had his or her usual place of abode, and the notice, if any, which has been given in that place or to the marriage officer.

17. At or before the time when a non-resident party appears before the marriage officer and makes the oath under section 7 of the Foreign Marriage Act, he or she shall, unless the marriage is solemnized with the permission of the Secretary of State, give or transmit to the marriage officer the certificate that the notice prescribed by these Regulations has been given at the place where such party has had his or her usual place of abode.

18.—(1) A marriage solemnized in accordance with the local law of a foreign country shall not be registered under section 18 of the Foreign Marriage Act, except by a consular officer, who is a marriage officer or is for the time being authorized by the Secretary of State to register such marriages.

(2) A consular officer shall not be required to satisfy himself by personal attendance that a marriage has been duly solemnized in accordance with the local law unless the marriage is solemnized at the place where he is appointed to reside, or unless the proper fee has been previously paid to him.

(3) The consular officer shall forthwith, after he has by personal attendance satisfied himself as to the solemnization of the marriage, register the marriage in duplicate in books furnished to him for the purpose by the Registrar-General through a Secretary of State separate from any register books provided for marriages solemnized by him and shall register the same in accordance with section 9 of the Foreign Marriage Act, save that if the person by whom the marriage has been solemnized declines to sign the same, the consular officer shall enter the name of that person, and the fact that he declines to sign the same.

(4) The consular officer shall transmit copies and the certificate and the book when filled in manner provided by section 10 of the Foreign Marriage Act.

19.—(1) A Secretary of State, by a written authority under section 11 of the Foreign Marriage Act, may authorize a person to act in the place of a High Commissioner or Resident mentioned in that section, outside of His Majesty's dominions.

(2) If a Secretary of State gives such authority, or, in pursuance of the said section, authorizes any High Commissioner, Resident, or other officer outside His Majesty's dominions, not being an Ambassador or a consular officer, to be marriage officer, then, for the purpose of marriages solemnized and registered by or before any High Commissioner, Resident, or officer, or person so authorized, expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

- (a) Expressions referring to the district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to the district for which such High Commissioner, Resident, officer, or person is authorized to act for the purpose of the Foreign Marriage Act;
- (b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the building or part of a building or place specified in the document by which he is authorized to act;
- (c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place at which any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to such portion of the building, part, or place so specified as is ordinarily accessible to the public.

20.—(1) Marriages, under the Foreign Marriage Act, on board one of His Majesty's vessels may be solemnized by or before a commanding officer of such rank and of such vessel as is for the time being authorized for that purpose by or in pursuance of any Admiralty instructions; and for the purpose of any such marriages a commanding officer so authorized shall, without any written warrant, be a marriage officer, and for the purpose of such marriages expressions in the Foreign Marriage Act shall be construed as follows:—

- (a) Expressions referring to a district of a marriage officer shall be construed to refer to such parts of the foreign station to which the commanding officer is attached as may be specified in that behalf by Admiralty instructions.
- (b) The expression "official house of a marriage officer" shall be construed to refer to the vessel of the said commanding officer.

- (c) The expression "office," when used with respect to the place where any act or thing shall or may be done, shall be construed to refer to the part of the ship on which public notices are affixed.

(2) The commanding officer, before he solemnizes a marriage, shall be satisfied that, at the port or place where the marriage is solemnized, sufficient facilities do not exist for the solemnization of the marriage on land, either in accordance with the local law of the country or in accordance with the Foreign Marriage Act.

(3) The requirements of the Foreign Marriage Act as to residence and notice shall be modified as follows, namely, not less than three weeks' notice of the intended marriage must have been given in such public manner, or to such relatives or friends of the parties, as satisfies the commanding officer that as much notice of the intended marriage has been given as would be given if the marriage took place in England, and that the marriage is not clandestine.

21. The forms in the Schedule to this Order, or forms to the like effect, shall be used in all cases to which they are applicable.

22. In these Regulations the expression "Ambassador" includes Minister and chargé d'affaires; "embassy" includes legation; "consular officer" includes a consul general, consul, vice-consul, pro-consul, consular agent, and any person for the time being authorized to discharge the duties of consul-general, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent; "British Islands," "British India," and "India" have the same respective meanings as are given to the expressions by section 18 of the Interpretation Act, 1889.

Other expressions have the same meaning as in the Foreign Marriage Act.

23. This Order shall come into operation on the 23rd day of March, 1914, and from and after that day "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1892," "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1895," and "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1903," are repealed.*

Provided that (a) any notice of an intended marriage, any caveat, any consent, or any permission of the Secretary of State, given under one of the above Orders shall be deemed to be good under these Regulations; (b) any proceedings taken with reference to a marriage, any register book kept, and any warrant or authority issued in pursuance of any of the above Orders shall have effect as if taken, kept, or issued under those Regulations.

24. This Order may be cited as "The Foreign Marriages Order in Council, 1913."

And the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Baronet, K.G., M.P., the Right Honourable Lewis Harcourt, M.P., and the Most Noble the Marquess of Crewe, K.G., three of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

BRITISH NATIONALITY AND STATUS OF ALIENS ACT.

(1).—An Act to consolidate and amend the Enactments relating to British Nationality and the Status of Aliens.

4 & 5 Geo. V., c. 17—August 7, 1914.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

PART I.

NATURAL-BORN BRITISH SUBJECTS.

Definition of natural-born British subjects.

1.—(1) The following persons shall be deemed to be natural-born British subjects, namely:—

- (a) Any person born within His Majesty's dominions and allegiance; and
- (b) Any person born out of His Majesty's dominions, whose father was a British subject at the time of that person's birth and either was born within His Majesty's allegiance or was a person to whom a certificate of naturalization had been granted: and
- (c) Any person born on board a British ship whether in foreign territorial waters or not:

Provided that the child of a British subject, whether that child was born before or after the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to have been born within His Majesty's allegiance if born in a place where by treaty, capitulation, grant, usage, suzerainty, or other lawful means, His Majesty exercises jurisdiction over British subjects.

(2) A person born on board a foreign ship shall not be deemed to be a British subject by reason only that the ship was in British territorial waters at the time of his birth.

(3) Nothing in this section shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, affect the status of any person born before the commencement of this Act.

PART II.

NATURALIZATION OF ALIENS.

Certificate of Naturalization.

2.—(1) The Secretary of State may grant a certificate of naturalization to an alien who makes an application for the purpose, and satisfies the Secretary of State—

- (a) that he has either resided in His Majesty's dominions for a period of not less than five years in the manner required by this section, or been in the service of the Crown for not less than five years within the last eight years before the application; and
- (b) that he is of good character and has an adequate knowledge of the English language: and
- (c) that he intends if his application is granted either to reside in His Majesty's dominions or to enter or continue in the service of the Crown.

(2) The residence required by this section is residence in the United Kingdom for not less than one year immediately preceding the application, and previous residence, either in the United Kingdom or in some other part of His Majesty's dominions for a period of four years within the last eight years before the application.

(3) The grant of a certificate of naturalization to any such alien shall be in the absolute discretion of the Secretary of State, and he may, with or without assigning any reason, give or withhold the certificate as he thinks most conducive to the public good, and no appeal shall lie from his decision.

(4) A certificate of naturalization shall not take effect until the applicant has taken the oath of allegiance.

(5) In the case of a woman who was a British subject previously to her marriage to an alien, and whose husband has died or whose marriage has been dissolved, the requirements of this section as to residence shall not apply and the Secretary of State may in any other special case, if he thinks fit grant a certificate of naturalization, although the four years' residence or five years' service has not been within the last eight years before the application.

Effect of Certificate of Naturalization.

3.—(1) A person to whom a certificate of naturalization is granted by a Secretary of State shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be entitled to all political and other rights, powers and privileges, and be subject to all obligations, duties and liabilities, to which a natural-born British subject is entitled or subject, and, as from the date of his naturalization, have to all intents and purposes the status of a natural-born British subject.

12 & 13 Will. 3 c. 2.

(2) Section three of the Act of Settlement (which disqualifies naturalized aliens from holding certain offices) shall have effect as if the words "naturalized or" were omitted therefrom.

Special Certificate in case of doubt.

4. The Secretary of State may in his absolute discretion, in such cases as he thinks fit, grant a special certificate of naturalization to any person with respect to whose nationality as a British subject a doubt exists, and he may specify in the certificate that the grant thereof is made for the purpose of quieting doubts as to the right of the person to be a British subject, and the grant of such a special certificate shall not be deemed to be any admission that the person to whom it was granted was not previously a British subject.

Persons under disability.

5.—(1) Where an alien obtains a certificate of naturalization, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, on the application of that alien, include in the certificate the name of any child of the alien born before the date of the certificate and being a minor, and that child shall thereupon, if not already a British subject, become a British subject; but any such child may, within one year after attaining his majority, make a declaration of alienage, and shall thereupon cease to be a British subject.

(2) The Secretary of State may, in his absolute discretion in any special case in which he thinks fit, grant a certificate of naturalization to any minor, although the conditions required by this Act have not been complied with.

(3) Except as provided by this section, a certificate of naturalization shall not be granted to any person under disability.

Persons previously Naturalized.

6. An alien who has been naturalized before the passing of this Act may apply to the Secretary of State for a certificate of naturalization under this Act, and the Secretary of State may grant to him a certificate on such terms and conditions as he may think fit.

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

7.—(1) Where it appears to the Secretary of State that a certificate of naturalization granted by him has been obtained by false representations or fraud, the Secretary of State may by order revoke the certificate, and the order of revocation shall have effect from such date as the Secretary of State may direct.

(2) Where the Secretary of State revokes a certificate of naturalization, he may order the certificate to be given up and cancelled, and any person refusing or neglecting to give up the certificate shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Power of Governments of British Possessions to grant Certificates of Imperial Naturalization.

8.—(1) The Government of any British possession shall have the same power to grant a certificate of naturalization as the Secretary of State has under this Act, and the provisions of this Act as to the grant and revocation of such a certificate shall apply accordingly, with the substitution of the Government of the Possession for the Secretary of State, and the Possession for the United Kingdom, and also, in a Possession where any language is recognised as on an equality with the English language, with the substitution of the English language or that language for the English language:

Provided that, in any British possession other than British India and a Dominion specified in the First Schedule to this Act, the powers of the Government of the Possession under this section shall be exercised by the Governor or a person acting under his authority, but shall be subject in each case to the approval of the Secretary of State, and any certificate proposed to be granted shall be submitted to him for his approval.

(2) Any certificate of naturalization granted under this section shall have the same effect as a certificate of naturalization granted by the Secretary of State under this Act.

Application of Part II to Self-Governing Dominions.

9.—(1) This Part of this Act shall not, nor shall any certificate of naturalization granted thereunder, have effect within any of the Dominions specified in the First Schedule to this Act, unless the Legislature of that Dominion adopts this Part of this Act.

(2) Where the Legislature of any such Dominion has adopted this Part of this Act, the Government of the Dominion shall have the like powers to make regulations with respect to certificates of naturalization and to oaths of allegiance as are conferred by this Act on the Secretary of State.

(3) The Legislature of any such Dominion which adopts this Part of this Act may provide how and by what Department of the Government the powers conferred by this Part of this Act on the Government of a British Possession are to be exercised.

(4) The Legislature of any such Dominion may at any time rescind the adoption of this Part of this Act, provided that no such rescission shall prejudicially affect any legal rights existing at the time of such rescission.

PART III.—GENERAL.

NATIONAL STATUS OF MARRIED WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

National Status of Married Women.

10. The wife of a British subject shall be deemed to be a British subject, and the wife of an alien shall be deemed to be an alien: Provided that where a man ceases during the continuance of his marriage to be a British subject it shall be lawful for his wife to make a declaration that she desires to retain British nationality, and thereupon she shall be deemed to remain a British subject.

Status of Widows.

11. A woman who, having been a British subject, has by, or in consequence of, her marriage become an alien, shall not, by reason only of the death of her husband, or the dissolution of her marriage, cease to be an alien, and a woman who, having been an alien, has by, or in consequence of, her marriage become a British subject, shall not, by reason only of the death of her husband or the dissolution of her marriage, cease to be a British subject.

Status of Children.

12.—(1) Where a person being a British subject ceases to be a British subject, whether by declaration of alienage or otherwise, every child of that person, being a minor, shall thereupon cease to be a British subject, unless such child, on that person ceasing to be a British subject, does not become by the law of any other country naturalized in that country:

Provided that, where a widow who is a British subject marries an alien, any child of hers by her former husband shall not, by reason only of her marriage, cease to be a British subject, whether he is residing outside His Majesty's dominions or not.

(2) Any child who has so ceased to be a British subject may, within one year after attaining his majority, make a declaration that he wishes to resume British nationality, and shall thereupon again become a British subject.

LOSS OF BRITISH NATIONALITY.

Loss of British Nationality by Foreign Naturalization.

13. A British subject who, when in any foreign state and not under disability, by obtaining a certificate of naturalization, or by any other voluntary and formal act, becomes naturalized therein, shall thenceforth be deemed to have ceased to be a British subject.

Declaration of Alienage.

14.—(1) Any person who by reason of his having been born within His Majesty's dominions and allegiance or on board a British ship is a natural-born British subject, but who at his birth or during his minority became under the law of any foreign state a subject also of that state, and is still such a subject, may, if of full age and not under disability, make a declaration of alienage, and on making the declaration shall cease to be a British subject.

(2) Any person who though born out of His Majesty's dominions is a natural-born British subject may, if of full age and not under disability, make a declaration of alienage, and on making the declaration shall cease to be a British subject.

Power of Naturalized Subjects to divest themselves of their Status in Certain Cases.

15. Where His Majesty has entered into a convention with any foreign state to the effect that the subjects or citizens of that state to whom certificates of naturalization have been granted may divest themselves of their status as such subjects, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to declare that the convention has been entered into by His Majesty; and from and after the date of the Order any person having been originally a subject or citizen of the state therein referred to, who has been naturalized as a British subject, may, within the limit of time provided in the convention, make a declaration of alienage, and on his making the declaration he shall be regarded as an alien and as a subject of the state to which he originally belonged as aforesaid.

Saving of Obligations incurred before Loss of Nationality.

16. Where any British subject ceases to be a British subject, he shall not thereby be discharged from any obligation, duty or liability in respect of any act done before he ceased to be a British subject.

STATUS OF ALIENS.

Capacity of Alien as to Property.

17. Real and personal property of every description may be taken, acquired, held and disposed of by an alien in the same manner in all respects as by a natural-born British subject; and a title to real and personal property of every description may be derived through, from or in succession to an alien in the same manner in all respects as through, from or in succession to a natural-born British subject:

Provided that this section shall not operate so as to—

- (1) Confer any right on an alien to hold real property situate out of the United Kingdom; or
- (2) Qualify an alien for any office or for any municipal, parliamentary, or other franchise; or

- (3) Qualify an alien to be the owner of a British ship; or
- (4) Entitle an alien to any right or privilege as a British subject, except such rights and privileges in respect of property as are hereby expressly given to him; or
- (5) Affect any estate or interest in real or personal property to which any person has or may become entitled, either mediately or immediately, in possession or expectancy, in pursuance of any disposition made before the twelfth day of May eighteen hundred and seventy, or in pursuance of any devolution by law on the death of any person dying before that day.

Trial of Alien.

18. An alien shall be triable in the same manner as if he were a natural-born British subject.

PROCEDURE AND EVIDENCE.

Regulations by Secretary of State.

19.—(1) The Secretary of State may make regulations generally for carrying into effect the objects of this Act, and in particular with respect to the following matters:—

- (a) The form and registration of certificates of naturalization granted by the Secretary of State;
- (b) The form and registration of declarations of alienage and declarations of resumption or retention of British nationality;
- (c) The registration by officers in the diplomatic or consular service of His Majesty of the births and deaths of British subjects born or dying out of His Majesty's dominions;
- (d) The time within which the oath of allegiance is to be taken after the grant of a certificate of naturalization;
- (e) The persons by whom the oath of allegiance may be administered, and the persons before whom declarations of alienage and declarations of resumption of British nationality may be made;
- (f) Whether or not oaths of allegiance are to be subscribed as well as taken, and the form in which the taking and subscription are to be attested;
- (g) The registration of oaths of allegiance;
- (h) The persons by whom certified copies of oaths of allegiance may be given; and the proof in any legal proceeding of any such oaths;
- (i) The transmission to the United Kingdom, for the purpose of registration or safe keeping or of being produced as evidence, of any declarations, certificates or oaths, made, granted or taken out of the United Kingdom in pursuance of this Act or of any Act hereby repealed, or of any copies thereof, also of copies of entries contained in any register kept out of the United Kingdom in pursuance of this Act or any Act hereby repealed;

† NOTE.—Regulations under this Section have been issued by the Home Office.

- (j) With the consent of the Treasury, the imposition and application of fees in respect of any registration authorised to be made by this Act or any Act hereby repealed, and in respect of the making of any declaration or the grant of any certificate authorised to be made or granted by this Act or any Act hereby repealed, and in respect of the administration or registration of any oath: Provided that in the case of a woman who was a British subject previously to her marriage to an alien, and whose husband has died or whose marriage has been dissolved, the fee for the grant of a certificate shall not exceed five shillings.

(2) Any regulation made by the Secretary of State in pursuance of this Act shall be of the same force as if it had been enacted therein, but shall not, so far as respects the imposition of fees, be in force in any British Possession, and shall not, so far as respects any other matter, be in force in any British Possession in which any Act or ordinance, or, in the case of a Dominion specified in the First Schedule to this Act, any regulation made by the Government of the Dominion under Part II of this Act, to the contrary of, or inconsistent with, any such regulation may for the time being be in force.

(3) Any regulations made by the Secretary of State under any Act hereby repealed shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made under this Act.

Evidence of Declarations.

20. Any declaration made under this Act or under any Act hereby repealed may be proved in any legal proceeding by the production of the original declaration or of any copy thereof certified to be a true copy by the Secretary of State, or by any person authorised by him in that behalf, and the production of the declaration or copy shall be evidence of the person therein named as declarant having made the declaration at the date therein mentioned.

Evidence of Certificates of Naturalization.

21. A certificate of naturalization may be proved in any legal proceeding by the production of the original certificate or of any copy thereof certified to be a true copy by the Secretary of State or by any person authorised by him in that behalf.

Evidence of Entries in Registers.

22. Entries in any register made in pursuance of this Act or under any Act hereby repealed may be proved by such copies and certified in such manner as may be directed by the Secretary of State, and the copies of any such entries shall be evidence of any matters, by this Act or by any Act hereby repealed or by any regulation of the Secretary of State, authorised to be inserted in the register.

Penalty for False Representation or Statement.

23. If any person for any of the purposes of this Act knowingly makes any false representation or any statement false in a material particular, he shall, in the United Kingdom, be liable on summary conviction in respect of each offence to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding three months.

Form of Oath of Allegiance.

24. The oath of allegiance shall be in the form set out in the Second Schedule to this Act.

SUPPLEMENTAL.

Saving for Letters of Denization.

25. Nothing in this Act shall affect the grant of letters of denization by His Majesty.

Saving for Powers of Legislatures and Governments of British Possessions.

26.—(1) Nothing in this Act shall take away or abridge any power vested in, or exercisable by, the Legislature or Government of any British Possession, or affect the operation of any law at present in force which has been passed in exercise of such a power, or prevent any such Legislature or Government from treating differently different classes of British subjects.

(2) All laws, statutes and ordinances made by the Legislature of a British Possession for imparting to any person any of the privileges of naturalization to be enjoyed by him within the limits of that Possession shall, within those limits, have the authority of law.

(3) Where any parts of His Majesty's Dominions are under both a central and a local legislature, the expression "British Possession" shall, for the purposes of this section, include both all parts under the central legislature and each part under a local legislature; Provided that nothing in this provision shall be construed as validating any law, statute or ordinance with respect to naturalization made by any such local legislature in any case where the central legislature possesses exclusive legislative authority with respect to naturalization.

Definitions.

27.—(1) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:—

The expression "British subject" means a person who is a natural-born British subject, or a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted:

(2).—An Act to amend the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914.

8 & 9 Geo. 5, c. 38.—August 8, 1918.

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Substitution of Provisions for section 7 of the principal Act, 4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 17.

1. The following section shall be substituted for section seven of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act"), which relates to the revocation of certificates of naturalization:—

Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

"7.—(1) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that a certificate of naturalization granted by him has been obtained by false representation or fraud, or by concealment of material circumstances, or that the person to whom the certificate is granted has shown himself by act or speech to be disaffected or disloyal to His Majesty, the Secretary of State shall by order revoke the certificate.

"(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions the Secretary of State shall by order revoke a certificate of naturalization granted by him in any case in which he is satisfied that the person to whom the certificate was granted either—

- (a) has during any war in which His Majesty is engaged unlawfully traded or communicated with the enemy or with the subject of an enemy state, or been engaged in or associated with any business which is to his knowledge carried on in such manner as to assist the enemy in such war; or
- (b) has within five years of the date of the grant of the certificate been sentenced by any court in His Majesty's dominions to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months, or to a term of penal servitude, or to a fine of not less than one hundred pounds; or
- (c) was not of good character at the date of the grant of the certificate; or
- (d) has since the date of the grant of the certificate been for a period of not less than seven years ordinarily resident out of His Majesty's dominions otherwise than as a representative of a British subject, firm, or company carrying on business, or an institution established, in His Majesty's dominions, or in the service of the Crown, and has not maintained substantial connection with His Majesty's dominions; or
- (e) remains according to the law of a state at war with His Majesty a subject of that state; and that (in any case) the continuance of the certificate is not conducive to the public good.

"(3) The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, before making an order under this section refer the case for such inquiry as is hereinafter specified, and in any case to which subsection (1) or paragraph (a), (c), or (e) of subsection (2) of this section applies, the Secretary of State shall, by notice given to or sent to the last-known address of the holder of the certificate, give him an opportunity of claiming that the case be referred for such inquiry, and if the holder so claims in accordance with the notice the Secretary of State shall refer the case for inquiry accordingly.

"(4) An inquiry under this section shall be held by a committee constituted for the purpose by the Secretary of State, presided over by a person (appointed by the Secretary of State with the approval of the Lord Chancellor) who holds or has held high judicial office, and shall be conducted in such manner as the Secretary of State may direct :

"Provided that any such inquiry may, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, instead of being held as aforesaid be held by the High Court, and the practice and procedure on any inquiry so held shall be regulated by rules of court.

"A Committee appointed under this section shall have all such powers, rights, and privileges as are vested in the High Court or in any judge thereof on the occasion of any action, in respect of the following matters :—

(a) the enforcing the attendance of witnesses and examining them on oath, affirmation, or otherwise, and the issue of a commission or a request to examine witnesses abroad; and

(b) the compelling the production of documents; and

(c) the punishing persons guilty of contempt; and a summons signed by one or more members of the committee may be substituted for and shall be equivalent to any formal process capable of being issued in any action for enforcing the attendance of witnesses and compelling the production of documents.

"(5) Where a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted in some other part of His Majesty's dominions is resident in the United Kingdom, the certificate may be revoked in accordance with this section by the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of the Government of that part of His Majesty's dominions in which the certificate was granted.

"(6) Where the Secretary of State revokes a certificate of naturalization, the revocation shall have effect from such date as the Secretary of State may direct, and thereupon the certificate shall be given up and cancelled, and any person refusing or neglecting to give up his certificate shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Effect of Revocation of Certificate of Naturalization.

"7A.—(1) Where a certificate of naturalization is revoked the Secretary of State may by order direct that the wife and minor children (or any of them) of the person whose certificate is revoked shall cease to be British subjects, and any such person shall thereupon become an alien; but except where the Secretary of State directs as aforesaid, the nationality of the wife and minor children of the person whose certificate is revoked shall not be affected by the revocation, and they shall remain British subjects :

"Provided that—

"(a) it shall be lawful for the wife of any such person within six months after the date of the order of revocation to make a declaration of alienage, and thereupon she and any minor children of her husband and herself shall cease to be British subjects and shall become aliens ; and

"(b) the Secretary of State shall not make any such order as aforesaid in the case of a wife who was at birth a British subject, unless he is satisfied that if she had held a certificate of naturalization in her own right the certificate could properly have been revoked under this Act, and the provisions of this Act as to referring cases for inquiry shall apply to the making of any such order as they apply to the revocation of a certificate.

"(2) The provisions of this section shall, as respects persons affected thereby, have effect in substitution for any other provisions of this Act as to the effect upon the wife and children of any person where the person ceases to be a British subject and such other provisions shall accordingly not apply in any such case.

"(3) Where a certificate of naturalization is revoked, the former holder thereof shall be regarded as an alien and as a subject of the state to which he belonged at the time the certificate was granted."

Minor Amendments of the principal Act.

2. The following amendments shall be made in the principal Act :—

(1) In paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section one (which defines natural-born British subjects) after the words "had been granted" there shall be inserted the words "or had become a British subject by reason of any annexation of territory, or was at the time of that person's birth in the service of the Crown"; and at the end of that section the following subsection shall be inserted :

"(4) The certificate of a Secretary of State that a person was at any date in the service of the Crown shall, for the purposes of this section, be conclusive."

(2) At the end of section two (which relates to the grant of certificates of naturalization) the following subsection shall be inserted :—

"(6) For the purposes of this section a period spent in the service of the Crown may, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, be treated as equivalent to a period of residence in the United Kingdom."

(3) In subsection (2) of section five "whether or not" shall be substituted for "although" and "not" shall be omitted, and in subsection (3) of section five "Act" shall be substituted for "section."

(4) In subsection (1) of section eight (which relates to the grant of certificates of naturalization in British possessions) after the words "United Kingdom" there shall be inserted the words "and of a High Court or superior court of the possession for the High Court, and with the omission of any reference to the approval of the Lord Chancellor," and after the words "any certificate proposed to be granted" there shall be inserted the words "and any proposal to revoke any certificate."

(5) In section ten (which relates to the national status of married women) at the end of the section there shall be added the words "and provided that where an alien is a subject of a state at war with His Majesty it shall be lawful for his wife if she was at birth a British subject to make a declaration that she desires to resume British nationality, and thereupon the Secretary of State, if he is satisfied that it is desirable that she be permitted to do so, may grant her a certificate of naturalization."

(5) In subsection (1) of section twenty-seven (which contains definitions) at the end of the definition of "British subject" after the words "has been granted" there shall be inserted the words "or a person who has become a subject of His Majesty by reason of any annexation of territory," and for subsection (2) of that section the following subsection shall be substituted:—

"(2) Where in pursuance of this Act the name of a child is included in a certificate of naturalization granted to his parent, or where, in pursuance of any Act repealed by this Act, any child has been deemed to be a naturalized British subject by reason of residence with his parent, such child shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted."

Provisions as to Naturalization Certificate.

3.—(1) Where a certificate of naturalization has been granted in the United Kingdom during the present war to a person who at, or at any time before, the grant of the certificate was the subject of a country which at the date of the grant was at war with His Majesty, the Secretary of State shall refer for such inquiry as is provided for in the case of revocation of certificates the question whether it is desirable that the certificate should be revoked, and if such question shall be answered in the affirmative shall revoke the certificate but this provision shall not apply to a person who at birth was a British subject.

(2) No certificate of naturalization shall, before the expiration of a period of ten years after the termination of the present war, be granted in the United Kingdom to any subject of a country which at the time of the passing of this Act was at war with His Majesty, but this provision shall not apply to a person who—

- (a) has served in His Majesty's forces or in the forces of any of His Majesty's Allies or of any country acting in naval or military co-operation with His Majesty; or
- (b) is a member of a race or community known to be opposed to the enemy governments; or
- (c) was at birth a British subject.

Short Title and Printing.

4.—(1) This Act may be cited as the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1918, and the principal Act and this Act may be cited together as the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Acts, 1914 and 1918.

(2) Every enactment and word which is directed by this Act to be substituted for or added to any portion of the principal Act shall form part of that Act in the place assigned to it by this Act; and the principal Act, and any enactments referring thereto, shall after the commencement of this Act be construed as if that enactment or word had been originally enacted in the principal Act in the place so assigned, and, where it is substituted for another enactment or word, had been so enacted in lieu of that enactment or word, and the expression "this Act" in the principal Act or this Act shall be construed accordingly.

(3) A copy of the principal Act with every such enactment and word inserted in the place so assigned shall be prepared and certified by the Clerk of the Parliaments and deposited with the rolls of Parliament, and his Majesty's printer shall print in accordance with the copy so certified all copies of the principal Act which are printed after the commencement of this Act.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR AMENDING AND CONSOLIDATING ENACTMENTS RELATING TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS.

52 Vict., c. 10.—May 31, 1889.

1.—(1.) The Lord Chancellor may from time to time, by commission signed by him, appoint persons being practising solicitors, or other fit and proper persons, to be commissioners for oaths, and may revoke any such appointment.

(2.) A commissioner for oaths may, by virtue of his commission, in England or elsewhere, administer any oath or take any affidavit for the purposes of any court or matter in England, including any of the ecclesiastical courts or jurisdictions, matters ecclesiastical, matters relating to applications for notarial faculties, and matters relating to the registration of any instrument, whether under an Act of Parliament or otherwise, and take any bail or recognizance in or for the purpose of any civil proceeding in the Supreme Court, including all proceedings on the revenue side of the Queen's Bench Division.

(3.) Provided that a commissioner for oaths shall not exercise any of the powers given by this section in any proceeding in which he is solicitor to any of the parties to the proceeding, or clerk to any such solicitor, or in which he is interested.

2. Every person who, being an officer of or performing duties in relation to any court, is for the time being so authorized by a judge of the court, or by or in pursuance of any rules or orders regulating the procedure of the court, and every person directed to take an examination in any cause or matter in the Supreme Court, shall have authority to administer any oath or take any affidavit required for any purpose connected with his duties.

3.—(1.) Any oath or affidavit required for the purpose of any court or matter in England, or for the purpose of the registration of any instrument in any part of the United Kingdom, may be taken or made in any place out of England before any person having authority to administer an oath in that place.

(2.) In the case of a person having such authority otherwise than by the law of a foreign country, judicial and official notice shall be taken of his seal or signature affixed, impressed, or subscribed to or on any such oath or affidavit.

4. The Lord Chancellor may, whenever it appears to him necessary to do so, authorize any person to administer oaths and take affidavits for any purpose relating to prize proceedings in the Supreme Court, whilst that person is on the high seas or out of Her Majesty's dominions, and it shall not be necessary to affix any stamp to the document by which he is so authorized.

5. Every commissioner before whom any oath or affidavit is taken or made under this Act shall state truly in the jurat or attestation at what place and on what date the oath or affidavit is taken or made.

6.—(1.) Every British ambassador, envoy, minister, chargé d'affaires, and secretary of embassy or legation exercising his functions in any foreign country, and every British consul-general, consul, vice-consul, acting consul, pro-consul, and consular agent [acting consul-general, acting vice-consul, and acting consular agent]* exercising his functions in any foreign place may, in that country or place, administer any oath and take any affidavit, and also do any notarial act which any notary public can do within the United Kingdom; and every oath, affidavit, and notarial act administered, sworn, or done by or before any such person shall be as effectual as if duly administered, sworn, or done by or before any lawful authority in any part of the United Kingdom.

(2.) Any document purporting to have affixed, impressed, or subscribed thereon or thereto the seal and signature of any person authorized by this section to administer an oath in testimony of any oath, affidavit, or act being administered, taken, or done by or before him, shall be admitted in evidence without proof of the seal or signature being the seal or signature of that person, or of the official character of that person.

7. Whoever wilfully and corruptly swears falsely in any oath or affidavit taken or made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be guilty of perjury in every case where if he had so sworn in a judicial proceeding before a court of competent jurisdiction he would be guilty of perjury.

8. Whoever forges, counterfeits, or fraudulently alters the seal or signature of any person authorized by or under this Act to administer an oath, or tenders in evidence, or otherwise uses, any affidavit having any seal or signature so forged or counterfeited or fraudulently altered, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or fraudulently altered, shall be guilty of felony, and liable on conviction to penal servitude for any term not exceeding seven years and not less than five years, or to imprisonment with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two years.

9. Any offence under this Act, whether committed within or without Her Majesty's dominions, may be inquired of, dealt with, tried, and punished in any county or place in the United Kingdom in which the person charged with the offence was apprehended or is in custody, and for all purposes incidental to or consequential on the trial or punishment the offence shall be deemed to have been committed in that county or place.

10. Where any offence under this Act is alleged to have been committed with respect to any affidavit, a judge of any court before which the affidavit is produced may order the affidavit to be impounded and kept in such custody and for such time and on such conditions as he thinks fit.

11. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"Oath" includes affirmation and declaration;

"Affidavit" includes affirmation, statutory or other declaration, acknowledgment, examination, and attestation or protestation of honour;

"Swear" includes affirm, declare, and protest;

"Supreme Court" means the Supreme Court of Judicature in England.

* The words in brackets were inserted by Act 54 and 55 Vict., c. 50.—August 6, 1891.

12. The enactments specified in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent specified in that schedule.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

- (a) anything done or suffered under any enactment repealed by this Act; nor
- (b) any appointment made under or authority given by or in pursuance of any enactment so repealed; nor
- (c) any punishment incurred or to be incurred in respect of any offence committed before the commencement of this Act against any enactment so repealed; nor

(d) any legal proceeding for enforcing any such punishment; and any such legal proceeding may be instituted or continued, and any such punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed.

13. A commissioner authorized before the commencement of this Act to administer oaths in the Supreme Court shall be deemed to be a commissioner for oaths within the meaning of this Act.

14. This Act shall commence and come into operation on the first day of January, 1890.

15. This Act may be cited as the Commissioners for Oaths Act, 1889.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT TO PREVENT THE DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS AND INFORMATION.

1 & 2 Geo. V., c. 28.—August 22, 1911.

Penalties for Spying.

1.—(1.) If any person for any purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State—

- (a) approaches or is in the neighbourhood of, or enters any prohibited place within the meaning of this Act; or
- (b) makes any sketch, plan, model, or note which is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy; or
- (c) obtains or communicates to any other person any sketch, plan, model, article, or note, or other document or information which is calculated to be or might be or is intended to be directly or indirectly useful to an enemy;

he shall be guilty of felony, and shall be liable to penal servitude for any term not less than three years and not exceeding seven years.

(2.) On a prosecution under this section, it shall not be necessary to show that the accused person was guilty of any particular act tending to show a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State, and, notwithstanding that no such act is proved against him, he may be convicted if, from the circumstances of the case, or his conduct, or his known character as proved, it appears that his purpose was a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State; and if any sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information relating to or used in any prohibited place within the meaning of this Act, or anything in such a place, is made, obtained, or communicated by any person other than a person acting under lawful authority, it shall be deemed to have been made, obtained, or communicated for a purpose prejudicial to the safety or interests of the State unless the contrary is proved.

Wrongful Communication, &c., of Information.

2.—(1.) If any person having in his possession or control any sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information which relates to or is used in a prohibited place or anything in such a place, or which has been made or obtained in contravention of this Act, or which has been entrusted in confidence to him by any person holding office under His Majesty or which he has obtained owing to his position as a person who holds or has held office under His Majesty, or as a person who holds or has held a contract made on behalf of His Majesty, or as a person who is or has been employed under a person who holds or has held such an office or contract,—

- (a) communicates the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information to any person, other than a person to whom he is authorized to communicate it, or a person to whom it is in the interest of the State his duty to communicate it or
 - (b) retains the sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document in his possession or control when he has no right to retain it or when it is contrary to his duty to retain it;
- that person shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

(2.) If any person receives any sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information, knowing, or having reasonable ground to believe, at the time when he receives it that the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information is communicated to him in contravention of this Act, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, unless he proves that the communication to him of the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information was contrary to his desire.

(3.) A person guilty of a misdemeanour under this section shall be liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding two years, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

Definition of Prohibited Place.

3. For the purposes of this Act, the expression "prohibited place" means—

- (a) any work of defence, arsenal, factory, dockyard, camp, ship, telegraph or signal station, or office belonging to His Majesty, and any other place belonging to His Majesty, used for the purpose of building, repairing, making, or storing any ship, arms, or other materials or instruments of use in time of war, or any plans or documents relating thereto; and
- (b) any place not belonging to His Majesty where any ship, arms, or other materials or instruments of use in time of war, or any plans or documents relating thereto, are being made, repaired, or stored under contract with, or with any person on behalf of, His Majesty, or otherwise on behalf of His Majesty; and
- (c) any place belonging to His Majesty which is for the time being declared by a Secretary of State to be a prohibited place for the purposes of this section on the ground that information with respect thereto, or damage thereto, would be useful to an enemy; and
- (d) any railway, road, way, or channel, or other means of communication by land or water (including any works or structures being part thereof or connected therewith), or any place used for gas, water or electricity works, or other works for purposes of a public character, or any place where any ship, arms, or other materials or instruments of use in time of war, or any plans or documents relating thereto, are being made, repaired, or stored otherwise than on behalf of His Majesty, which is for the time being declared by a Secretary of State to be a prohibited place for the purposes of this section, on the ground that information with respect thereto, or the destruction or obstruction thereof, or interference therewith, would be useful to an enemy.

Attempts to commit offence, or incitement to commit offence, under Act.

4. Any person who attempts to commit any offence under this Act, or incites or counsels, or attempts to procure another person to commit an offence under this Act, shall be guilty of felony or of a misdemeanour according as the offence in question is felony or misdemeanour, and on conviction shall be liable to the same punishment, and to be proceeded against in the same manner, as if he had committed the offence.

Person charged with felony under Act may be convicted of misdemeanour under Act.

5. Any person charged with an offence which is a felony under this Act may, if the circumstances warrant such a finding, be found guilty of an offence which is a misdemeanour under this Act.

Power to Arrest.

6. Any person who is found committing an offence under this Act, whether that offence is a felony or not, or who is reasonably suspected of having committed, or having attempted to commit, or being about to commit, such an offence, may be apprehended and detained in the same manner as a person who is found committing a felony.

Penalty for Harboursing Spies.

7. If any person knowingly harbours any person whom he knows, or has reasonable grounds for supposing, to be a person who is about to commit or who has committed an offence under this Act, or knowingly permits to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control any such persons, or if any person having harboured any such person, or permitted to meet or assemble in any premises in his occupation or under his control any such persons, wilfully refuses to disclose to a superintendent of police any information which it is in his power to give in relation to any such person he shall be guilty of a misdemeanour and liable to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding one year, or to a fine, or to both imprisonment and a fine.

Restriction on Prosecution.

8. A prosecution for an offence under this Act shall not be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney-General:

Provided that a person charged with such an offence may be arrested, or a warrant for his arrest may be issued and executed, and any such person may be remanded in custody or on bail, notwithstanding that the consent of the Attorney-General to the institution of a prosecution for the offence has not been obtained, but no further or other proceedings shall be taken until that consent has been obtained.

Search Warrants.

9.—(1.) If a justice of the peace is satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed, he may grant a search warrant authorizing any constable named therein to enter at any time any premises or place named in the warrant, if necessary by force, and to search the premises or place and every person found therein, and to seize any sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document, or anything of a like nature or anything which is evidence of an offence under this Act having been or being about to be committed, which he may find on the premises or place or on any such person, and with regard to or in connexion with which he has reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under this Act has been or is about to be committed.

(2.) Where it appears to the superintendent of police that the case is one of great emergency, and that in the interest of the State immediate action is necessary, he may by a written order under his hand give to any constable the like authority as may be given by the warrant of a justice under this section.

Extent of Act and place of trial of offence.

10.—(1.) This Act shall apply to all acts which are offences under this Act when committed in any part of His Majesty's dominions, or when committed by British officers or subjects elsewhere.

(2.) An offence under this Act, if alleged to have been committed out of the United Kingdom, may be inquired of, heard, and determined in any competent British court in the place where the offence was committed, or in the High Court in England or the Central Criminal Court, and the Criminal Jurisdiction Act, 1802,* shall apply in like manner as if the offence were mentioned in that Act, and the Central Criminal Court as well as the High Court possessed the jurisdiction given by that Act to the Court of King's Bench.

(3.) An offence under this Act shall not be tried by any court of general or quarter sessions, nor by the sheriff court in Scotland, nor by any court out of the United Kingdom which has not jurisdiction to try crimes which involve the greatest punishment allowed by law.

(4.) The provisions of the Criminal Law and Procedure (Ireland) Act, 1887,† shall not apply to any trial under the provisions of this Act.

Saving for Laws of British Possessions.

11. If by any law made before or after the passing of this Act by the legislature of any British possession provisions are made which appear to His Majesty to be of the like effect as those contained in this Act, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, suspend the operation within that British possession of this Act, or of any part thereof, so long as that law continues in force there and no longer, and the Order shall have effect as if it were enacted in this Act:

Provided that the suspension of this Act, or of any part thereof, in any British possession shall not extend to the holder of an office under His Majesty who is not appointed to that office by the Government of that possession.

Interpretation.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

Any reference to a place belonging to His Majesty includes a place belonging to any department of the Government of the United Kingdom or of any British possessions, whether the place is or is not actually vested in His Majesty;

The expression "Attorney-General" means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for England; and as respects Scotland, means the Lord Advocate; and as respects Ireland, means the Attorney or Solicitor-General for Ireland; and, if the prosecution is instituted in any court out of the United Kingdom, means the person who in that court is Attorney-General, or exercises the like functions as the Attorney-General in England;

Expressions referring to communicating or receiving include any communicating or receiving, whether in whole or in part, and whether the sketch, plan, model, article, note, document, or information itself or the substance, effect, or description thereof only be communicated or received; expressions referring to obtaining or retaining any sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document, include the copying or causing to be copied the whole or any part of any sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document; and expressions referring to the communication of any sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document include the transfer or transmission of the sketch, plan, model, article, note, or document;

The expression "document" includes part of a document;

The expression "model" includes design, pattern, and specimen;

The expression "sketch" includes any photograph or other mode of representing any place or thing;

The expression "superintendent of police" includes any police officer of a like or superior rank;

The expression "office under His Majesty" includes any office or employment in or under any department of the Government of the United Kingdom, or of any British possession;

The expression "offence under this Act" includes any act, omission, or other thing which is punishable under this Act.

OUTFITS (Diplomatic). See pages 227 and 228.OUTFITS (Consular).—Ch. VI. § 6 of General Consular Instructions.

Outfit allowances are granted on the following scale:—

- (a.) On 1st appointment, $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (b.) On transfer, with promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (c.) On transfer, without promotion in rank, $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (d.) On promotion in rank, without transfer, $\frac{3}{8}$ th of annual salary and local allowance.
- (e.) On first appointment in the Consular service at a place where officer already resides, $\frac{1}{8}$ th of annual salary only.
- (f.) On appointment to a newly-established post an additional allowance of $\frac{1}{4}$ th of annual salary only.

Promotion in rank is promotion to the rank of Consul-General, Consul, or Judge, and does not comprise transfers to higher grades or to posts with larger salaries without higher rank.

The 5*l.* unit is adopted in the calculation of the total outfit allowance. When the fraction does not amount to so much as 2*l.* 10*s.*, it is abated from the allowance; and when it amounts to 2*l.* 10*s.*, or more, it is reckoned as 5*l.*, and so included in the allowance.

When the salary assigned to a post is on a scale of increments, the mean salary is taken as the basis of calculation in all cases in fixing the amount of the outfit allowance.

Outfit Allowances are payable, under certain conditions, to officers transferred from posts abroad for employment in this country. The rate allowed is $\frac{1}{4}$ th of the annual salary calculated in the manner shown in the previous paragraph. A similar concession is made to officers who have returned to this country on leave and who are subsequently retained for work in connection with the Public Service. [Added January, 1919.]

In the case of new appointments and of transfers and promotions the outfit allowance is not payable until shortly before departure on a direct journey to the new post.

PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Diplomatic). See Regulations, section 11, Travelling Expenses. Page 114.PASSAGE ALLOWANCES (Consular).Countries other than China, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. VI. § 7 of General Consular Instructions.

Travelling allowances, as specified below, are paid to salaried Consular officers not engaged in trade.

Consular officers engaged in trade are not entitled to travelling allowances. If a "trading officer" does not avail himself of the permission to trade, he must accompany his application for a travelling allowance with a declaration to that effect.

- (a.) On first appointment, or on transfer, the officer is paid the whole of his travelling expenses to his post, and of those of his family, the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a servant. In addition to this payment he is granted an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, for subsistence and hotel expenses, whilst on his journey, and 10*s.* a-night for each member of his family as above limited, except in passages by sea in which subsistence is included in the passage money, when he receives only a fixed wine allowance of 3*s.* 6*d.* a-day, or of 5*s.* if accompanied by his wife, provided wine is not included in the fares.

An officer transferred while on leave of absence is paid similar expenses from London, if he is in the United Kingdom, or from such place as he is in outside the United Kingdom, to his new post if, in the discretion of the Secretary of State, the circumstances justify such a course.

No charges in connection with luggage will be admitted, except in districts where no railways are available, but, in order to defray the general cost of removal, an allowance of one-half of the fare will be made for the officer himself and one-half* in the case of his wife; one-quarter* of the fare will also be allowed for each other member of his family within the limit of five.† This allowance will be calculated on the minimum first-class fare payable, whether on board ship or by train, or on the second-class fare in the case of a servant.

- (Amendment of 1914.) In the case of journeys by land this allowance will be raised to a full minimum fare for the officer himself and also for his wife, and to one-half fare for each other member of his family within the limit of five.

- (b.) On returning home on leave of absence after a continuous residence of 20 months* (or of 24 months in the case of posts pronounced unhealthy for purposes of leave) he is paid one-half of his own travelling expenses, including the carriage of purely personal luggage, and one-third of those of his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as that given in the preceding paragraph;‡ and he is paid a similar proportion of the expenses of his return journey from England on the expiration of his leave. He is not paid subsistence money or wine allowance.

- (Amendment of 1915. Special arrangements in the case of Consular officers serving on the West Coast of Africa.) Period of service necessary to qualify a Consular officer for repayment of half personal travelling expenses reduced from 24 months to 12 months, and proportion of travelling expenses of family repayable from public funds increased from one-third to one-half.

* Full fares and one-half fares respectively in journeys by land.—See Amendment following.

† See list, page 233.

‡ On attaining the age of 16 years, sons of Consular officers cease to be considered as members of the Consul's family as regards the payment of travelling expenses (Circular, July 15, 1918).

(c.) In case of leave of absence on the ground of ill-health a proportion of the expenses of his journey, similar to that specified in the preceding paragraph, may be granted at the discretion of the Secretary of State. This grant is not made unless the application for leave of absence is supported by a trustworthy medical certificate.

The authorized grant may be made to wives returning with their families on account of ill-health, although unaccompanied by their husbands; but applications for payment must be supported by a medical certificate.

(d.) In the case of a voyage by sea formal application must be made to the steam-ship company for any reduction of fare which may be available for official passengers.

(e.) Consular officers employed on special duty under the authority of the Secretary of State will receive payment of their travelling expenses, which may include either the actual cost of their maintenance or an allowance of 1*l.* a-night, according to circumstances, as the Secretary of State may determine.

(f.) If conveyed in a British man-of-war the Consular officer must pay at the time for his entertainment, taking a receipt for the amount, and recoup himself subsequently.

A Consul-General or Consul is entertained at the Captain's table at the rate of 1*l.* 1*s.* a-day for the first fourteen days, and of 1*s.* subsequently. A Vice-Consul is entertained at the ward-room mess at the rate of 1*s.* for the first fourteen days, and of 9*s.* subsequently.

No gratuities to the crews of His Majesty's ships or to any Government servants can be charged to public funds.

(g.) A detailed statement of expenses on account of journeys, accompanied by the necessary vouchers, stating separately the amounts paid on the officer's own account and on that of his family, must be forwarded in duplicate to the Secretary of State in an unnumbered despatch of the Consular series, on receipt of which the amount, if found correct, will be paid to his agent in England. If he has no agent he will receive authority to charge it in his account current.

Charges for luggage on journeys on leave and other miscellaneous expenditure which cannot be strictly apportioned between the officer and his family must be divided as follows:—one half for the officer and the other half for his family.

Vice-Consuls forward their claims through their superintending Consuls.

(h.) Government is not responsible for loss or damage of baggage or effects of Consular officers, even while travelling on duty.

Consular Service in China, Japan, and Siam.—Ch. XXXII of General Consular Instructions.

1. An officer on a first appointment to China, Japan, Corea, or Siam shall be paid the whole of the expense of the passage for himself alone, and the third of the expense for his wife and family,* the number being limited to five persons besides himself, of whom one may be a female servant. These payments will be made by the Foreign Office on production of the tickets for the passage.

2. On returning home on regulation leave of absence such officer shall be paid one-half of the expense of his own passage, and one-third for his family, the same limitation being observed in regard to numbers as in section 1. In this case the payments will be made in the country of the establishment to which he belongs, under the authority of His Majesty's Diplomatic Representative, who will take care to notify all particulars to the Foreign Office.

3. A similar indulgence shall be granted in cases of leave of absence obtained at any time on sick certificate.

4. This arrangement will also be applied to all cases of officers returning from England to the Far East.

5. A person removed from one post to another for the public convenience, and a person directed to proceed from one post to another on the public service, or for the purpose of supplying temporarily the place of an absent person, will be allowed such amount of expenses of going and returning as His Majesty's Diplomatic Representative on presentation of an account accompanied by vouchers, shall deem reasonable. The expense of the entertainment of Consular officers on board ships of war should, when practicable, be paid for at once by the officer to whom it is afforded, and the Diplomatic Representative will authorize the repayment of such expense from Consular funds in any case in which the officer so entertained has been received on board on public grounds.

* This clause does not apply to Student Interpreters, marriage not being permitted during the period of studentship.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. APPLICATIONS for Foreign Office Passports must be made in the form printed on the back of these Regulations*, and inclosed in a cover addressed to "THE PASSPORT OFFICE, 1, LAKE BUILDINGS, ST. JAMES'S PARK, LONDON, S.W. 1."

2. The charge for a Passport is 5s. Passports are issued at the Passport Office between the hours of 10 and 4 (Saturdays, 10 to 1), except on Sundays and Public holidays, when the Passport Office is closed. Applications should, if possible, reach the Passport Office not less than seven days before that on which the Passport is required. If the applicant does not reside in London, the Passport may be sent by post, and a Postal Order for 5s., made payable to the Passport Office, should in that case accompany the application. POSTAGE STAMPS WILL NOT BE RECEIVED IN PAYMENT.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted—

- (1.) To natural-born British subjects;
- (2.) To the wives and widows of such persons; and
- (3.) To persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, in the British Dominions or Colonies, or in India.

A married woman is deemed to be a subject of the State of which her husband is for the time being a subject.

4. Passports are granted—

- (1.) In the case of natural-born British subjects and persons naturalized in the United Kingdom, upon the production of a Declaration by the applicant in the form printed at the back of these Regulations,* verified by a Declaration made by a member or official of any Banking Firm established in the United Kingdom, or by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Barrister-at-law, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary Public, resident in the United Kingdom. The applicant's Certificate of Birth and other evidence may also be required. Applicants serving in H.M. Forces may have their declarations verified by their Commanding Officer.
- (2.) In the case of children under the age of 16 years requiring a separate Passport, upon production of a Declaration made by the child's parent or guardian, in a Form (B), to be obtained upon application to the Foreign Office.
- (3.) In the case of persons naturalized in any of the British Self-governing Colonies, upon production of a Recommendation from the High Commissioner or Agent-General in London of the State concerned; and in the case of natives of British India, and persons naturalized therein, upon production of a Letter of Recommendation from the India Office. Persons naturalized or ordinarily resident in any of the Crown Colonies must obtain a Letter of Recommendation from the Colonial Office.

5. If the applicant for a Passport be a Naturalized British subject, the Certificate of Naturalization must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the Declaration or Letter of Recommendation. Naturalized British subjects, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their Passports at the Passport Office; if resident in the country, the Passport will be sent, and the Certificate of Naturalization returned, to the person who may have verified the Declaration, for delivery to the applicant.

Naturalized British subjects will be described as such in their Passports, which will be issued subject to the necessary qualifications

6. Foreign Office Passports are not available beyond two years from the date of issue. They may be renewed for four further periods of two years each after which fresh Passports must be obtained. The fee for each renewal is 2s.

7. A Passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office on behalf of a person already abroad; such person should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate. Passports must not be sent out of the United Kingdom by post.

MEMORANDUM RESPECTING PHOTOGRAPHS.

In applying for passports applicants must send to the Foreign Office, with their declarations, duplicate unmounted photographs of convenient size, one of which will be attached to the passport and the other retained at the Foreign Office. One of these photographs must be certified on the back by the recommender as being a genuine photograph of the applicant.

* The form can be obtained upon application to the Passport Office, 1, Lake Buildings, St. James's Park, London, S.W. 1.

(a) DENMARK AND NORWAY.—A separate passport is required for each individual traveller. One additional photograph required for DENMARK.

(b) FRANCE.—Obtainable also at SOUTHAMPTON. One additional unmounted photograph is required. Personal attendance is necessary, and the visa can be obtained available for the duration of one year.

To visit any place within the territory occupied by the British Armies a Permit is required from the Military Permit Office, 14a, Charles Street, Haymarket, S. W. 1.

All visitors to France wishing to remain there for more than fifteen days must be furnished with a "Carte d'Identité." Application for this document must be made within forty-eight hours of arrival in the first locality in which the traveller desires to remain to the Prefect of the Department concerned.

British subjects travelling to the United Kingdom from France do not require any French visa.

(c) PERSIA and HAYTI.—Certain formalities are necessary before leaving these countries, concerning which a British Consul should be consulted.

(d) ITALY.—Also at LIVERPOOL, GLASGOW, CARDIFF, and DUBLIN. One extra photograph is required. Visa available for one year.

NOTE.—On arrival in Italy travellers should take the first available opportunity of reporting to the Police and obtaining a "Permesso di Soggiorno," without which they cannot obtain a visa to leave the country.

(e) NETHERLANDS.—Fourteen days' notice should be given. Three additional photographs are required. Hours 10 to 1, 2 to 4. On Saturdays, 10 to 1.

(f) ROUMANIA.—Within 24 hours of arrival in Roumania the passport should be visé at His Majesty's Legation or at a British Consulate, and application made to the Roumanian Authorities for a Permit to reside. For a stay of less than 8 days this formality is not necessary, since the Permit will be issued by the Police at the frontier.

(g) SWEDEN.—Personal attendance necessary with three additional photographs.

(h) SWITZERLAND.—Also at LIVERPOOL, HULL, MANCHESTER, and GLASGOW. Two extra photographs required. Visa available for not more than three months. A Permit to reside must be obtained from the Office de Police des Étrangers at Berne. To reside for more than three months in the Canton of Zurich a Permit is necessary from the Local Authorities. Visas are no longer required by persons travelling through Switzerland by international express trains, and without breaking their journey in that country, provided they are in a position when reaching the Swiss frontier to produce documentary evidence that the continuation of their journey beyond Switzerland is assured. Transit visas for the return journey through Switzerland can now be obtained, fee 10s.

(i) U.S.A.—Fourteen days' notice should be given. Three additional photographs are required.

(j) ESTHONIA.—Two additional photographs are required.

(k) FINLAND.—Three additional photographs are required.

(l) POLAND.—Personal attendance is necessary, and 24 hours' notice must be given.

PERMITS.

EGYPT.—A Permit to land in Egypt must be obtained from the Military Permit Office, 14A, Charles Street, Haymarket, S.W. 1.

Aliens travelling to India, Australia, New Zealand, the Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and the Union of South Africa must have their Passports endorsed at the Passport Office, London. Ten days' notice is required.

SPECIAL REGULATIONS.

All British subjects leaving the United Kingdom should be in possession of valid Passports issued or endorsed at the Passport Office, London, S.W. 1.

VALIDITY OF PASSPORTS.

A Passport is valid for two years from date of issue, and can be renewed for four further periods of two years provided there is sufficient room for further visas.

Where the Passport contains no further room for visas, application must be made for a new Passport.

ENDORSEMENT OF PASSPORTS.

During the two years for which a Passport is valid, no further endorsement by the Passport Office is required for further journeys to the country for which the Passport has already been made available by the Passport Office, London. The expiration of the validity of the Passport, however, necessitates a fresh endorsement. The visa of the Consular Representative of the country to which the bearer is travelling is required for each journey.

For journeys to countries other than that last named on the Passport, the endorsement of the Passport Office is required, except in the case of passengers to the Channel Islands, who require no endorsement, but must be in possession of valid Passports.

APPLICATION FORMS.

The following forms of application are in use, and are obtainable direct from the Passport Office, or from Banks, Shipping Agents, &c., in London or the Provinces:—

Form A.—Application for new Passport by adult (fee 5s.).

Form B.—Application for new Passport for child under age of 16 (fee 5s.).

Form D.—Renewal of Passport issued after 1st February, 1915 (fee 2s. for each period of two years).

Endorsement Form (fee 2s.).

NOTE.—Not less than two clear days' notice should be given for all applications for the issue, endorsement, or renewal of Passports.

British subjects resident in Ireland must make their applications through the Under-Secretary, Passport Department, Dublin Castle, Ireland.

(COMMUTATION.)

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTA-
TION ACTS, 1871 TO 1882.

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office* in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension or a part thereof under the Pensions Commutation Acts 1871 to 1882, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act of 1871, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his letter of application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration, but no application from any retired Civil Servant under the age of 50 years for the commutation of the whole of his allowance, will be proceeded with without the special sanction of the Treasury. Applicants may apply to commute their compensation allowances in whole or in part or they may specify the capital sum they wish to realise.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office or the Board, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London, but persons abroad who desire to be exempted from personal attendance may apply to the Commutation Board accordingly stating their reasons for making the request and their applications will be submitted to the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury whose decision in the case will be final.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

* N.B.—By the 2nd section of the Act of 1871, "the term public civil office means any office other than that of an officer in Her Majesty's Naval or Land Forces, the holder of which is paid his remuneration out of the moneys provided by Parliament for supply services."

(COMMUTATION)—continued.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 2*l.* within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

8. In the event of any applicant for commutation desiring to withdraw his application before he has been examined by the Medical Officer of the Board he shall be at liberty so to withdraw on payment of any expense not exceeding 2*l.* which may have been actually incurred by the Board on his account.

9. In commuting a Civil Compensation Allowance, or any portion thereof, there shall be charged a fee of one per cent. on the amount awarded, provided that such fee shall never be less than 1*l.* nor more than 10*l.* in each case.

PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871 (34 & 35 Vict., c. 36).

[Sections 3 and 4 (omitting Sub-sections 2 and 3), 7, 9, and 10.]

3. This Act shall apply only—

(1.) To officers in Her Majesty's naval or land forces; and

(2.) To persons who have retired or have been removed from public civil offices in consequence of the abolition of their offices, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the departments to which they belonged, and to whom annual pensions have been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal.

4. It shall be lawful for the Treasury, in accordance with such regulations as they may from time to time make, on the application of any person to whom this Act applies, to commute his pension by the payment of a capital sum of money, calculated according to the estimated duration of the life of the pension-holder, subject to the following provisions:—

(1.) In calculating the amount payable in respect of the commutation of any pension, the following rules shall be observed:

(a.) The age of the pension-holder shall be reckoned at the age he will attain on the birthday next succeeding his application for commutation;

(b.) In the case of impaired lives, years shall be added to the age of the pension-holder for the purpose of calculating the amount of commutation payable to him; and in like manner a deduction from age shall be made as an equivalent for the right to prospective increase of the pension to be commuted;

(c.) In calculating the amount payable in respect of any pension, interest shall be reckoned at a rate of not less than five pounds per centum per annum.

(4.) No application for the commutation of a pension shall be received unless it be accompanied, in the case of an officer who has belonged to Her Majesty's naval forces, by a recommendation from the Admiralty, and in the case of an officer who has belonged to Her Majesty's land forces by a recommendation from the War Office, and in the case of any other person, by a recommendation from the head of the department to which the applicant belongs, unless the Treasury otherwise direct.

7. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Treasury may from time to time make, alter, or revoke regulations as to the following matters;

(1.) The rules according to which applications for commutation are to be made or, on payment of a prescribed fee, to be withdrawn;

(2.) The tables according to which the duration of life of applicants for commutation is to be calculated for the purposes of this Act;

(3.) The terms upon which pensions are to be commuted, and the cases in which commutation is to be refused.

9. If any applicant for commutation under this Act wilfully make any false declaration in relation to any matter or thing required by any regulation made in pursuance of this Act he shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanour, and shall be liable on conviction to forfeit all claim to his pension or the value thereof, and to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

10. If any pension-holder whose pension has been commuted in pursuance of this Act accepts any public employment, a deduction shall be made from the salary payable to him in respect of such employment equal to the amount which would have been abated from the pension if it had not been commuted; and in the event of his becoming entitled to a pension in respect of such employment, the amount of such pension granted to him shall not exceed the amount which he might have received had his pension not been so commuted.

PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1882 (45 & 46 Vict., c. 44).

[Section 3.]

3. Where the Treasury have power, in pursuance of the Pensions Commutation Act, 1871, to commute the pension of any person, the Treasury shall also have power to commute a portion of such pension, and the provisions of the Pensions Commutation Acts, 1871 and 1878, shall apply accordingly to the portion of the pension in like manner, so nearly as circumstances admit, as they apply to the whole pension.

(Diplomatic.)

Act of Parliament to provide for the Payment of

DIPLOMATIC SALARIES, ALLOWANCES, AND PENSIONS.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43.—2 August, 1869.

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Diplomatic Salaries, &c., Act, 1869."

Interpretation of Terms.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—
The term "Secretary of State" means that one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State who is entrusted with the Seals of the Department for Foreign Affairs, or performs the duties of that Department.

4. (Repeal of previous Acts.)

Salaries, pensions, &c., payable out of annual votes.

5. All salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of diplomatic pensions.

6. The Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

- (1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
- (2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
- (3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
- (4.)* 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

Qualifications for pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

- (1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:
- (2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:
- (3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

- (4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class,† or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:
- (5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to invalided Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of bodily injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary pension on rupture of Diplomatic Relations.‡

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service

* For Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class, see Diplomatic Regulations, Section 16, page 115.

† For Classification of Missions, see pages 227 and 228.

‡ See also Section 17 of the Regulations for the Diplomatic Service, page 115.

(Diplomatic.)

before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of pension on refusal to serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of payment on holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

Determination of class of Missions.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission, he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on transfer from civil (or consular) to diplomatic service, and vice versa.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 Vict., cap. 26.)*

Pension, &c., to be free from taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

Act of Parliament to remove doubts as to the Qualification of PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

1. Pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and the 22nd year of Her Majesty,* or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS

- (1.) Act of Parliament to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service ("The Superannuation Act, 1834").

4 & 5 Will. IV. c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Superannuation not to be granted on advanced Amount of Salary received for less than Three years.

12. Provided always, That the superannuation allowance to be granted to any officer or person after the passing of this Act shall not be computed upon the amount of the salary enjoyed by him at the time of his retirement, unless he shall have been in the receipt of the same, or in the class from which he retires, for a period of at least three years immediately before the granting of such superannuation allowance; and in case he shall not have enjoyed his then existing salary or have been in such class for that period, such superannuation allowance shall be calculated upon the average amount of salary received by such person for three years next preceding the commencement of such allowance.

No Composition to be charged upon the Funds of the Department nor without Concurrence of His Majesty in Council or of the Treasury.

18. No compensation for any office abolished, nor any special allowance or remuneration for good services to any person holding or having held any civil office in any public department, shall be charged upon the incidents or any other fund of any such department; and no such compensation, nor any allowance or compensation in the nature of superannuation or retired allowance or reward to any such person in respect of his having held any public office or employment, or having been engaged in any public service, shall be granted, allowed, or paid, other than under the authority of an Order of His Majesty in Council, or by the Treasury.

No Superannuation or Compensation to be enjoyed with Salary for efficient Services.

20. Provided always, That in case any person enjoying any superannuation allowance, in consequence of retiring from office on account of age, infirmity, or any other cause, or enjoying any compensation for past services upon the abolition or reduction of office, shall be appointed to fill any office in any public department, every such allowance or compensation shall cease to be paid for any period subsequent to such appointment if the annual amount of the profits of the office to which he shall be appointed shall be equal to those of the office formerly held by him, and in case they shall not be equal to those of his former office, then no more of such superannuation allowance or compensation shall be paid to him than what with the salary of his new appointment shall be equal to that of his former office.

Not to extend to Half-pay, &c.

21. Provided always, That nothing herein contained with respect to compensation, superannuation, or allowance for Civil Services shall extend or be construed to extend to any military or naval half-pay, or allowance in lieu of half-pay, or to any military or naval allowance or pensions granted or to be granted under the regulations of any Order of His Majesty in Council, in any of the respective Departments of the Admiralty, the Secretary at War, and the Master General of the Ordnance, except as hereinafter is provided with respect to the same.

Account of Increase and Diminution of Public Salaries, Pensions, and Allowances to be annually laid before Parliament.

22. Between the 1st day of February and the 25th day of March in every year, or if Parliament shall not be sitting during any part of that period, then within 20 days after the next meeting of Parliament, there shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament an account of every increase and diminution which shall have taken place within the preceding year, ending on the 31st day of December, in the number of persons employed in all public offices or departments under the Crown, and in the salaries, emoluments, allowances, and expenses which shall have taken place or been paid, granted, received, or incurred for and in respect of all officers and persons belonging to or employed in all such public offices or departments, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing every increase and diminution in the amount of all allowances or compensations granted as retired allowances or superannuations to any person having held any office, place, or employment in any such public office or department, and also the time and length of service of every such person, and the amount of the salary and emoluments received by such person immediately preceding his superannuation or retirement, and the nature of his services, and the grounds upon which such increase or diminution in the establishment of every such public office or department, or of any salary, emolument, allowance, compensation, or superannuation, shall have been granted or made; and also specifying the name of every person receiving such allowance or compensation who may have died in the course of the year, together with the amount of the annual allowance payable to such person.

Civil Allowances, &c., to be laid before Parliament.

23. Provided always, That accounts of all compensations for offices abolished, and of all allowances in the nature of superannuation or retired allowances to all other persons in respect of their having held any public office or employment under the Crown, shall annually, at the period lastly provided, be laid before the Commons House of Parliament.

* The sections of this Act of 1834 which are not repealed, and the Act of 1859, are declared by the Act of 19th April, 1859, § 18 (page 203), to be construed as one Act.

(Civil Service and Consular.)

Half-pay and Military and Naval Pensions to be laid before Parliament in separate Estimates.

25. Provided always, That all half-pay and allowances in lieu of half-pay in the several departments of the army, ordnance, navy, and marines, and all military and naval allowances or pensions granted or which shall be granted in any of such departments under the authority of any Order in Council, shall be annually laid before the Commons House of Parliament, in separate estimates, at the same time with the ordinary estimates of those respective departments, and shall be kept distinct from all pensions, compensations, superannuation and retired allowances in any of the civil offices of those departments respectively.

Compensations not provided for to be charged on Funds of Departments.

26. The compensations, superannuations, and allowances authorized as well by this as any former Act or Acts shall, when not specially provided for by Parliament, be charged upon and paid and payable by the respective departments or offices in which the persons receiving such allowances shall have served.

Average of Emoluments to be made by Heads of Departments.

28. It shall be lawful for the person or persons at the head of any department in which any fees or other sources of profit may form part of the emoluments of any office in such department, to fix, with the approbation of the Treasury, or for the Admiralty if the office shall be in that department, an average sum upon which the compensation or superannuation allowance shall be granted, which sum so to be fixed shall not exceed the average amount of such emoluments for the three last preceding years.

Act not to give an absolute Right to Allowances, or to prevent Dismissal of Persons for Misconduct.

30. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give any person an absolute right to compensation for past services, or to any superannuation or retiring allowance under this Act, or to deprive the Treasury and the heads or principal officers of the respective departments, of their power and authority to dismiss any person from the public service without compensation.

(2.) Act of Parliament to amend the Laws concerning Superannuations and other Allowances to Persons having held Civil Offices in the Public Service.

22 Vict., c. 26.—19 April, 1859.

Ordinary rate of Superannuation Allowance.

27. Subject to the exceptions and provisions hereinafter contained, the superannuation allowance to be granted after the commencement of this Act to persons who shall have served in an established capacity in the permanent Civil Service of the State, whether their remuneration be computed by day pay, weekly wages, or annual salary, and for whom provision shall not otherwise have been made by Act of Parliament, or who may not be specially excepted by the authority of Parliament, shall be as follows: (that is to say),

To any person who shall have served 10 years and upwards and under 11 years, an annual allowance of 10-60ths of the annual salary and emoluments of his office.

For 11 years, and under 12 years, an annual allowance of 11-60ths of such salary and emoluments.

And in like manner a further addition to the annual allowance of 1-60th in respect of each additional year of such service, until the completion of a period of service of 40 years, when the annual allowance of 40-60ths may be granted; and no addition shall be made in respect of any service beyond 40 years.

Provided always, that if any question should arise in any department of the public service as to the claim of any person or class of persons for superannuation under this clause, it shall be referred to the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

Application of Act to persons already in the civil service, but without prejudice to existing rights.

3. Nothing herein contained shall prevent, restrict, or diminish, any other superannuation allowance, pensions, gratuity, or compensation which, if this Act had not been passed, might hereafter have been granted to any person who shall have entered the public service before the passing of this Act, but, except as aforesaid, the provision hereinafter contained shall apply as well to persons who have already entered the public service, as to those who may hereinafter enter the public service.

Provision for computing amount of superannuation to persons holding professional and other special offices.†

4. It shall be lawful for the Treasury from time to time, by any order or warrant, to declare that for the due and efficient discharge of the duties of any office in respect of which a superannuation allowance may be granted, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave the public service before the completion of the period which would entitle him to a superannuation allowance, such sum of money by way of gratuity as the said Commissioners may think proper, but so as that no such gratuity shall exceed the amount of one month's pay for each year of service.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances on Abolition of Offices.

7.† It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department to which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special annual allowance by way of compensation, as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case may seem to the said Commissioners to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office; and if the compensation shall exceed the amount to which such person would have been entitled under the scale of superannuation provided by this Act if 10 years were added to the number of years which he may have actually served, such allowance shall be granted by special minute, stating the special grounds for granting such allowance, which minute shall be laid before Parliament, and no such allowance shall exceed 2-3rds of the salary and emoluments of the office.

Condition of Grant of full Superannuations to public Servants not Heads of Departments.

8. It shall not be lawful for the Treasury to grant the full amount of superannuation allowance which can be granted under this Act to any person not being the head officer or one of the head officers of a department, unless upon production of a certificate (signed by the head officer of the department, or by two head officers, if there be more than one) that he has served with diligence and fidelity to the satisfaction of such head officer or officers; and in every case in which any superannuation allowance is granted, after the refusal of such certificate, the minute granting it shall state such refusal and the grounds on which the allowance is granted.

Power to Treasury to grant Allowances for special Services, and for Demerits in individual Cases.

9. Provided, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to grant to any person any superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance of greater amount than the amount which might be awarded to him under the foregoing provisions, when special services rendered by such person, and requiring special reward, shall appear to them to justify such increase, but so that such allowance shall in no case exceed the salary and emoluments enjoyed by the grantee at the time of retirement, and the grounds of every such increase shall be stated in a minute of the Treasury, which shall be laid before Parliament; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to grant to any person any such allowance of less amount than otherwise would have been awarded to him where his defaults or demerit in relation to the public service appear to them to justify such diminution.

Evidence of Infirmary of Persons under Sixty.

10. It shall not be lawful to grant any superannuation allowance under the provisions of this Act to any person who shall be under 60 years, unless upon medical certificate to the satisfaction of the Treasury that he is incapable, from infirmity of mind or body, to discharge the duties of his situation, and that such infirmity is likely to be permanent.

Persons Superannuated under Sixty may be required to serve again.

11. Every person to whom a superannuation or compensation allowance shall have been granted before he shall have attained the age of 60 years shall, until he has attained that age, be liable to be called upon to fill, in any part of Her Majesty's dominions in which he shall before have served, any public office or situation under the Crown for which his previous public services may render him eligible; and if he shall decline, when called upon to do so, to take upon him such office or situation, or shall decline or neglect to execute the duties thereof satisfactorily, being in a competent state of health, he shall forfeit his right to the compensation or superannuation allowance which had been granted to him.

Acts in Schedule to be construed as referring to this Act.

15. The several sections mentioned in the schedule hereto of the several Acts of Parliament, also therein mentioned, shall be construed as if this Act, instead of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of the reign of King

William IV., had been referred to in the said sections; and such other enactments as refer to the scale of superannuation allowance established by the provisions hereby repealed of the said Act of King William IV, shall be construed as if the scale established by this Act had been referred to.

Allowances to be paid free from taxes.

16. All superannuations, compensations, gratuities and other allowances granted, or hereafter under this Act to be granted, shall be paid to persons entitled to receive the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties whatever at present existing, except the tax upon property or income.

Who to be deemed civil servants.

17. For the purposes of this Act, no person hereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a Certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners; nor shall any person, already appointed to any office, be held to have served in the permanent Civil Service as aforesaid, unless such person belong to a class which is already entitled to superannuation allowance, or to a class in which, if he had been appointed thereto subsequently to the passing of this Act, he would, as holding his appointment directly from the Crown, or as having been admitted into the Civil Service with such certificate as aforesaid, have become entitled to such allowance; and no person shall be entitled to any superannuation allowance under this Act, unless his salary or remuneration has been provided out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or out of moneys voted by Parliament.

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24, and this Act to be construed together.

18. So much of the said Act of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV, chapter 24,† as is now in force and not hereby repealed, and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

(3.) Act of Parliament to make further provision respecting the Superannuation Allowance to be granted to Civil Servants serving in unhealthy Climates.‡

39 & 40 Vict., c. 53.—11th August, 1876.

Unhealthy Places.

1. The Treasury may from time to time by order declare that any country or place therein named shall be deemed, and the same shall thereupon be deemed, for the purposes of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and this Act, to be an unhealthy place.

The Treasury may from time to time by order revoke or vary an order previously made under this section, but the amount of superannuation, compensation, gratuity, or other allowance to be granted to any person serving, before the date of the order of revocation or alteration in the unhealthy place affected thereby, shall be the same as if it had not been made.

2. For the purpose of reckoning the amount of any superannuation, compensation, gratuity or other allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the State, two years' service in an unhealthy place shall be reckoned as service for three years, and service in an unhealthy place for any greater or less period than two years shall be reckoned in the like proportion.

Provided that nothing in this section—

- (1.) Shall alter so much of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1859, as requires a service of ten years before an annual superannuation allowance can be granted; or
- (2.) Shall, without the consent of the Treasury, apply to a person who was residing in an unhealthy place when he entered the permanent civil service of the State.

(4.) Act of Parliament to extend certain Powers given by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873, 47 and 48 Vict., c. 57.—14th August, 1884.

(Relief of persons for want of a Civil Service Certificate, &c.)

WHEREAS by the Superannuation Act, 1859, it is enacted that for the purposes of that Act no person thereafter to be appointed shall be deemed to have served in the Permanent Civil Service of the State unless such person holds his appointment directly from the Crown, or has been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas it appears that in several public departments of the State persons have been appointed since the passing of the said Act to established situations in the Civil Service not held directly from the Crown, but that through inadvertence on the part of the heads of such departments, and without any default on the part of the persons so appointed, no steps were taken before their appointment to procure for them certificates from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas with a view of relieving such persons from loss of the superannuation allowance or gratuities which they were led to expect when they entered the Civil Service, provision was made by the Superannuation Act Amendment Act, 1873, enabling the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, on applications by the heads of such departments by order or warrant, to place such persons in the same position as regards their claim to a superannuation allowance or gratuity as they would have been in if they had been admitted into the Civil Service with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners:

And whereas a further provision to the like effect was made by the Superannuation (Post Office and War Office) Act, 1876, and the Superannuation Act, 1881:

And whereas the orders or warrants under the said Acts were required to be made before the terms therein mentioned which have now passed:

And whereas notwithstanding that most of the said persons have been relieved by orders or warrants made under the said Acts, some of them still remain for whom, owing to the failure of the heads of departments to make application within the time limited by the said Acts, or owing to other causes beyond their own control, relief has not been provided.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short Title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1884.

Supplemental.

3. Every order under this Act shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in accordance with section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

4. This Act shall apply to persons who have retired from the public service since the seventeenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five.

5. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with the Superannuation Act, 1859, and that Act and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1859 and 1876.

Power to Treasury to make order relieving person for want of certificate under 22 Vict., c. 26.

2. (1.) The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, at any time on application being made to them by the head of any public department of the State, declare by order or warrant that a person who has been appointed after the date of the Superannuation Act, 1859, and before the passing of this Act, to a situation in such department entitling persons appointed thereto with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners to superannuation allowance, was appointed thereto without such a certificate through inadvertence on the part of the head of such department, and without any default on the part of the person so appointed, and every person with respect to whom such order or warrant is issued shall be in the same position as regards his claim to allowances under the Superannuation Act, 1859, as he would have been in if he had been appointed with a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners.

(2.) Every order or warrant made in pursuance of this Act shall be laid before Parliament in manner provided by the thirteenth section of the said Superannuation Act, 1859.

*Provision for addition of years to service in certain cases.

3. Where the regulations respecting an office which entitles or would, if he had continued to hold it, have entitled the holder to receive an allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859, provide that a person appointed to such office must have held a professional or other peculiar qualification for the number of years specified in the regulations, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may, if they think fit, in computing the amount of superannuation allowance to be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, to a person who holds or has at any time held such office, add the number of years so specified to the number of years that such person has actually served, provided that the minute adding that number of years shall be laid before Parliament.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

* See Section 4 of Act of 1859, 22 Vict., c. 26 (page 201). That Section and Section 3 of Act of 1884 were repealed by Section 5 of Act of 1914, 4 and 5 Geo. 5, c. 86, except as regards the rights of any person appointed before the date of the passing of that Act. See page 210.

(5.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859; and for other purposes. 50 and 51 Vict., c. 67.—16th September, 1887.

1.—(1.) Where a person employed in the civil service of the state is injured—

- (a.) In the actual discharge of his duty; and
- (b.) Without his own default; and
- (c.) By some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty, the Treasury may grant to him, or, if he dies from the injury, to his widow, his mother if wholly dependent on him at the time of his death, and to his children, or to any of them, such gratuity or annual allowance as the Treasury may consider reasonable, and as may be permitted by the terms of a warrant under this section.

(2.) The Treasury shall forthwith after the passing of this Act frame a warrant regulating the grant of gratuities and annual allowances under this section, and the warrant so framed shall be laid before Parliament.*

(3.) Provided that a gratuity under this section shall not exceed one year's salary of the person injured, and an allowance under this section shall not, together with any superannuation allowance to which he is otherwise entitled, exceed the salary of the person injured, or three hundred pounds a year, whichever is less.

2.—(1.) Where a civil servant is removed from his office on the ground of his inability to discharge efficiently the duties of his office, and a superannuation allowance cannot lawfully be granted to him under the Superannuation Acts 1834 and 1859, and the Treasury think that the special circumstances of the case justify the grant to him of a retiring allowance, they may grant to him such retiring allowance as they think just and proper, but in no case exceeding the amount for which his length of service would qualify him under sections two and four of the Superannuation Act 1859 without any addition under section seven of that Act.

(2.) A minute of the Treasury granting an allowance under this section to any civil servant shall set forth the amount of the allowance granted to him, and the reasons for such allowance, and shall be laid before Parliament: Provided that the Treasury before making the grant shall consider any representation which the civil servant removed may have submitted to them.

3. Where a person at the time he becomes a civil servant within the meaning of this Act is serving the State in a temporary capacity, the Treasury may, if in their opinion any special circumstances of the case warrant such a course, direct that his service in that capacity may be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, as service in the capacity of a civil servant and it shall be so reckoned accordingly.

4. If a person employed in any public department in a capacity in respect of which a superannuation allowance cannot be granted under the Superannuation Act, 1859, retires, or is removed from his employment, and

- (a.) The employment is one to which he was required to devote his whole time, and
- (b.) The remuneration for the employment was paid entirely out of moneys provided by Parliament, and
- (c.) He has served in the employment for not less than seven years, if he is removed in consequence of the abolition of his employment, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the department by which economy can be effected, or for not less than fifteen years if his retirement is caused from infirmity of mind or body, permanently incapacitating him from the duties of his employment, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to him a compassionate gratuity not exceeding one pound or one week's pay, whichever is the greater, for each year of his service in his employment.†

5. A person shall not be entitled to reckon the same period of time both for the purpose of a superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859, and this Act, and also for the purpose of naval or military non-effective pay.

6.†—(1.) The Treasury may, within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules as to the conditions on which any civil employment of profit under any public department as defined by this Act, or any employment of profit under the Government of any British possession, or any employment under the Government of any Foreign State may be accepted or held by any person who is in receipt of or has received any sum granted by Parliament for the pay, half-pay, or retired pay of officers of Her Majesty's naval or land forces, or otherwise for payment for past service in either of such forces, or who has commuted the right to receive the same, and as to the effect of such acceptance or holding on the said pay or sum, and the Treasury may in such rules provide for the enforcement thereof by the forfeiture, suspension, or reduction of any such pay or sum as aforesaid, or of any commutation, money or remuneration for such employment.

(2.) Such rules shall also provide for the returns to be laid before Parliament of such officers accepting employment as are affected by the rules, and shall come into operation at the date of the passing of this Act.

(3.) The rules shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament forthwith.

(4.) For the purposes of this section "British possession" means any part of Her Majesty's dominions out of the United Kingdom, and this section shall apply to Cyprus as if it were a British possession.

7.—(1.) Where any sum in respect of pay, pension, superannuation, or other allowance or annuity is due in respect either of service as a civil servant, or of military or naval service, to a person who is a lunatic, whether so found by inquisition or not, such sum may be from time to time applied for his benefit by the prescribed public department in such manner as the department think expedient.

(2.)|| Where any annuity, whether pension, superannuation, or other allowance, is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament to a person in respect either of service as a civil servant or of military or naval service, and such person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of money provided by Parliament, then as long as the contribution is made his annuity shall be reduced by an amount equal to that contribution, and if the amount of the contribution exceeds the amount of the annuity, the annuity shall cease to be payable.

8.§ On the death of a person, to whom any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds is due from a public department in respect of any civil pay, superannuation, or other allowance, annuity or gratuity, then, if the prescribed public department so direct, but subject to the regulations (if any) made by the Treasury, probate or other proof of the title of the personal representative of the deceased person may be dispensed with, and the said sum may be paid or distributed to or among the persons appearing to the public department to be beneficially entitled to the personal estate of the deceased person, or to or among any one or more of those persons, or in case of the illegitimacy of the deceased person or his children, to or among such persons as the department may think fit, and the department shall be discharged from all liability in respect of any such payment or distribution.

9. The decision of the Treasury on any question which arises as to the application of any section of this Act to any person, or as to the amount of any allowance or gratuity under this Act, or as to the reckoning of any service for such allowance or gratuity, shall be final.

10. Nothing in this Act shall be construed so as in any way to interfere with the rights existing at the passing of this Act of any civil servant then holding office.

11. Every warrant and minute under this Act which is required to be laid before Parliament shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament in manner provided by section thirteen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

Treasury Warrant regulating the Grant of Gratuities and Allowances under Section 1 of the Superannuation Act, 1887.*—September, 1887.†

In conformity with the provisions of the 1st section of the Superannuation Act, 1887, we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do hereby direct that any award of a gratuity or annual allowance made under the said section shall be subject to the following conditions, viz.:—

The award shall be calculated upon one or other of the following scales, which shall respectively apply to:—

I. Established officers of prisons or criminal lunatic asylums injured by the violence of a prisoner or lunatic; or established officers of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.

II. All civil servants not falling under the above description, and also all hired persons employed in a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty, in which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.

12. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

The expression "civil servant" means a person who has served in an established capacity in the permanent civil service of the state within the meaning of section seventeen of the Superannuation Act, 1859.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

The expression "public department" means the Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and any of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and any other public department of the Government; and the expression "prescribed public department" means, as respects any matter, the department prescribed for the purpose of that matter by the Treasury.

13. The Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter twenty-four, intitled "An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the laws for regulating the pensions, compensations, and allowances to be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in His Majesty's service," is in this Act referred to and may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1834, and that Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, are together in this Act referred to as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 and 1859.

The said Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and this Act may be cited separately as the Superannuation Act, 1887.

14. The Acts set forth in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned as from the passing of this Act, without prejudice to anything previously done or suffered in pursuance of the enactments hereby repealed.

III. All other hired persons employed in a public department.

SCALES I and II.

To the retired allowance for which the injured man would be qualified by length of service, ‡ shall be added an allowance not exceeding the under-mentioned portion of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, viz.:—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

† This Warrant (with amending Warrants) was modified by Treasury Warrant dated August 21, 1907, which provided that "No award shall be made under them, in respect of any injury occurring after 1st July, 1907, to any person, or to the widow or other relative of any person, employed in the Civil Service of the State who is within the definition of workman as set forth in section 13 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1906, that is to say, a person employed by way of manual labour, at whatever remuneration, or a person employed otherwise than by way of manual labour at remuneration not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds a year."

‡ To be read as meaning "an annual allowance of one-sixtieth of the salary and emoluments of the injured man for each year of his service, including therein any years assigned, under section 4 of the Superannuation Act, 1859, to the office held by him."—(Treasury Warrant, October 30, 1889.)

§ By Treasury Minute of July 18, 1888, the Foreign Office was included in the List of Departments prescribed by the Treasury for the purposes of this Section. the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less; and that no award on Scale II shall, together with any retired allowance for which he would be qualified by length of service, exceed fifty sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less.

SCALE III.

- (a.) A gratuity not exceeding the undermentioned portion of the salary and emoluments of the injured man at the date of the injury, or 100*l.*, whichever is less, viz. :—

When his capacity to contribute to his support is—

Slightly impaired...One third. Impaired...Two thirds.

Materially impaired ... The whole.

- (b.) When his capacity to contribute to his support is totally destroyed, he shall receive an annual allowance exceeding by fifteen sixtieths of his salary and emoluments the rate of retired allowance for which he would have been qualified by length of service if he had been a civil servant, provided that the total award shall not exceed forty-five sixtieths of his salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 300*l.* a year, whichever is less.

An award under any of the above scales shall be so much less than the usual amount as the Treasury shall think reasonable, in case—

- (a.) The usual amount exceeds by not less than 100*l.* a year the rate of retired allowance for which the length of the injured man's service would entitle him; or (b.) The injured man has continued to serve for not less than one year after the injury in respect of which he retires; or
(c.) The injured man is 55 years of age or upwards at the date of the injury; or (d.) The injury is not the sole cause of retirement, i.e., the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity.

WIDOWS AND CHILDREN OF MEN KILLED WHILE IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

.. An award shall be on one or other of the following scales, according as the deceased had been—

1. I. An established officer of a prison or of a criminal lunatic asylum killed by a prisoner or lunatic; or an established officer of a manufacturing department of the War Office or Admiralty of which the duties are exceptionally dangerous.
- II. A civil servant not falling under the above des-

55 and 56 Viet., c. 40.—27th June, 1892.

Reckoning of Service in one or more public offices.

1.†—(1) The Treasury may within one month after the passing of this Act, frame rules regulating the superannuation allowance or gratuity which may be granted to persons who have served continuously and successively in two or more public offices as defined by this Act, but are not entitled to reckon for such grant service in all those offices.

(2) The said rules shall provide for reckoning service according to the rules under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and subject to such reckoning of service, cription, or a hired person employed in a manufacturing department as above.

- III. Any other hired person employed in a public department.

SCALE I.

Pension to widow, while unmarried and of good character not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments at the date of the injury, or 15*l.* a year, whichever is greater; and

Pension to each child until he or she attains the age of 15, not exceeding one-sixth of the rate which might be granted to the widow, but the aggregate of the children's pensions not to exceed the amount which might be granted to the widow.

SCALE II.

Pension to widow not to exceed ten-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10*l.* a year, whichever is greater; and Gratuity to children, not exceeding 1*l.*, multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the time of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 10*l.* or more than 50*l.*

SCALE III.

Pension to the widow not exceeding eight-sixtieths of the husband's salary and emoluments, or 10*l.*, whichever is greater.

Gratuity to children not exceeding 16*l.*, multiplied by the total number of their years, starting from their ages at the date of their father's death, and ending with 15 years; the total gratuity not to be less than 8*l.*, or more than 40*l.*

In the case of motherless children the award under any scale may be of twice the usual rate.

* If the service of the deceased at the date of the injury was less than five years, the award under any scale shall be :

To the widow a gratuity not exceeding one-half of the salary and emoluments of the deceased.

To each child a gratuity not exceeding one-twelfth of the salary and emoluments of the deceased; but the total gratuity to widow and children shall not exceed one year's salary and emoluments of the deceased.]

MOTHERS OF MEN KILLED IN THE DISCHARGE OF DUTY.

If the deceased does not leave a widow, and if his mother was wholly dependent upon him for support, the award which might have been made to a widow may be made to the mother.

Rules to be laid before Parliament.

3. A copy of any rules made under this Act shall forthwith be laid before Parliament, and the rules shall not come into operation until three months after such copy is so laid, nor if within those three months either House passes a resolution objecting to them, but if such resolution is passed, the Treasury may frame new rules, and this section shall apply as if the passing of the said resolution were substituted for the passing of this Act, and so on as often as occasion may require.

Definitions.

4. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—The expression “public office” means any office or employment (other than any office or employment in Her Majesty’s naval or land forces) service in which qualifies for the grant of a superannuation allowance or gratuity, and the remuneration of which is paid out of—

- (a) the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; or
- (b) moneys provided by Parliament, or dealt with as appropriations in aid; or

- (c) the revenue of India; or
 - (d) the revenue of the Isle of Man; or
 - (e) any fund which, from its being administered by a public department, the Treasury may determine to be a public fund; and includes the office of any existing prison officer within the meaning of the Prisons Act, 1877, the General Prisons (Ireland) Act, 1877, and the Prisons (Scotland) Act, 1877;
- The expression “superannuation allowance” includes any pension or superannuation or other retiring allowance.

Commencement of Act.

5. This Act shall take effect as from the first day of January, 1891.

Short Title and Construction.

6. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1892.

This Act shall be read as one with the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1887, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892.

(7.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892.

9 Edw. 7, c. 10.—20th September, 1909.

Superannuation allowances and additional allowances to future male civil servants.

1.—(1) The proportion of the annual salary and emoluments on which the scale of the superannuation allowances to be granted to male civil servants is to be calculated shall, in the case of civil servants who enter the service after the passing of this Act, be one-eightieth instead of one-sixtieth, and accordingly section 2 of the Superannuation Act, 1859,* shall, as respects such civil servants, have effect as if for the words “sixtieth” and “sixtieths,” wherever they occur, there were substituted the words “eightieth” and “eightieths.”

(2) The Treasury may grant by way of additional allowance to any such civil servant who retires after having served for not less than two years, in addition to the superannuation allowance (if any) to which he may become entitled or the gratuity (if any) which may be granted to him under section 6 of the Superannuation Act, 1859,* a lump sum equal to one-thirtieth of the annual salary and emoluments of his office multiplied by the number of completed years he has served, so, however, that the additional allowance shall in no case exceed one and a half times the amount of such salary and emoluments:

Provided that, if a civil servant retires from the service after attaining the age of sixty-five years, there shall be deducted from the amount of the additional allowance which would otherwise be payable to him one-twentieth of that amount for every completed year he has served after attaining that age.

Gratuity in case of death of future male civil servants.

2.†—(1) Where a male civil servant who enters the service after the passing of this Act dies after he has served five years or upwards, whilst still employed in the service, the Treasury may grant to his legal personal representatives a gratuity equal to the annual salary and emoluments of his office:‡

Provided that, if he dies after attaining the age of sixty-five years, the amount of the gratuity which may be so granted shall be reduced by one-twentieth of that amount for every completed year he has served after attaining that age.

(2) Where any such civil servant having become entitled to a superannuation allowance dies after he has retired from the service, and the sums actually received by him at the time of his death on account of such superannuation allowance, together with the sum received by him by way of additional allowance, are less than the amount of the annual salary and emoluments of his office, the Treasury may grant to his legal personal representatives a gratuity equal to the deficiency.

Application to existing male civil servants.

3.†—(1) Subject to regulations made by the Treasury, the Treasury may allow any male civil servant who has entered the service before the date of the passing of this Act, and who at that date is under sixty years of age, to adopt the provisions of this Act, and in such case there may be granted to him or his legal personal representatives such superannuation and other allowances and gratuity as might have been granted had he entered the service after the passing of this Act except that the amount of the additional allowance payable on retirement shall be increased by one-half per cent. in respect of each completed year he had served at the passing of this Act.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the right to superannuation allowance or gratuity of a civil servant who has entered the service before the passing of this Act, and who either is at that time over sixty years of age or is under sixty years of age and does not adopt the provisions of this Act.

Method of calculating allowances.

4. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, with respect to the qualifications for obtaining superannuation allowances and gratuities, and to the manner of reckoning years of service and amount of annual salary and emoluments, and to the diminution of superannuation allowances, and to the determination of questions by the Treasury, shall apply in respect of additional allowances and gratuities under this Act in like manner as they apply in respect of superannuation allowances under those Acts.

Power to revoke and alter Warrants under

50 of 51 Vict., c. 67, s. 1.

5. A warrant framed by the Treasury under section 41 of the Superannuation Act, 1887,* with respect to the grant of gratuities and allowances to civil servants injured in the discharge of their duty may be revoked or from time to time varied by a fresh warrant, and every such warrant shall be laid before Parliament.

Compensation on abolition of Office.

6.—(1.) It shall be lawful for the Treasury to grant to any person retiring or removed from the public service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organisation of the department to which he belonged, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, such special allowance or allowances by way of compensation as on a full consideration of the circumstances of the case seem to the Treasury to be a reasonable and just compensation for the loss of office, but not exceeding in any case the amount which a civil servant would be entitled to, or which might be granted to a civil servant, if he retired on the ground of ill-health.

(2.) The foregoing provision shall apply only to persons entering the service after the date of the passing of this Act, and shall apply to those persons in substitution for section 7 of the Superannuation Act, 1859.†

Nothing herein contained shall affect the application of the said section 7 of the Superannuation Act, 1859, to persons who have entered the service before that date or the practice of the Treasury thereunder.

Rules.

7.—(1.) The Treasury may from time to time make rules‡ for the purpose of carrying this Act into effect, and for making such adaptations and modifications of the provisions of the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, and other enactments relating to superannuation allowances and pensions of persons who have served partly in the civil service and partly in some other service entitling them to a pension as may be necessary for adapting those provisions to the provisions of this Act, and for altering the rules made by the Treasury under the Superannuation Act, 1892.§

(2.) Before any rules made under this section come into force, a draft thereof shall be laid before each House of Parliament for a period of not less than thirty days during the session of Parliament, and, if either of those Houses of Parliament before the expiration of those thirty days presents an address to His Majesty against the draft or any part thereof, no further proceedings shall be taken thereon, without prejudice to the making of any new draft rules.

Short Title and Construction.

8. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1909, and shall be read as one with the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1892, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1909.

(8.) Act of Parliament to amend the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1909.

4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 86,—18th September, 1914.

Distribution of gratuities without probate in certain cases.

1. Where the Treasury has decided to grant a gratuity to the legal personal representatives of a deceased civil servant under section two or section three of the Superannuation Act, 1909,‡ probate or other proof of the title of the personal representatives of the deceased may be dispensed with and the gratuity paid or distributed in manner provided by section eight of the Superannuation Act, 1887,* and that section shall apply accordingly as if such gratuity as aforesaid were a sum due to the deceased at the time of his death in respect of superannuation allowance.

Amendment of s. 2 (1) of the Act of 1909.

2. The amount of the gratuity which may be granted under subsection (1) of section two of the Superannuation Act, 1909,‡ to the legal personal representatives of a civil servant who dies whilst still employed in the service shall be either the amount specified in that subsection or an amount equal to the amount of the additional allowance which the Treasury might have granted to him if he had retired from the civil service on the ground of ill-health at the date of his death, whichever may be the greater.

Amendment to s. 4 of Act of 1887.

3. If any person dies while in his employment, being a person to whom a gratuity might have been granted under section four of the Superannuation Act,* if at the time of his death he had retired from such employment because of infirmity of mind or body, the Treasury may, if they think fit, grant to his dependants such compassionate gratuity as they might have granted to the deceased person had he so retired.

Power to grant superannuation allowances to civil servants transferred to other employment in certain cases.

4.—(1) If a civil servant has been before the passing of this Act or is thereafter transferred, with the consent of the head officer of his department, to employment which is approved employment within the meaning of this section, it shall be lawful, upon his retirement from that employment under conditions which would have entitled him to any superannuation allowance, additional allowance, or gratuity had he continued to be employed as a civil servant, for the Treasury, if the head officer of the department in which he was serving at the time of transfer makes a recommendation to that effect, to grant to him, out of moneys provided by Parliament, such superannuation allowance, additional allowance, or gratuity as might have been granted to him if, at the date of transfer, he had retired from the Civil Service on the ground of ill-health.

(2) For the purposes of this section "approved employment" means employment, whether within or without His Majesty's Dominions (not being employment in a public office within the meaning of the Superannuation Act, 1892, service in which qualifies for the grant of a superannuation allowance), which is recognised by the head officer of the department in which the civil servant was serving at the time of transfer, and by the Treasury, as being employment to which it is expedient that the provisions of this section should apply.

(3) Section twelve of the Superannuation Act, 1859,† is hereby repealed, but nothing in this repeal shall affect the rights of any officer who, before the passing of this Act, has been transferred from employment entitling him to a superannuation allowance to public employment under the Crown not so entitling him, nor shall this repeal affect the said section as applied by any other enactment.

Repeal of s. 4 of the Act of 1859 and s. 3 of the Act of 1884 as to added years.

5. Section four of the Superannuation Act, 1859,‡ and section three of the Superannuation Act, 1884§ (which relate to superannuation allowances of persons holding professional and other special offices), are hereby repealed, but nothing in this repeal shall affect the rights of any person who, before the date of the passing of this Act, has been appointed to an office to which an order, warrant, or minute of the Treasury, issued under either of the said sections, applied.

Repeal of s. 7 (2) of the Act of 1887.

6. Subsection (2) of section seven of the Superannuation Act, 1887¶ (which provides for the reduction of the pension, superannuation, and other allowance payable to a person when that person is or becomes a lunatic towards whose maintenance a contribution is made out of moneys provided by Parliament) is hereby repealed.

Short title.

7. This Act may be cited as the Superannuation Act, 1914; and the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1909; and this Act may be cited together as the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1914.

PENSIONS TO CHAPLAINS.

Under the Act 22 Vict., c. 26 (Page 201) Pensions are granted to Chaplains attached to British Legations, and to Consular Chaplains appointed prior to 1899, calculated in the amount of the annual salary or contribution made by His Majesty's Government in each case. The contributions made by British residents towards the support of the Chaplain are not reckoned in the calculation.

RULES UNDER SUPERANNUATION ACTS.

Rules, dated July 31, 1911, made by the Treasury under Section 7 (1) of the Superannuation Act, 1909 (9 Edw. 7, c. 10),¶ adapting the Provisions of the Superannuation Act, 1892 (55 & 56 Vict., c. 40),* to those of the Superannuation Act, 1909.

1. No pension, allowance, or gratuity shall be granted under these rules in respect of any period of service in a public office as defined by the Superannuation Act, 1892 :—

- (a) if a pension, allowance or gratuity has already been granted in respect of it;
- (b) if it has been terminated otherwise than by the direct transfer of the officer to another public office, or by his final retirement under conditions entitling him to a retiring award according to the law or regulations applicable to the employment from which he finally retires.

2. Except in the cases to which Rule 9 applies, the pension, allowance, or gratuity to an officer on his final retirement, hereinafter referred to as the total award, shall be calculated on the aggregate service of the officer in the several public offices held by him reckoned as nearly as may be in accordance with the rules under the Superannuation Acts, 1834-1909; and subject to such reckoning the award shall be calculated according to the law and regulations applicable to, and on the emoluments of, the office from which he finally retires.

3. If an officer is entitled to a professional addition of years in respect of his first office, such addition shall be included in the calculation of the total award.

4. If an officer is entitled to a professional addition of years in respect of any office after his first, only so much of such addition shall be included as exceeds the total number of years of his previous service.

5. For the purpose of apportioning the total award among the funds and accounts liable to contribute a calculation shall be made of the award (hereinafter referred to as a hypothetical award) which would have been made to the officer if he had retired on the ground of ill-health at the date of his transfer from the service of each authority, other than the last, under whom he has served, based on the aggregate service up to that date and the emoluments received at that date.

*(Civil Service and Consular.)6. For the purpose of the above calculation—

(a) Service shall be reckoned as nearly as may be in accordance with the rules under the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1899, but otherwise a hypothetical award shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of this rule, be calculated according to the law and regulations in force at the date of the final retirement of the officer applicable to the service from which the officer is assumed to have retired;

(b) If the allowances under the total award include both a lump sum payment and an annuity, and each of the several authorities under which the officer has served has before the date of the final retirement of the officer adopted a system of superannuation which includes both a lump sum payment and an annuity, the hypothetical award shall be calculated as if such system had been applicable to the service of the officer under each of such authorities;

(c) In any other case, for the purpose of calculating a hypothetical award which, apart from the provisions of this paragraph, would include a lump sum payment, the lump sum shall be treated as if it were an annuity of such an amount as could have been purchased for the lump sum if invested at the date of the final retirement of the officer in an immediate life annuity according to the tables of the Imperial Post Office;

(d) If the number of years of an officer's entire service qualify him for pension as distinguished from gratuity under the rules applicable to the public office from which he finally retires, then the pension shall be apportioned among the several funds and accounts chargeable as though the period served in each public office had qualified for pension as distinguished from gratuity.

7. The amount to be contributed by the funds and accounts of each of the authorities under whom the officer has served shall be the difference between the hypothetical award calculated as aforesaid on the transfer from, and the hypothetical award calculated as aforesaid on the transfer to, the service of each authority, or in the case of the last authority the difference between the total award and the hypothetical award on the transfer of the officer to the service of that authority.

8. Nothing in these rules shall be held to authorize the grant of any gratuity in respect of the death of an officer whilst still employed in the service which is not provided for independently of these rules by the law or regulations applicable to the employment in which such death occurs; but previous service in another public office which might have been reckoned for pension under these rules may be reckoned, should the authority in whose service the officer was employed at the time of his death see fit, as qualifying service for the purpose of any gratuity in respect of such death which is so provided for, but such gratuity shall in such case be paid exclusively from the funds of the office in whose service the officer was employed at the time of his death.

9. Where a person having served continuously and successively in two or more public offices as defined by the Superannuation Act, 1892, retires under conditions entitling him to a retiring award according to the law or regulations applicable to the employment from which he retires, and it is found impracticable or inexpedient, owing to divergencies between the pension systems applicable to the several public offices held by him or for other reason, to deal with his case under the foregoing provisions, it shall be lawful for each or any of the several authorities under whom he has so served to grant him such pension, allowance, or gratuity as might have been granted to him had he retired from the service of that authority on the ground of ill-health, calculated according to the law applicable to, and upon the number of years of, his service under that authority.

Provided that if the aggregate number of years of an officer's service in all the public offices held by him qualify him for pension as distinguished from gratuity under the rules applicable to the public office from which he finally retires, then it shall be lawful for each or any authority to grant him a pension as distinguished from a gratuity.

Provided also that it shall be lawful to deal with the case of an officer who has served in more than two public offices partly under this rule, and partly under the foregoing rules.

10. The rules dated 20th July, 1892, framed by the Treasury under section 1 of the Act 55 & 56 Vict. cap. 40 (the Superannuation Act, 1892), are hereby revoked without prejudice to any action taken in pursuance of those rules.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns; that of Chargés d’Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence to their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d’Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULAR OFFICERS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

The comparative precedence of Consuls and of Officers in His Majesty's Naval and Military Services is as follows:—

Agents and Consuls-General or Commissioners and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Major-Generals, and with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. (See King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, Art. 98, Clause (a).)

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels; and Captains of the Royal Navy of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Majors; and Lieutenants, R.N., of eight years' standing.

Consular Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army; and Lieutenants, R.N., of less than eight years' standing.

Consular Officers take precedence amongst their colleagues in their respective grades according to the dates of the issue of their exequaturs.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation. Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to His Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Counsellor of Embassy, or to the First Secretary at posts where the staff does not include a Counsellor.

PROPERTY OF HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT.

(Embassies and Legations.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE OCCUPATION AND MAINTENANCE OF EMBASSY AND LEGATION HOUSES, THE PROPERTY OF, OR LEASED BY, H.M. GOVERNMENT.

The following Rules and Regulations in regard to the occupation, use, and maintenance of lands, buildings, furniture, &c., held by H.M. Government in foreign countries for the use of the Diplomatic Service, are issued under the joint authority of the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and of the First Commissioner of H.M. Works and Public Buildings.

GENERAL.

Definition of Word "Mission."

1. For the purpose of these Rules the word "Mission" will be used indiscriminately, whatever may be the class of the Mission, and the Chief of the Mission will be styled Minister, whether his official title be that of Ambassador, Minister, or Chargé d'Affaires. A list of the establishments which come under these Regulations is given in Appendix (A), page 219.

Responsibility of Chief of a Mission.

2. The Chief of a Mission for the time being is, unless otherwise specially arranged, to be deemed the officer in charge thereof. He will be responsible for such charge in the manner prescribed in these Rules, and, on entering into occupation, he will be required to sign an agreement in the form shown in Appendix (B), page 220.

Inventories of Furniture, &c., to be kept.

3. At each Mission are to be kept inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to H.M. Government, and copies of all instructions and rules relating to the management of the same. Duplicate copies of such documents will be retained in the Office of Works.

Survey of Buildings and Furniture to be made from time to time.—Damages, &c., to be made good.

4. From time to time, and, if possible, on every change of occupation, the First Commissioner of Works will cause a survey of the buildings and furniture to be made by a duly appointed officer of his Department. Such officer will take note of any deficiency, misuse, or waste of Government furniture or other property, in order that the cost of replacing any missing article, or of making good any damage or defect arising from neglect, or unfair or improper usage, may be recovered from the Minister. (See also Rules 25 and 26, pages 218 and 219.)

Survey on Change of Occupation.

5. The survey on change of occupation will, whenever possible, be made as soon as the outgoing Minister has removed his private property from the Mission. Until the survey has been made, the outgoing Minister must retain in charge of the house some servant or other person, responsible to him, who may represent him when the survey is made. The incoming Minister should also be either present or represented at the survey, and he or his representative should sign the inventories and take charge of the house as soon as the survey is completed. Ministers should communicate directly with the Office of Works as to the details of these arrangements.

Decision of Office of Works on all matters relating to Maintenance, &c., of Government Property. Appeal to Foreign Secretary. Treasury Decision, if appealed to, to be final.

6. The First Commissioner of Works shall, after consultation with the Minister when necessary, decide all matters relating to the maintenance and due preservation of the Government property before described, and to the expenditure of moneys thereon from the Vote administered by the First Commissioner. If, however, the Minister should be dissatisfied with the decision of the First Commissioner, it shall be open for him to appeal therefrom to the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs. Should the Secretary of State concur with the decision of the First Commissioner, such decision shall be treated as final and conclusive. In the event of the Secretary of State dissenting from the decision of the First Commissioner, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, whose decision thereon shall be recognised as final and conclusive by all the parties concerned.

Present permanent Official Residences deemed complete.—
Minister held Responsible for any Alterations or Additions without previous sanction.

7. The present permanent official residences shall be deemed complete and suitable in all respects for the reception of the Ministers appointed to occupy them, and no alteration or addition of any kind whatsoever to buildings, fittings or furniture will be paid for by the Office of Works unless such alteration or addition shall have been previously approved of by the First Commissioner. Should any alterations or additions be made without such approval, the Minister making them will be responsible, not only for the expense of the alterations or additions, but also for any expense which may be thought necessary by the First Commissioner for restoring buildings, fittings, or furniture to their original state.

Structural Repairs when required by urgent necessity.

8. In cases where structural repairs have been ordered by the Minister without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner the onus of proving urgent necessity rests upon the Minister (see also Rule 16, on this page).

Requisitions for Erection, &c., of Buildings, or for Purchasing of Property, &c.

9. All requisitions for the erection of buildings, or for works connected therewith, for purchases of property, and for purchases of furniture, are to be sent immediately the necessity arises, to the Office of works. Proposals involving large expenditure should be sent so as to reach that Department in London before the 1st September, so that, if approved by the First Commissioner, there may be time to submit them to the Treasury for consideration with the annual Estimates for the following year.

Precautions to be taken against Fire.

10. Ministers are to use all reasonable precautions against fire, and when fire-engines or other appliances are supplied, they are to satisfy themselves that they are examined from time to time, and, if necessary, worked, in order to ascertain that they are in an efficient state.

Responsibility of the Chargé d'Affaires in event of death of a Minister.

11. In the event of the death of a Minister or other vacancy in the post the Chargé d'Affaires will be responsible to H.M. Government for the proper custody of Government property. He should at once report to the First Commissioner the arrangements which he makes for this purpose, and should apply for his sanction to any expenditure that it may be necessary to incur pending the appointment of the new Minister.

In such circumstances the cost of heating, lighting and caretaking in the residential portion of the building will be defrayed by the Office of Works, but no liability will be accepted for any charge of this nature connected with the Chancery or offices. Expenditure necessary to keep the garden in order, such as the cost of labour, will be defrayed by the Office of Works, but application for the supply of implements, such as lawn-mowers and hose, will not be entertained.

Care of Residences in case of there being two.

12. At Missions where two official residences exist, as at Constantinople, Tehran, and Peking, the care of the residence that may be unoccupied, as well as of the Government furniture that may be therein, will devolve upon the Minister, but the caretaker's wages will be paid by the Office of Works.

Holding of Auctions upon Government Premises Forbidden.

13. The holding of auctions of private effects in or upon Government premises is strictly forbidden.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

Maintenance of Fabric of Buildings, &c.

14. The fabric of all Government buildings, with the permanent fixtures attached thereto, the boundary walls, entrance gates and approaches, will be kept in an efficient state of repair by the Office of Works.

External Painting and Internal Papering, &c.

15. Periodical painting and colouring externally, and papering, painting, colouring, &c., internally, will be done by the Office of Works. External painting will, as a rule, not be executed more frequently than once in every three or four years; nor internal painting more frequently than once in every seven years. Painting at shorter intervals than these will not be paid for by the Office of Works unless specially authorised beforehand by the First Commissioner, who must be satisfied that the need for it has arisen only from fair wear and tear.

Damage by Storm, Fire, &c.

16. In case of damage by storm, fire, or other casualty, the expense of restoration will be borne by the Office of Works, provided the Minister can show to the satisfaction of the First Commissioner of Works that the damage was in no way due to neglect of proper precautions. In such cases the Minister may order urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required will be large, he is, if possible, to obtain an estimate of the cost of repairing the damage, and to submit it to the First Commissioner before ordering any but the most indispensable repairs.

(Embassies and Legations.)

Renewal of Fittings and Fixtures, Petty Additions and Alterations and Ordinary Cleaning.

17. The cost of renewing fittings and fixtures, worn out by fair wear and tear, will be borne by the Office of Works, as well as the cost of petty household repairs. Petty additions and alterations, however, effected by the Minister without authority will, under Rule 7, not be paid for by the Office of Works. The Minister must himself defray the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the sweeping of chimneys, the cleaning of kitchen flues and boilers, and of tanks and cisterns.

Warming, Lighting, and Supply of Water.—Supply of Fuel, Electric Current, Gas and Water.

18. As regards warming, lighting, and the supply of water, the Office of Works, under the foregoing Rule, will provide, maintain, and repair the necessary apparatus and fittings; but, except at Missions where such payments are specially provided for, the Minister will be required to bear all charges for the actual supply of fuel, electric current, gas, and water.

Maintenance of Gardens and Pleasure Grounds.

19. The Minister will defray all expenditure necessary for the care and maintenance in good order of gardens and pleasure grounds, except at Bangkok, Cairo Residency, Christiania, Constantinople, Paris, Peking, Rome and Posilipo, Tehran and Gulhek, and Tokio, where special arrangements are in force. But even at these Missions no portion of the cost of maintaining private enclosures, kitchen gardens, or tennis lawns will be defrayed out of public funds.

19a. No trees except such as are of small size and value may be removed, nor may alterations be carried out in the grounds which are likely to increase the cost of maintenance, without the precedent sanction of the First Commissioner of Works.

Disinfection of Premises.

20. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of contagious or infectious disease in the household of a Minister, disinfection has become necessary in order to protect the health of the inmates, the Minister will be held responsible for providing that the premises are sufficiently disinfected, and for procuring from a medical officer a certificate that this has been done.

FURNITURE.

In Embassy and Legation Houses.

21. In Embassy or Legation houses, the property of H.M. Government, the reception-rooms, with the staircase and corridors leading thereto, the principal entrance and hall, the study, and the Chancery offices will be furnished at the public expense. The staircase to the landing of the floor above will also be furnished when this is in evidence from the hall, or from the ordinary approaches to the reception rooms.

Fire screens, clocks, table-lamps, candlesticks, chimney ornaments, and other decorative articles will not be supplied. Muslin curtains are not ordinarily provided, but they may be supplied when deemed by the First Commissioner or his representative to be necessary for the protection of the silk or other draperies supplied by the Office of Works. Rugs, other than hearthrugs, are only supplied with a parquet floor or an entirely plain carpet.

Furniture for all other portions of the house than those specified must be provided and kept in repair by the Minister, but where such furniture or articles as are excepted above have been provided in the past, they will be included in the inventories and left for use by Ministers, who will be held responsible for their maintenance. When worn out, however, they will not be replaced.

Movable Articles to be Stamped.

22. All movable articles belonging to H.M. Government are to be stamped or otherwise marked with the Royal arms, or the Royal cypher, thus G.  R.

Articles supplied in the past will be found marked V  R or E  R.

Renewal and Repair.—Periodical Cleaning.

23. The Office of Works, subject to the provisions contained in the two following rules, will bear the cost of renewing and repairing the Government furniture in the State Rooms and Chanceries, but the cost of ordinary and periodical cleaning, including the beating of carpets, the cleaning or washing of curtains, holland covers, &c., must be borne by the Minister.

Old Furniture Replaced by New.

24. The sanction of the First Commissioner of Works must be obtained before old furniture is replaced by new, and such sanction will only be granted when a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally purchased. Old articles, carpets, curtains, &c., must be returned to the Office of Works, or will be sold locally as directed by the First Commissioner.

Ministers Responsible for Preservation of Furniture and for Repairs of Defects caused by Improper Use.—Damage by Animals, Birds, &c., and by Pictures being on Walls.

25. Ministers will be held personally responsible for the due preservation of the official furniture, and for the immediate repair, at their personal cost, of defects arising from neglect, or unfair or improper use. It is to be distinctly understood that the Office of Works will refuse to defray the cost of renewing or repairing any article of furniture, carpets, curtains, &c., which may be destroyed or damaged by the keeping of animals, birds, &c., and that all such damage must be completely made good at the sole cost of the Minister. It is also to be understood that pictures are not to be hung, nor brackets, &c., fixed on walls covered with silk or similar material, and that where this rule has been disregarded, any damage caused thereby must be made good by the Minister at his own cost.

(Embassies and Legations.)Furniture, &c., not to be Removed without Written Sanction.

26. Furniture or other Government property is not, without the written sanction of the Office of Works, to be removed from apartments furnished at the public expense to apartments not so furnished. This prohibition applies equally to the removal of furniture from one Mission house to another. Should this rule be disregarded, and the articles become depreciated in value through being so transferred, or through being stored or otherwise neglected, the Minister will be held personally responsible for the depreciation.

State Room Furniture provided by the Minister.

27. In any case where a Minister may himself provide furniture for rooms which he is entitled to have furnished at the public expense, the Office of Works will pay, for the use and wear and tear of the furniture provided by the Minister, an annual allowance calculated at the rate of $7\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. on the sum that the Department estimates it would cost it to furnish the said rooms to the same extent. This allowance is, however, only payable for a period of two years with the consent of the Board of Works. Any extension of this period would only be considered in very exceptional circumstances and must receive the special authority of the Board. (See Appendix C, page 220.)

SERVICES OF SILVER PLATE.

27A. Services of silver plate have been provided at the Missions shown in Appendix (D). The Office of Works will bear the cost of maintenance and repair of these services, but any losses or injuries due to negligence will have to be made good by the Minister.

The plate must be checked with the inventory annually as soon as possible after the 1st January in each year, and a certificate as to its completeness and condition forwarded to the First Commissioner of Works.

ACCOUNTS.Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.—Currency and Rate of Exchange.

28. As soon as possible after the 30th June, 30th September, 31st December, and 31st March in each year the Minister should render to the Office of Works an account current (in a form which will be provided by that Department) of receipts and payments in the quarter, with supporting vouchers. Care should be taken to include in such account all transactions dealing with receipts and payments which have taken place within the quarter. The amounts should be given in the account in currency, a note of the sterling amount of any Bill of Exchange, and of the rate at which it was negotiated, being inserted in the "Schedule of Sums Received," under the heading "Detail" in the form in question. Should no cash transaction have taken place, an account should be rendered in which the fact should be stated.

Vouchers.

29. Where vouchers are made out in a language other than English or French, a brief translation or précis should accompany the voucher.

Audit.—Amended Accounts.—Items disallowed.

30. The Minister will be informed immediately after the examination of an account either that its correctness is admitted, subject to any question by the Comptroller and Auditor-General, or that it has been amended. If amended particulars of the alterations will be given, and the adjustment required by the Office of Works must be forthwith accepted by the Minister and made in the next account rendered by him. Should the Minister see cause to object to any alterations made by the Office of Works he should represent his views fully to the First Commissioner, who will carefully consider them. But pending his decision the Minister must not take credit in his current accounts for any items of expenditure disallowed by the Office of Works.

Drawing Bills.

31. The Minister is to defray charges incurred in accordance with these Regulations, and for this purpose may provide himself with funds by drawing a Bill on H.M. Paymaster-General at three days' sight. He should notify the fact to the Office of Works by post on the day on which the Bill is drawn, and should, with his letter, forward a certificate by a banker or merchant of the rate of exchange.

Separate Accounts.

32. Ministers are requested to arrange that tradesmen should not include in bills payable by the Office of Works any items of expenditure payable by the Minister. Separate accounts should be rendered for works ordered by, or on behalf of, the Office of Works, and for works ordered on behalf of the Minister.

Tradesmen's Accounts to be Rendered Quarterly.

33. It is very desirable that tradesmen's accounts for work done on behalf of the Office of Works should be rendered regularly at the conclusion of each quarter, and Ministers should use their influence to insure such regularity.

RULES AND REGULATIONS AS TO THE CARE OF THE PROPERTY OF H.M. GOVERNMENT AT THE TREATY PORTS IN CHINA AND JAPAN.

THE Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury having transferred to the Commissioners of H.M. Works and Public Buildings the charge of all the lands, buildings, furniture, and other property belonging to H.M. Government at the several Treaty ports in China and Japan, it is desirable that the following Rules and Regulations should be observed in the charge, use, and occupation of the said properties.

H.M. Ministers, Consuls, Vice-Consuls, Judges, Assistant Judges, and other Heads of Departments, who respectively have the use and occupation of buildings, furniture, or other property belonging to H.M. Government, are to be deemed officers in charge thereof, and to be responsible respectively for such charge in the manner prescribed by these Rules:—

Registers of Properties.

1. All freehold, leasehold, and other Government properties at or in the respective Legations are to be registered in the Office of Works at Shanghai.

*Inventories of Furniture, &c.

2. At each Legation, Consulate, Vice-Consulate, and at the offices of the Chief Judge and the Assistant Judge, is to be kept a Register of buildings, lands, furniture, &c., containing a complete description of the lands and buildings, inventories of the furniture and other properties belonging to the Government, and copies of all Circulars relative to the management of the same.

Liability of an Officer pending Appointment of a Successor.

3. On the removal of an officer in charge from a station, his successor is to examine, sign, and date the Register, and to become responsible for its correctness, and for the safe custody of the property until he shall be relieved of his duties.

Periodical Examination of Registers by Assistant Surveyor of Works.

4. The Registers at the several Treaty ports are to be periodically examined and checked by the Assistant Surveyor of Works and the officers in charge, who are directed to afford the Assistant Surveyor every facility in making periodical examinations of the Government property and in verifying the Registers.

Boundaries of Properties.

5. Where any doubts exist as to the actual extent of the Government lands at any of the ports, the officers in charge are to have the boundaries clearly defined, and to take care that they are not interfered with.

Interference with Properties.

6. Officers in charge are also to take means (or in case they are unable to do so, to apply to H.M. Minister and to the Assistant Surveyor for aid) to prevent the public bodies, municipalities, or private individuals from carrying out works, such as drains, roads, buildings, warehouses, bunds, piers, &c., which may directly injure or encroach upon any of the rights appertaining to the property of H.M. Government.

Every Building to have a fixed name.

7. Every building is to be known by a fixed name, which is not to be changed without the knowledge of the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, who is to report the change to the First Commissioner of Works.

Custody of Properties.

8. The officer in charge at each station is to be held responsible for the safe custody and the proper use of the grounds and buildings belonging to the station.

Unoccupied Buildings.

9. When any building is unoccupied, the officer in charge at the station is to see that it is kept fit to receive a new occupant.

Change of Officers.

10. On the removal of an officer from any station the officer left in charge is to take over and deliver up the Government property to the incoming officer, each officer noting in the Register the actual condition of the buildings, offices, furniture, and other property when the respective transfers are made.

Non-occupation of Buildings, &c., by Non-authorized Persons.

11. No buildings or premises are to be occupied or used by persons who are not entitled to be provided with accommodation at the Government expense without the previous sanction of the First Commissioner of Works.

Non-alteration of Buildings, &c.

12. No alterations in the buildings or properties are to be made, or the uses for which they were originally intended to be changed, without previous communication with the Assistant Surveyor.

Proposals for New Buildings, Purchase of Property, or other Services.

13. All proposals for new buildings, purchases of property, lodging allowances in lieu of house accommodation, and purchases of furniture, must be sent, immediately the necessity arises, to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai, and in time to admit of proper reference to the First Commissioner of Works.

Sudden Emergencies.

14. The Assistant Surveyor will be authorized to act without the previous authority of the First Commissioner in case of sudden emergencies, but only on condition that officers in charge report to the Assistant Surveyor all the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises.

* All Government Officers concerned are to send on the 1st January in each year to the Board's Architect at Shanghai a certificate that the articles of Government property in their charge have been checked and found correct, and that a note has been made on the inventory to that effect. A duplicate certificate to be sent to the Legation at Peking and Embassy at Tokio respectively. (Office of Works, Nov. 17, 1900.)

(China and Japan.)

Treasury Sanction for large Expenditure.

15. Proposals involving large expenditure are to be sent to the Assistant Surveyor at Shanghai by or before the month of October, in order that they may be submitted to the First Commissioner in time to obtain Treasury authority for including the cost thereof in the annual estimates for the following year.

Non-purchase or Hire of Houses, &c., without sanction.

16. No houses or premises are to be purchased or hired without the sanction of the First Commissioner or the Assistant Surveyor.

Form of Application.

17. Applications for purchasing or hiring premises are to state: the situation, extent, and value of the premises; reasons for having made the selection; intended appropriation; amount of rent, conditions of hiring, &c.; length of term proposed; state of repair; whether the proprietor will undertake to keep the premises in proper repair; probable cost of making any alterations which may be required, and whether the proprietor will pay for making the alterations; and no liability for expenditure is to be incurred without the previous approval of the Assistant Surveyor.

Claims for Lodging Allowances.

18. Claims for lodging or house allowances are to be accompanied by a full report from the officer in charge of the station, explaining the necessity for granting the allowances. It will then be the duty of the Assistant Surveyor to ascertain and certify that the claim is fair and reasonable, and that by granting the allowance the most economical course has been pursued.

Assistant Surveyor's Responsibility.

19. The Assistant Surveyor of Works is to be held responsible for the proper repair and maintenance of all the Government buildings and properties under his charge, and he is to take steps to prevent unauthorized works being executed without his sanction, reporting the circumstances to the First Commissioner of Works.

Office of Works to pay for Offices.

20. The Assistant Surveyor of Works will pay out of the amount allowed for incidental services the cost of urgent ordinary tenants' repairs for offices used for public business, if executed by order of the officer in charge of the office, provided the cause and nature of the repair is reported to and approved by the Assistant Surveyor when the claim is presented for payment.

Office of Works to pay for all Landlord's Repairs.

21. Government fittings and fixtures, whether in residences or offices requiring repair, arising from fair wear and tear, may be repaired or replaced by the officer in charge of a residence or office, provided he previously obtains the sanction of the Assistant Surveyor to effect such repairs. In very urgent cases of repairs, the officer in charge of a residence or office may effect the repairs of fittings and fixtures before receiving the Assistant Surveyor's sanction, provided the officer reports the circumstances of the case immediately the necessity arises. The Assistant Survveyor is then to ascertain and certify to the First Commissioner of Works that the repairs were absolutely necessary, and that the prices charged for them are fair and reasonable.

Residents to pay for ordinary Tenant's Repairs.

22. Officers in charge of residences are to be responsible for keeping them in a tenable condition, and to pay for the current household repairs ordinarily paid by a tenant, such as replacing broken glass, repairing locks and keys, repairing and hanging bells, replacing catches and hooks on Venetian shutters, windows, and doors; easing and rehanging shutters, windows, and doors, and repairing and resetting grates: provided always, that when the Assistant Surveyor shall, on periodical inspection, consider that such are required in consequence of ordinary wear and tear, he shall have authority to cause them to be executed at the public expense.

Urgent Repairs.

23. Officers in charge of properties or buildings which may be damaged by storms or other casualties, may order small or temporary urgent repairs to be executed at once; but where the damage is extensive, and the outlay required for permanent works will be large, the officer in charge is to obtain the advice and sanction of the Assistant Surveyor before ordering any permanent works to be executed.

24. In all cases of urgent repairs arising from storms or other casualties, officers in charge of properties of buildings so damaged are to report their reasons fully to the Assistant Surveyor for having expended money upon temporary repairs, or for proposing to incur expenditure upon permanent works.

Payments for works done by Officers in charge.

25. Payments for works previously authorized, and for urgent repairs sanctioned by the Assistant Surveyor, and executed by order of the officer in charge of any building, are to be made from the Legation or Consular chest, and the amounts so paid will be refunded by the Assistant Surveyor upon receiving duly signed vouchers, in duplicate, made out on the proper official form.

(Proper forms for the vouchers will be supplied upon application to the Assistant Surveyor of Works at Shanghai.)

26. Vouchers for repayment should be despatched in time to reach the Office of Works at Shanghai at such date before the end of each quarter as will admit of the amount being refunded at once. At stations where it is impossible to supply vouchers to and receive payment from the Office of works before the close of the quarter in which the repairs or works are executed, payment for such repairs or works should be deferred until the subsequent quarter, in order that no entries may appear in the Consular accounts for advances from the Consular chest on account of the Office of Works.

27. All moneys paid by officers in charge of properties or buildings in any other currency than dollars must be entered in the vouchers in dollars.

Cooking-stoves and cooking ranges.

28. Fixed ranges, where not already provided, will gradually be installed by the Office of Works, but the officer in charge will be responsible for repairs except those due to fair wear and tear. Movable stoves and other cooking utensils will not be supplied by H.M. Government.

Supply of Books.

29. All books, legal and others, are to be obtained as heretofore on requisition from the Stationery Office, and they are to be stamped with the office, seal and the name of the office to which they belong is to be marked on the title-page.

Supply of Furniture.

30. Articles of furniture of a plain and durable description will be furnished at the public expense to the following rooms, viz.:—the Chancery offices at Peking and Yedo (Tokio), the Judicial and Consular Offices in China and Japan; Court-room and jail fittings, and partial furniture for the Students' quarters only at Peking and Yedo (Tokio).

31. The business rooms of the Ambassador, Ministers, Judges, and Consuls are to be supplied with carpets or matting.

32. The offices of the Supreme Court, Consular and other offices used for public business are to be supplied with chairs, tables, desks, presses for books and stationery, and fenders and fire-irons, all of good and durable quality.

33. Any furniture or other articles desired by any officer beyond the regulated provision are to be provided, and must be removed by the officers at their own expense.

34. Before additional furniture is purchased, or old articles replaced by new ones at the public expense, it must be shown that additional furniture is absolutely necessary, and that a reasonable time has elapsed since the articles to be replaced were originally supplied.

35. In order to guard against the misuse or waste of furniture or other office movable property, officers in charge of offices will be held responsible for their due preservation and for the immediate repair of defects arising from accidents or unfair use, the cost of which is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

36. All movable articles belonging to H.M. Government are to be marked with the Royal Cypher and Broad Arrow, thus, G. † R. The brand will be supplied by the Office of Works.

Watchmen.

37. Watchmen paid by the Government are to be employed solely for the protection of the public offices and grounds and not for the private residences of officers.

Boats.

38. The cost of renewing or repairing boats, boat furniture, boatmen's uniform, flags, running rigging, sails, awnings, &c., is not to be charged to the Office of Works.

39. New boats are to be of plain construction (substantial gigs), built of teak or other durable wood, copper riveted, about 26 feet in length, 5 feet 6 inches in the beam, 2 feet 2 inches in depth, square sterned, and fitted for four oars.

40. Applications for new boats are to be sent to H.M. Ambassador or Minister, accompanied with a report of the age and service of any boat which may be worn out, or of the reason for applying for an additional boat.

Flags.

42. The cost of running rigging and repairs to flagstuffs is to be charged to the Office of Works.

Precautions against Fire.

43. Officers in charge are to use all reasonable precaution to protect Government property from fire.

44. Each public building is to be provided with one "extincteur" and at least twelve fire-buckets, which are to be kept in the verandahs, lobbies, or other equally convenient place, filled with water and ready for immediate use.

45. All fireplaces are to be provided with cinder-boxes or trays to fit, and strong, close-mesh wire guards; no live cinders are to be carried across the rooms, nor are the fires in the grates to be raked out; but when done with each fire is to be protected with its wire guard.

46. The foregoing articles will be supplied on requisition by the Office of Works, and the officer in charge of each building will be held responsible for their being kept at all times in working order; and where a fire-engine is stationed the officer in charge is to see that it is always in working order.

Report upon any Fires which may have broken out.

47. In the event of a fire breaking out in any of the Government buildings, the officer in charge is immediately to assemble a Court of Inquiry to ascertain the origin of the fire, and to inquire into the working condition of the foregoing appliances at the time of the fire, and the result of their use. He is then to draw up a Report of all the circumstances and send copies of his report to H.M. Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs and the First Commissioner of Works and Public Buildings.

48. The Assistant Surveyor of Works (if within easy reach) is, by virtue of his office, to be a member of the Board of Inquiry.

* This Regulation was cancelled in October, 1904, when a new arrangement was made under which Consuls apply to the Consul-General at Shanghai for the flags required by them. The flags authorized to be issued are as follows:—

Consular Shore flag	8 breadths; 12 feet by 6 feet.
Do.	4 breadths; 6 feet by 3 feet.
Consular Boat flag	4 breadths; 6 feet by 3 feet.

(Consular Houses.)

REGULATIONS FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF CONSULAR HOUSES.

Chapter V, § 27 of General Consular Instructions.

In all cases (except in China and Japan), where the Consular Houses are the property of, or are hired by, H.M. Government, the occupying officer shall, at his own expense, execute all internal repairs to the residential portion of the building.

In such cases the officer will furnish, at the beginning of September in each year, a statement of the repairs and redecorations which he has had executed during the previous twelve months and of their cost; together with a certificate from a competent person, whose qualifications must be described, to the effect that the house is in good repair and fitted for immediate occupation.

On removal from the post, the officer will make satisfactory arrangements for the care of the house pending the arrival of his successor. The cost of caretaking will be borne by the substantive officer, or, so long as the post is actually vacant, by the Office of Works.

In those cases where the furniture has been provided by H.M. Government, the occupying officer will, at his own expense, make good any loss or damage arising from neglect or carelessness, and on removal will hand over the furniture in good condition to his successor. The latter will check the articles by an inventory and report any case of loss, which will be made good at the expense of the retiring officer.

The Office of Works will execute structural and external repairs, including external painting, to the residential portion of the building; and the whole of the repairs to the portion used solely for official purposes.

CONSULAR SERVICE.

FULL-DRESS.

Coat—Blue cloth; Prussian collar; single breasted; to be buttoned with nine buttons placed at equal distances; and to be embroidered with laurel and oak leaf in silver and saw edge in gold on blue-black velvet, according to pattern; two buttons on the back at the waist and one on each tail.

The coat of a CONSUL GENERAL is embroidered on the collar, cuffs, pocket-flaps, and back; the embroidery to be two and a-half inches wide.

The coat of a CONSUL is embroidered on the collar, cuffs, pocket-flaps, and back; the embroidery to be two inches wide.

The coat of a VICE-CONSUL is embroidered only on the collar and cuffs; the embroidery to be one and a-half inches wide. On the collar the silver embroidery is on the front and sides only, leaving one-third of the velvet collar with the gold saw edge alone.

Buttons—Gilt, convex, frosted; having the Royal arms without supporters; the same pattern of button to be used in each rank.

Hat.—CONSUL-GENERAL:—black, cocked, regulation pattern, without blinding; the fan or back part eleven inches, the front nine and a-half inches, each corner five and a-half inches; black ribbons on the two front sides; black cockade and trolle bullion loop of silver, according to pattern; plain gold bullion tassels, and edging of black ostrich feather.

CONSUL.—The same as the Consul-General, but without the feather, and with a double bullion loop.

VICE-CONSUL.—The same as the Consul, but with only a single bullion loop.

The hat should be worn with the cockade on the right.

Sword.—French hilt, gilt wire grip, and helmet top; blade of thirty inches; black leather scabbard with gilt mountings; gold lace guard sword-knot with worked head, and tassels of small dead and bright gold bullions; white silk web belt, to be worn under the coat, with blue cloth frog. The same pattern of sword to be used in each rank.

Trousers—Blue cloth; with a stripe of silver lace down the outward seam.

The lace for Consuls-General is the oak-leaf pattern scalloped, two and a-quarter inches wide; for Consuls and Vice-Consuls, the same pattern, one and three-quarter inches wide.

Breeches—At His Majesty's Bells and Courts, and on other occasions when ordered, white kerseymere breeches are to be worn with white silk stockings, shoes and gilt buckles; with white frog for the sword in lieu of blue one.

UNDRESS.

Plain Coat of blue cloth, with black velvet collar.

Buttons—Gilt, convex, having the letters G.R. within a Garter surmounted by a Crown; two similar buttons of smaller dimensions on each cuff.

Waistcoat—Morning, buff; evening, white; with similar buttons of smaller dimensions.

band, and a small cloth button at side; badge in front, G.R. embroidered in gold, surmounted by a crown; plain black leather peak.

CLOAK AND CAPE.

Cloak—Blue cloth of any substance; double-breasted; lined scarlet; to reach within a foot of the ground; stand and fall black velvet collar; two rows of buttons in front, six in each row, and six inches apart across; blue cloth strap behind, with a large button at each end.

Cape—Blue cloth, lined black, with four small button down front, and to button on to collar of cloak; gilt hook and chain.

The buttons are to be of the pattern worn upon the undress uniform.

The cloak and cape may be worn together or separately.

CONSULAR AGENTS wear the uniform of Vice-Consuls. No uniform is worn by Pro-Consuls.

CONSULAR ASSISTANTS in the Ottoman Dominions, Persia, Greece, and Morocco, and in China, Corea, Japan, and Siam, are permitted to wear the Vice-Consular uniform. The Chief Clerk of the Supreme Court at Shanghai has the same privilege.

STUDENT INTERPRETERS are allowed to wear the undress uniform of the same rank.

CANCELLIERS attached to British Consulates in the Levant wear the dress of Vice-Consuls, without the embroidery on the cuffs.

A Consular officer who does not hold a diplomatic appointment must not, without permission, wear any other than the Consular uniform; should he hold an appointment entitling him to wear another uniform, he is not allowed, during his employment in the Consular service, to wear such other uniform without special permission from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Orders should be worn as follows:—

On the left breast (the clasp being on a level with the second button) on the full dress coat.

The ribbon only of the Orders to be worn on the undress morning coat, on the left breast.

Miniatures of Orders to be worn on the left lapel of evening coat on official occasions.

The Full Dress uniform with breeches is worn only at His Majesty's Bells and Courts, and on important State occasions when ordered.

The Full Dress with trousers ("levee dress") is worn at His Majesty's levees; on State occasions abroad; on paying official visits to, and receiving official visits from, the Commanders of His Majesty's ships of war; and at Naval Courts.

The Undress without sword may be worn on common occasions. In times of danger, as for instance during revolutionary disturbances or riots, when the Consular officer may be obliged to absent himself from his office or residence on official business, and may require some further distinctive mark of his rank, the sword may be worn in addition to the undress uniform.

It should be carried in a blue cloth frog projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat.

It must be clearly understood that the authority to wear the sword applies only to very exceptional occasions.

DIPLOMATIC AND CONSULAR OFFICERS.

WHITE UNIFORM TO BE WORN IN HOT CLIMATES.

The uniform is to be made of white drill, with embroidery on the cuffs and collar of the same width and material as that now worn by Diplomatic and Consular Officers respectively, but worked on white cloth and detachable; two breast pockets, each buttoned with a small gilt button; buttons full dress or undress; white drill trousers without lace; white gloves and black boots. It will be worn with a white helmet, bearing on the front a gilt badge with the Royal Arms with supporters.

NOTE.—The sword should be worn on paying or returning official visits and on other occasions of ceremony. It should be carried in a white frog, projecting through a slit on the left side of the coat, and attached to a belt which should be worn under the coat. On these occasions a spike should be worn on the helmet.

KING'S FOREIGN SERVICE MESSENGERS.

(Regulations of July 20, 1909. § 27.)

Uniform and Badge.

The Messengers are permitted to wear the Civil Service uniform of the 5th Class*, and are furnished by the Foreign Office with a Badge for use when travelling, which may also be worn with the Civil uniform. The Badge must be returned to the Chief Clerk in good condition on the retirement of the Messenger from the service.

* See page 235.

VISITS OF CEREMONY.

Articles 97 and 98 of King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions.

BRITISH DIPLOMATIC FUNCTIONARIES.

97.—(1.) Every Flag or other Officer in Command will, on arrival, pay the first visit to His Majesty's Diplomatic Functionaries in charge of Embassies or Legations of or above the rank of Chargé d'Affaires, but they will receive the first visit from Diplomatic Functionaries below that rank.

(2.) In case of doubt as to the status of a Diplomatic Functionary in charge of an Embassy or Legation an Officer should be sent on shore to ascertain it previous to the interchange of visits.

CONSULAR AUTHORITIES.

98. On the arrival of a Fleet, Squadron, or Ship at a Foreign Port, the first visit will be made by the Naval or Consular Officer who is subordinate in relative rank to the other, according to the following scale:—

- | | | |
|---|-----|---|
| (a.) Agents and Consuls-General, or Commissioners and Consuls-General ... | ... | To rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, except in the cases of the Agents and Consuls-General in Egypt and Zanzibar,* who, occupying positions similar to those of Governors, take precedence of all Flag Officers. |
| (b.) Consuls-General ... | ... | To rank with, but after, Commodores. |
| (c.) Consuls ... | ... | To rank with, but after, Captains of the Royal Navy of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains. |
| (d.) Vice-Consuls ... | ... | To rank with, but after Lieutenants of eight years' standing. |
| (e.) Consular Agents ... | ... | To rank with, but after, all other Lieutenants. |

* No longer applicable to Egypt and Zanzibar.

PAPERS SET AT A LIMITED COMPETITION OF CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENTS IN THE GENERAL CONSULAR SERVICE, JULY, 1910.*

SUBJECTS FOR ENGLISH COMPOSITION.

Time allowed, 14 hours.

Select one of the following subjects:—

1. The factors that determine whether a nation at a given period develops in the direction of industries or of agriculture.
2. How far should scientific research be aided by the State?
3. "The work of eradicating crime is not by making punishments familiar but formidable."—GOLDSMITH.

Précis.

Time allowed, 24 hours.

Having read the accompanying Correspondence—

1. Make an Index of the several letters and other papers,† with the exception of those indexed below.
2. Draw up a Précis of what passed.

N.B.—You are warned that full marks cannot be obtained unless both the Index and the Précis are attempted.

DIRECTIONS.

- (1.) The Index should deal separately with every letter or document, covering or inclosed. It should contain the date and place of each letter or document; the names of the persons by whom and to whom it is written; and the subject of it. The merits of such an Index are: (a) to give the really important point or points of each letter or document, omitting everything else; (b) to do this briefly, distinctly, and in such a form as readily to catch the eye.

SPECIMEN OF INDEX.

Number.	Date and Place.	Correspondents.	Subject-matter.
	February 16, 1891. Samoa.	Consul Cusack-Smith to Marquis of Salisbury.	Reporting the election of the Municipal Council, which will exercise limited powers until their President arrives.

- (2.) The object of the Précis is that anyone might, by reading it, master all the leading features of the Correspondence. The Précis should contain all that is (and nothing that is not) important in the Correspondence, presented in the form of a consecutive narrative (without marginal reference) as briefly as is consistent with perfect distinctness. The length of the Précis should be between 200 and 300 words.

Enfin, vers le temps de la bataille de Saragosse, le conseil du roi d'Espagne et la plupart des grands, voyant qu'ils n'avaient aucun capitaine à opposer à Staremborg, qu'on regardait comme un autre Eugène, écrivirent en corps à Louis XIV pour lui demander le duc de Vendôme. Ce prince, retiré dans Anet, partit alors, et sa présence valut une armée. La grande réputation qu'il s'était faite en Italie, et que la malheureuse campagne de Lille n'avait pu lui faire perdre, frappait les Espagnols. Sa popularité, sa libéralité, qui allait jusqu'à la profusion, sa franchise, son amour pour les soldats, lui gagnaient les cœurs. Dès qu'il mit les pieds en Espagne, il lui arriva ce qui était arrivé à Bertrand du Guesclin. Son nom seul attira une foule de volontaires. Il n'avait point d'argent: les communautés des villes, des villages et des religieux en donnèrent. Un esprit d'enthousiasme saisit la nation.

Les débris de la bataille de Saragosse se joignirent sous lui à Valladolid. Tout s'efforça de fournir des recrues. Le duc de Vendôme, sans laisser ralentir un moment cette nouvelle ardeur, poursuit les vainqueurs, ramène le roi à Madrid, oblige l'ennemi de se retirer vers le Portugal, le suit, passe le Tage à la nage, fait prisonnier, dans Brihuega, Stanhope avec cinq mille Anglais (9 décembre), atteint le général Staremborg, et le lendemain lui livre la bataille de Villa-Viciosa.

VOLTAIRE.

Nous entrons dans Philippopoli au nombre de soixante ou quatre-vingts cavaliers; la foule est aux fenêtres et dans les rues pour voir ce cortège; nous sommes reçus par la sœur et les tantes de M. Maurides:—maison vaste et élégante:—beau divan percé de vingt-quatre fenêtres et meublé à l'euro-péenne, où le gouverneur et les chefs des différentes nations de la ville viennent nous complimenter et prendre le café.

Philippopoli est une ville de trente mille âmes, à quatre journées d'Andrinople, à huit journées de Sophia, située au bord d'un fleuve, sur un monticule de rochers isolés au milieu d'une large et fertile vallée; c'est un des plus beaux sites naturels de ville que l'on puisse se représenter: la montagne forme une corne à deux sommets, tous les deux également couronnés de maisons et de jardins, et les rues descendent en serpentant circulairement, pour en adoucir les pentes, jusqu'aux rives du fleuve, qui circule lui-même au pied de la ville et l'enveloppe d'un fossé d'eau courante; l'aspect des ponts, des jardins, des maisons, des grands arbres qui s'élevaient des rives du fleuve, de la plaine boisée qui sépare le fleuve des montagnes de la Macédoine, de ces montagnes elles-mêmes, dont les flancs sont coupés de torrents, et semés de villages ou de grands monastères grecs, fait du jardin du M. Maurides un des plus admirables points de vue du monde; la ville est peuplée par moitié de Grecs, d'Arméniens et de Turcs. Les Grecs sont en général instruits et commerçants; les principaux d'entre eux font élever leurs enfants en Hongrie; l'oppression des Turcs ne leur semble que plus pesante ensuite; ils soupirent après l'indépendance de leurs frères de la Morée.

The Marquis of Salisbury to Count Hatzfeldt.
Foreign Office, November 5.

M. L'Ambassadeur.

In view of the increasing prevalence of the slave trade on the east coast of Africa, and of the disturbances and impediments to legitimate trade which it produces, Her Majesty's Government accede to the proposal of the Imperial Government to establish, with the assent of the Sultan of Zanzibar, on the shores of His Highness's continental dominions, a blockade against the importation of munitions of war and the exportation of slaves.

The programme for the execution of the blockade is to be settled by the English and German Admirals in concert, and the blockade shall continue until either Power gives notice of the intention to discontinue it.

That the blockade may be effective for the above-mentioned purposes, it is essential that the ships of war of the two Powers should have, within the area of the blockade, the right of visiting and, in case of need, detaining any suspected ship, under whatever flag she may be sailing. The Government of Her Majesty will associate itself with the Government of the Emperor in urging upon other Powers to agree to the arrangements necessary for this purpose.

As the slave trade, and the preparations of the traders who conduct it, extend to the neighbouring Portuguese dominions, it would be advantageous and desirable to obtain the co-operation of Portugal and the consent of that Power to the extension of the blockade to the Portuguese coast.

I have, &c.,
SALISBURY.

FRENCH DICTATION.

Sur le champ de bataille, ceux qui doivent combattre le plus hardiment et valent sont souvent ceux-là mêmes qui, au début de l'action, étaient particulièrement émus, en proie à une lâcheté physique dont ils avaient honte.

Turenne déclare que son corps était tout secoué de peur, même après vingt ans de guerres, quand une bataille allait s'engager. Et, avec un mélange de colère et d'ironie, le grand capitaine s'exhortait de la sorte: "Tremble, carcasse, disait-il; tu tremblerais plus encore si tu savais où je vais te conduire."

Le vrai courage résulte de la volonté de l'homme maître de soi, ayant le sentiment du devoir poussé jusqu'au sacrifice.

Comme pour l'exercice de la volonté, l'habitude du courage en rend la pratique facile.

Faire un premier acte réellement courageux, là où le péril était grand, c'est rendre aisée, dans la suite, les manifestations du courage lorsque s'en présentera l'occasion.

"Le parfait courage consiste à faire sans témoin ce que l'on serait capable de faire devant tout le monde."

Als die Gründung der Buchdruckerkunst und die Reihe von kühnen Erabenteuern, die in der Entdeckung Amerikas gipfelte, ihre volle Wirkung auf das materielle und geistige Leben auszuüben begannen, wurde es unvermeidlich, daß von da an die Kultur nicht nur dem Orte, sondern auch der Art nach sich wesentlich von allem Vorhergegangenen unterscheidet. Unmittelbar nach den Reisen des Kolumbus und des Vasco da Gama begann eine gewaltige religiöse Bewegung; das Erwachen des Intellekts ging Hand in Hand mit moralischer Erhebung. Seitdem haben, Jahrhunderte für Jahrhunderte, die Änderungen an Schnelligkeit und Kompliziertheit zugenommen und in dieser doppelten Hinsicht im letzten Jahrhundert ihren Höhepunkt erreicht. Nicht bei einem, sondern bei vielen Völkern ist eine außerordentliche

Zunahme an Reichtum, Bevölkerung, an organisatorischer Stärke, wie in der Meisterung mechanischer Kräfte und natürlicher Hilfsquellen, wahrnehmbar. Das Ergebnis ist ebenso mannigfaltig wie augenfällig, und zum ersten Male ist etwas vorhanden, das sich einer Weltkultur einer Weltbewegung nähert. Die Ausbreitung der Völker Europas hat sich seit den Tagen Herkulanus des Katholischen und Zwangs des Schrecklichen über alle Ozeane und Kontinente erstreckt. An einigen Stellen sind die Eroberungen ethnologischer Natur gewesen, z. B. es hat eine Völkerwanderung stattgefunden, und neue Staaten sind entstanden, deren Bevölkerung ganz oder hauptsächlich von europäischem Blut abstammt; an andern Stellen ist die Eroberung rein politisch gewesen.

Ermöglicht zeigen sich hier und da Beispiele dafür, das ein fremdes Volk nur durch die Einfuhr von westlicher Kultur gründlich und vollständig verändert werden ist. Das außerordentlichste Beispiel hierfür ist natürlich Japan, denn Japans Wachstum und Umwandlung während des letzten halben Jahrhunderts ist nach vieler Hinsicht die auffallendste Erscheinung der gesamten Geschichte. Gewaltig stieg auf die Geschichte seiner Vergangenheit, tief ergeben gewissen Überlieferungen seiner Vergangenheit, hat es sich mit einem Ruck von alten alten, benannten Äpfeln befreit und mit einem Sprung seinen Platz unter den führenden Kulturnationen der Menschheit eingenommen.

Der Sieg von Dornika bildete den Höhepunkt der britischen Stellung in Ostindien. Sie ist auch in den napolenischen Kämpfen nicht ernstlich gefährdet worden und bis weit ins 19. Jahrhundert hinein hat sie sich auf diesem Höhepunkte erhalten. Dann aber ist ein Sinken eingetreten, wirtschaftlich wie politisch. Ostindien hat schon lange nicht mehr den wirtschaftlichen Wert für Großbritannien, den es einst gehabt hat. Großbritannien ist durchaus ein Industriestaat geworden, und die Rohstoffe und Nährstoffe, deren es bedarf, kann ihm Ostindien nicht liefern. Für diese ist es auf seine andern großen Kolonien und vor allem die Vereinigten Staaten angewiesen. Die ganze Wirtschaft der westindischen Inseln war in der Hauptsache auf ein einziges Erzeugnis zugeschnitten, den Rohzucker, der in der alten Zeit wohl einen äußerst hohen Gewinn abwarf, heute aber gegen den Rohzucker nicht mehr aufkommen kann, selbst wenn die Herstellungsweise sich der besten neuen Hilfsmittel bedient. Nun war die Blüte der Zuckerpflanzungen nur möglich gewesen durch die Sklavenarbeit, und England hatte Neget in solchen Mengen eingeführt, daß die weiße Bevölkerung dagegen vollständig verschwand. Die Sympie, obwohl sie die Sklavenarbeit ebenso wenig verschmähten, hielten sich die Neget nicht so über den Kopf wachsen lassen, sondern haben ihre Inseln spanisch gemacht und spanisch erhalten.

threw the whole diplomacy of Europe into a state of not unnatural consternation. The one prominent fact was as simple as it was astounding. Whilst a congress was sitting to settle the terms of a treaty between two belligerent Powers, and the success of the assembled diplomatists was known to depend largely on their keeping their proceedings absolutely secret until they should have arrived at some definite result, a draft copy of the treaty suddenly appeared in the columns of a well-known London newspaper. A thunder-bolt falling in their midst could not have startled the plenipotentiaries more. In fact, for the moment, this premature revelation threatened to put an end to the congress altogether, as it seemed to point inevitably to a breach of faith on the part of one of the members. Of course, an attempt was made to disavow the draft treaty, and, as a matter of fact, this premature publication rendered it absolutely necessary to modify some of its provisions, more especially those of the famous thirteenth clause. But none the less the draft treaty, as originally published, was known to be correct in all its main details, and the question arose how it had been possible for any newspaper to obtain a knowledge of these details while the congress was still sitting, and all its deliberations were veiled in the profoundest secrecy.

GERMAN DICTATION.

The Candidates were informed that they should make use, preferably, of German characters.

Die Umwandlung der Produktions-, Geld- und Absatzverhältnisse, die durch die Entdeckung von Amerika und den Seeweg nach Ostindien besonders für Deutschland fühlbar wurde, erzeugte zunächst eine große Reaktion auf sozialem Gebiete. Deutschland hörte auf, der Mittelpunkt des europäischen Verkehrs und Handels zu sein. Spanien, Portugal, Holland, England übernahmen, hintereinander sich folgend, die leitende Stellung, und letzteres behielt sie bis in unsere Zeit. Das deutsche Gewerbewesen, der deutsche Handel gerieten in Verfall. Zugleich hatte die kirchliche Reformation die politische Einheit der Nation zerstört. Die Reformation war der Deckmantel, unter welchem das Christentum sich von der Kaiser Gewalt zu emanzipieren suchte. Auserseits unterjochte tiefes Christentum die Welt Gewalt und begünstigte, um diesen Zweck leichter zu erreichen, die Städte, die es mit Rechten und Privilegien aller Art bedachte. Auch begaben sich nicht wenige Städte an, geistlich der immer trüber werdenden Zeitalter freiwillig unter die Herrschaft der Fürsten. Aber die schließliche Wirkung war, daß das durch den ökonomischen Rückgang in seinem Gewerbe erschöpfte Bürgertum immer heftere Schranken errichtete, um sich vor unheimlichem Wettbewerb zu schützen. Die Vertrohung der Zustände nahm zu, aber damit auch die Verarmung.

Al lado de la clase media propiamente dicha, más ó menos adinerada ó pudiente—y con la cual se confunden los nobles de segundo grado que toman fuero de vecindad ó proceden de la burguesía.—figuran en las villas y ciudades los trabajadores, jornaleros y menestrales de condición inferior, que gozan también del fuero y de los privilegios que este otorga, aunque económicamente se hallen supeditados á la clase media y encuentren limitada su libertad en este orden por las tasas de jornales, la limitación de horas de trabajo y otras tralas análogas que estudiaremos en el lugar oportuno. No se marca, sin embargo, oposición de clase que merezca notarse entre los dos elementos de la vida social ciudadana, ya porque el popular era aún escaso, ya porque no se señalaban en su situación tan graves males como andando el tiempo se produjeron, ya también porque les unía el interés común de la libertad concejil.

Por de pronto, las medidas que se tomaban para combatir el incendio, no dejaban de ser una excusa muy atencible: en lo más apartado y solo de la bahía, no hubiera sido fácil luchar contra el fuego como se estaba luchando allí desde tierra y desde el barco mismo, con todos los recursos de que se podía disponer, dentro y fuera, y una voluntad y una valentía que á Pachín le tenían entusiasmado. Bomberos, marinos, paisanos de todos pelajes... de todo habían aquella legión de trabajadores, y nadie economizaba las fuerzas ni esquivaba los peligros: el agua caía á chorros en las bodegas incendiadas, y por todos los portillos de su obra muerta entraban y salían hormigueros de hombres bien organizados que ponían á salvo del incendio, sobre el muelle, cuanto podía cargarse al hombro ó sacarse entre las manos, de las cámaras del vapor: libros, cajas, muebles, ropas, aparatos náuticos, papeles y mil cosas más, cuyo destino desconocía Pachín González en su ignorancia de aldeano de tierra adentro.

I passed along the western side of the lake where the ground was easier, and when I had got about halfway I expected that I should see the plains which I had already seen from the opposite mountains; but it was not to be so, for the clouds rolled up to the very summit of the pass, though they did not overtop it on the side from which I had come. I therefore soon found myself enshrouded by a cold thin vapour, which prevented my seeing more than a very few yards in front of me. Then I came upon a large patch of old snow, in which I could distinctly trace the half-melted tracks of goats—and in one place, as it seemed to me, there had been a dog following them. Had I lighted upon a land of shepherds? The ground, where not covered with snow, was so poor and stony, and there was so little herbage, that I could see no sign of a path or regular sheep-track. But I could not help feeling rather uneasy as I wondered what sort of reception I might meet with if I were to come suddenly upon inhabitants. I was thinking of this, and proceeding cautiously through the mist, when I began to fancy that I saw some objects darker than the cloud looming in front of me.

De Quincy reports the saying of some admiring friend of Hazlitt, who confessed to a shudder whenever Hazlitt used his habitual gesture of placing his hand within his waistcoat. The hand might emerge armed with a dagger. Whenever, said the same friend (Heaven preserve us from our friends!), Hazlitt had been distracted for a moment from the general conversation, he looked round with a mingled air of suspicion and defiance, as though some objectionable phrase might have evaded his censure in the interval. The traits recur to us when we read Hazlitt's description of the men he had known. We seem to see the dark sardonic man, watching the faces and gestures of his friends, ready to take sudden offence at any affront to his cherished prejudices, and yet hampered by a kind of nervous timidity which makes him unpleasantly conscious of his own awkwardness. He remains silent, until somebody unwittingly contradicts his unspoken thoughts—the most irritating kind of contradiction to some people!—and perhaps heaps indiscriminating praise on an old friend, a term nearly synonymous with an old enemy. Then the dagger suddenly flashes out, and Hazlitt strikes two or three rapid blows, aimed with unerring accuracy at the weak points of the armour which he knows so well. And then, as he strikes, a relenting comes over him; he remembers old days with a sudden gush of fondness, and puts in a touch of scorn for his allies or himself.

¿Qué se logra con dar empleos á trochi-moche? El distrito no se enriquece por eso. Los naturales de él que salen empleados se gastan fuera lo que cobran. Raro es el que vuelve al distrito á gastarse en él lo que ahorra ó gárbea. A menudo los tales ahorros no lucen ni parecen. Se disipan y evaporan como no pocas otras riquezas mal y fácilmente adquiridas. Los dineros del sacristán cantando se vienen y cantando se van. El empleado así, por favor electoral, adquiere hábitos de lujo, desdena la manera rústica y sencilla con que antes vivió, y se acostumbra á que el reloj gane por él el dinero, pasando y pasando horas y días. El mal ejemplo infecta á todos. El hijo del menestral, el criado de servicio, todo el que sabe leer y escribir, repugna el trabajo manual, y dice para sí: ¿por qué no he de estar yo también empleado? ¿Por qué el diputado no me proporcionará una bonita colocación? El que no tiene la menor esperanza de que el diputado le coloque, se llena de envidia y de ira, y se hace flojo y pereoso para no ser menos que el empleado, de cuya holganza y vida regalaona se forja un concepto exagerado y fantástico.

1. In what different ways may property in a registered British ship be transferred? What are the formalities necessary to make such a transfer complete? Describe the course to be followed when property in a registered British ship is transmitted to a person not qualified to own a British ship.
2. What legal remedies are given to seamen in respect of their wages?
3. What is the legal effect of the negotiation of a negotiable instrument? In what different ways may a negotiable instrument be negotiated?
A. accepts a bill of exchange for the accommodation of B. B. transfers the bill for value to C. Discuss the respective liabilities of A. and B.
4. What is the legal effect of crossing a cheque?
A crossed cheque drawn by F., payable to the order of G., is sent by F. to G., but is fraudulently appropriated by H., who pays it into his bank, J., which obtains cash for the cheque and credits H. with the amount. Has G. any rights as against the bank J.?
5. What is meant by "notice of dishonour"? In what circumstances, within what time, and to whom is it necessary that notice of dishonour should be given?
6. Define "insurable interest." What persons have an insurable interest in a ship?
D. insures with E. the ship Argo "lost or not lost." At the time of the insurance the ship was lost. What are the rights of D. and E. according as (a) neither knew, (b) one knew but the other did not know of the loss?
7. How, and to whom, may the interest of the assured, under a policy of marine insurance, be assigned? Discuss the effect of such an assignment after the loss of the ship. What is the effect of the assignment of the subject-matter of the policy alone?
8. To what extent, and in what cases, is the liability of a carrier of goods by sea limited by statute?

* For Arithmetic, Candidates were instructed to bring a flat rule divided into inches and tenths, and into centimetres and millimetres.

9. What is a charter-party? What are the conditions implied in a charter-party? Discuss the respective liabilities of the ship-owner and the charterer as regards (a) the loading, (b) the unloading of a ship.
10. Discuss the liabilities of a common carrier by land, who carries goods improperly packed and fails to deliver them in proper time, the goods being injured partly in consequence of the delay and partly because of improper packing; assume that no damage would have resulted on account of the improper packing, if the goods had been delivered in time.

(Time allowed, 2 hours.)

For various data see the cover of the answer book (these data are shown below).

No restriction is made as to method. For full credit your work must be fully shown and easily intelligible, and approximate answers must be given to the degree of accuracy asked for, and not to a greater degree.

1. How much will a creditor receive, to whom a bankrupt paying 8s. 10d. in the pound owes £1,970?
2. A ship steaming 12 knots leaves harbour at 12.30 p.m. A destroyer steaming 17 knots follows on the same course at 1.40 p.m. When will the destroyer overtake the ship, and at what distance from the harbour? Give the distance in nautical miles: a speed of a knot is one nautical mile per hour.
3. How many planks, each 2.5 metres long and 20 centimetres broad, will be required for the floor of a room 15 metres long by 10 metres wide?
4. The following table shows the areas and populations of Japan and the British Isles:—

	Population.	Area in Square Miles.
Japan . . .	41,260,606	162,655
British Isles...	41,726,633	121,377

Calculate the number of inhabitants to the square mile (a) in Japan, (b) in the British Isles. Give each result to the nearest whole number.

5. The total area of three estates is 1,768 acres. If the areas of the two smaller estates be respectively $\frac{2}{3}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ of that of the largest, find the area of each.
6. How many tons of steel rails, weighing 85 lb. per yard, will be required for 20 miles of a double track line (i.e., 4 rails)?
7. Air contains 23 per cent. of its weight of oxygen. If 10 cubic feet of air weigh 12.3 ounces, and (to the nearest ounce) the number of ounces of oxygen in an empty room 12 feet high, measuring 27 ft. 4 in. x 18 feet.
8. The diagram below represents a silver cross drawn full size. Measure the dimensions to the nearest millimetre, and find the amount of silver that would be required to make 10 such crosses, if each has a thickness of 2 millimetres. Give the answer correct to the nearest cubic centimetre.

(6.) COMMERCIAL GEOGRAPHY.

Time allowed, 2½ hours.

Five questions only to be attempted. All the questions carry equal marks. Credit will be given for sketch-maps illustrating any of the answers.

1. State the chief exports of Tropical Africa, and explain why this region yields relatively little to commerce. Give also the chief ports on both the east and west coasts, naming the regions to which they serve as outlets.
2. Name and briefly describe any four types of climate, with special reference to their effects upon cultivated crops. Give examples of characteristic crops in the case of each type of climate described.
3. Name the chief wheat-exporting countries of the world, noting the conditions which favour the growth of the crop in each case. Give the approximate time of harvest in each country named, and indicate for each country the route by which the product is exported.
4. Describe a journey round the world in the Northern Hemisphere, indicating approximately the times occupied in traversing the different sections of the route.
5. Name the chief areas on the Continent of Europe in which cotton, silk, and linen are manufactured, and explain how it is that the industries come to be localised in the places you name.
6. Give some account of the economic geography of China, under the following three headings:—Production, foreign trade, means of communication.

7. Describe the physical features of New Zealand, and discuss the advantages and disadvantages, from a commercial point of view, which result from its geographical position.
8. Insert on the map of Germany supplied to you the chief rivers, the more important canals, and the chief mountain ranges. Mark and name Cologne, Bremen, Hamburg, Stettin, Dantzic, and Kiel, and the chief coalfields.

(7.) POLITICAL ECONOMY.

Time allowed, 2½ hours.

Six questions, and no more, are to be attempted. All the questions carry equal marks.

1. Define political economy. What do you understand precisely by an "economic law"?
2. Point out the resemblances and the differences between profits and (a) wages, (b) rent.
3. "Value depends on cost of production."
"Value is determined by final or marginal utility."
Explain these two views of value. Which is, in your opinion, the more correct or adequate? Can they be reconciled?
4. What is the precise significance of the following expressions:—Diminishing returns, necessary wage, quasi-rent, mint price, indirect taxation? Point out in your answer any ambiguities which have arisen in their use.
5. It has been said that "Free Trade is International Division of Labour."
Examine into the correctness and point out the significance of this statement.
6. What are the main causes of fluctuations in the exchanges between London and New York? By what means are those fluctuations generally corrected? How far is it accurate to speak of the foreign exchanges as "self-adjusting"?
7. In what order of importance would you place the different functions of money? How far, and under what conditions, can these functions be satisfactorily discharged by paper money? Refer specially in your answer to the present monetary system of England.
8. "Taxation should be measured by ability to pay."
"Taxation should be proportioned to benefit received."
"Taxation should require an equal sacrifice from each tax-payer."
Explain and consider critically these different tests of taxation. How far are they observed in the existing fiscal practice of the United Kingdom?

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH DOMINIONS.

ACT OF PARLIAMENT FOR PRESERVING THE PRIVILEGES OF AMBASSADORS AND OTHER PUBLIC MINISTERS OF FOREIGN PRINCES AND STATES.*

(7 Ann. cap. 12, 1708.)

Reasons for passing this Act.

WHEREAS several turbulent and disorderly persons having in a most outrageous manner insulted the person of His Excellency Andrew Artemonowitz Matueof, Ambassador Extraordinary of his Czarish Majesty, Emperor of Great Russia, Her Majesties good friend and ally, by arresting him, and taking him by violence out of his coach in the publick street, and detaining him in custody for several hours, in contempt of the protection granted by Her Majesty, contrary to the Law of Nations, and in prejudice of the rights and privileges which Ambassadors and other publick Ministers, authorised and received as such, have at all times been thereby possessed of, and ought to be kept sacred and inviolable.

[Ss. 1, 2, repealed 30 and 31 Vict. c. 59.]

All Process against Ambassadors Void.

3. And to prevent the like insolences for the future, be it further declared by the authority aforesaid, that all writs and processes that shall at any time hereafter be sued forth or prosecuted, whereby the person of any Ambassador, or other publick Minister of any foreign Prince or State, authorised and received as such by Her Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the domestick, or domestick servant of any such Ambassador, or other Publick Minister, may be arrested or imprisoned, or his or their goods or chattels may be distrained, seized or attached, shall be deemed and adjudged to be utterly null and void, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever.

Persons Suing, or Officers, &c., executing such Process. Punishment.

4. And in case any person or persons shall presume to sue forth or prosecute any such writ or process, such person and persons, and all attorneys and solicitors prosecuting and soliciting in such case, and all officers executing any such writ or process, being thereof convicted, by the confession of the party, or by the oath of one or more credible witness or witnesses, before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of Great Britain, the Chief Justice of the Court of Queens Bench, the Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas for the time being, or any two of them, shall be deemed violators of the Laws of Nations, and disturbers of the publick repose, and shall suffer such pains, penalties, and corporal punishment, as the [said †] Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, and the said Chief Justices, or any two of them, shall judge fit to be imposed and inflicted.

Trader.

5. [‡ Provided and be it declared, that no merchant or other trader whatsoever, within the description of any of the statutes against bankrupts, who hath or shall put himself into the service of any such Ambassador or Publick Minister, shall have or take any manner of benefit by this Act.

Servant, &c., of Ambassador not privileged unless registered, &c.

6. And that no person shall be proceeded against as having arrested the servant of an Ambassador or Publick Minister, by virtue of this Act, unless the name of such servant be first registered in the office of one of the Principal Secretaries of State, and by such Secretary transmitted to the Sheriffs of London and Middlesex for the time being, or their Under Sheriffs or Deputies, who shall, upon the receipt thereof, hang up the same in some publick place in their offices, whereto all persons may resort, and take copies thereof, without fee or reward.]

7. all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, and other officers and ministers of justice, concerned in the execution of process, are hereby required to have regard to this Act, as they will answer the contrary at their peril.

* Extracted from The Statutes Second Revised Edition, 1888. (Inserted by permission of H.M. Stationery Office.)
† Interlined on the roll.
‡ Annexed to the original Act in two separate schedules.

FOREIGN EMBASSIES, LEGATIONS, AND CONSULATES IN THE BRITISH DOMINIONS.

The King's Exequatur is granted to Foreign Consular Officers holding a Commission signed by the Sovereign or Supreme Authority of the State appointing them. In other cases a formal recognition is accorded.

The Lists are submitted annually to the Foreign Governments concerned for the latest information available.
